BOOK JACKET Anamnesis and the Eucharist Revd Dr Julie Gittoes, 2013-05-28 Engaging with contemporary Anglican theology of the Eucharist through the concept of anamnesis this book seeks to enrich the Church's understanding of transformation and mission Eucharistic theology finds its place in the midst of much contemporary Anglican theology but little attention has been given to the interrelationship between mission and the Eucharist Julie Gittoes engages with the work of David Ford Rowan Williams and Catherine Pickstock who share a common concern to engage with the way in which the Eucharist shapes the life of the worshipping community as the body of Christ Focusing on the concept of anamnesis remembrance or memorial Gittoes highlights a language of connection in the way in which anamnesis describes the integration of historical sacramental and ecclesial embodiments of Christ The Eucharist looks back to the saving events of Christ's life death and resurrection through it the Church is nourished with the body of Christ participating in it anticipates the eschatological fulfilment of the Kingdom This book explores the connection between the source event of the Church's life and the transformative encounter with Christ in the Eucharist the effects of which are seen in social ethical political action and the Church's mission

Iconoclastic Sex Henry Walter Spaulding III, 2024-03-13 Christian sexual ethics operates from a place of privilege when it does not consider those impacted by its moral prescriptions A large majority of publications on Christian sexual ethics consider choices and images abstracted from lived conditions of the people called to make these decisions As such it leaves out many for whom sex is neither welcome nor a choice As such these same texts present images of sexual subjects that marginalize those that do not fit As the book presents sexuality both Christian and otherwise prioritizes a language of purity that strangles the life of those imaged impure The present book remedies this emphasis through the language of iconoclasm that blasphemes these images and opens theological reflection beyond the boundary of image based approaches Utilizing a qualitative study of survivors of trafficking and those who grew up under evangelical purity teachings Spaulding narrates sexual ethics in light of their testimonies and the theological resources of iconoclasm to articulate a more just and loving sexuality The new emphasis on sexual ethics not only resists the prescriptions that create the conditions of sex trafficking but the creation of new communities capable of solidarity and mutuality with those caught in the web of trafficking

The Meaning of Icons Léonide Ouspensky, Vladimir Lossky, 1982 The nature of the icon cannot be grasped by means of pure art criticism nor by the adoption of a sentimental point of view Its forms are based on the wisdom contained in the theological and liturgical writings of the Eastern Orthodox Church and are intimately bound up with the experience of the contemplative life The present work is the first of its kind to give a reliable introduction to the spiritual background of this art The introduction into the meaning and language of the icons by Ouspensky imparts to us in an admirable way the spiritual conceptions of the Eastern Orthodox Church which are often so foreign to us but without the knowledge of which we cannot possibly understand the world of the icon Back cover Compassionate Christ, Compassionate People Bob

Rowan's Rule Rupert Shortt, 2009-02-24 A fascinating fair minded depiction of Archbishop Rowan Williams Rowan Williams is a complex and controversial figure Widely revered for his personal qualities he is also an intellectual giant who towers over almost all his predecessors as Archbishop of Canterbury Among other achievements he has trounced the atheist Richard Dawkins and published over twenty well regarded books including several volumes of poetry and a major study of Dostoevsky Yet he is also one of the most reviled church leaders in modern history Long before facing calls to step down after his lecture on sharia law in early 2008 he had been accused of heresy on account of his pro gay views He has disappointed many of his own supporters as well So how has high office changed Rowan Williams Has he been bullied and manipulated Or is he perhaps playing a long game obliged to rate church unity above the pursuit of his own vision at a time when the Anglican Communion has never looked more unstable Rupert Shortt already the author of an acclaimed introduction to the Archbishop's thought offers answers to these and other questions in this authoritative biography He explores how the events of the Archbishop's remarkable life have shaped his beliefs and practices today Of particular interest is the riveting account of Williams's experience near the World Trade Center towers on the morning of September 11 2001 Written with Williams's cooperation Rowan's Rule not only elucidates his ideas but gives a compelling portrait of a private and in some ways surprisingly vulnerable man Charity Law and Governance Ross Grantham, Kim D Weinert, 2025-10-16 This book presents a critical in depth analysis of the changes taking place in the governance of charities and charity law in Australia New Zealand and England Delving into the transformative journey of charity law the book reveals its dramatic shift from traditional private law regulation governed by the courts and trust law to an advanced regulatory framework This pivot is not just a legal transition it reflects the core tension within charity itself the balancing act between private initiative and public good Featuring contributions from both renowned and up and coming international charity law scholars this book stands out for its comprehensive coverage Each chapter delves into the nuanced complex issues arising from the modernisation of charity law providing a rich insightful exploration of the concept of charity as it straddles the realms of legal theory and state regulated practice Making See C. M. A. van Ekris, 2018-06-20 What is theologically and homiletically happening in prophetic sermons This empirical theological study offers an analysis of the prophetic dimension in contemporary practices of preaching including sermons from Bonhoeffer King and Tutu and from Dutch local contexts After a phenomenological opening five theological concepts are extracted from the studied sermons exposing destructiva interrupting dominant discourses recognising the Word overcoming destructiva and edifying the congregation In this study prophetic speech is reconstructed as an illuminative interplay between epiphanic and inductive aspects
