

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE LOSS OF THE GERMAN BATTLESHIP —— BISMARCK —— —— 27th MAY 1941 ——

After sinking HMS Hood on the 24th May Bismarck disengaged heading south. At midnight HMS Victorious sighted her and attacked with her Swordfish scoring one minor hit. All contact was then lost. RAF Coastal Command joined in the search and reported a sighting mid-morning of the 26th May HMS Ark Royal was the first to the scene scoring two hits damaging her rudders, propellers and steering gear. HMS's Rodney and King George V caught up on the 27th May, opened fire, but was unable to sink the battleship. HMS Dorsetshire attacked at close range firing three torpedoes. It is not certain whether this or, the order by Admiral Lutgens to scuttle that spelled the end of the Bismarck. Of the crew on board of 2200 only 107 were to survive.
