Moser,2007-10-01 The essays in this volume prepared by a virtual who's who of the leading arbitrators in Asia present a unique insight into arbitration practices and procedures in the world's largest and fastest growing region. This book offers thoughtful advice and insights into the world of international arbitration in Asia from some of the most prominent and experienced international arbitrators in the world. The contributors are arbitrators from Brunei Darussalam, China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Singapore, United Kingdom, and the USA. The contributors offer insights and advice on the way in which international arbitrations are carried out from the point of view of arbitrators reading pleadings and memorials and listening to witnesses and hearing arguments. The authors' discussions are intended to be thoughtful, insightful, and useful and perhaps occasionally iconoclastic. There may be instances in which the authors disagree with one another on certain points, for there are often many routes that can be taken to achieve a result. The book will be useful not only to persons who may serve as arbitrators in international arbitral proceedings but also to those who may in their position as advocates wish to persuade persons including perhaps the authors.

Till Death Us Do Part: A True Murder Mystery Vincent Bugliosi, 2004-05-17 Winner of the Edgar Award for Best Fact Crime Bugliosi, the quintessential prosecutor, has written a crime book that should be read by every lawyer and judge in America. F. Lee Bailey. On December 11, 1966, a mysterious assassin shot Henry Stockton to death, set his house on fire, and left the scene without a trace. A year later, when a woman was found brutally killed, shreds of evidence suggested a connection between the two murders. In the Palliko Stockton trial, prosecutor Vincent Bugliosi offered a brilliant summation that synthesized for the jury the many inferences and shades of meaning in the testimony, fitting all the pieces together in a mosaic of guilt. But will the jury be persuaded? California. Court of Appeal (1st Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Outrage: The Five Reasons Why O. J. Simpson Got Away with Murder Vincent Bugliosi, 2008-01-29 But in the Simpson case, there was a mountain of incriminating evidence pointing inevitably and absolutely to the defendant's guilt. What happened? What went wrong? Much of that evidence, including some of the most vital pieces, was never presented to the jury by the prosecutors; there were disastrous lapses in the prosecution's strategy which allowed damaging defense testimony to go unchallenged. Prosecutors Clark and Darden failed to stand up to the abuses of Judge Ito, thereby hurting their credibility with the jury. The final summations of the prosecution were weakly constructed, listlessly argued, and most unforgivably inadequately prepared.
