The Ulama in Contemporary Islam Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2010-12-16 From the cleric led Iranian revolution to the rise of the Taliban in Afghanistan many people have been surprised by what they see as the modern reemergence of an antimodern phenomenon This book helps account for the increasingly visible public role of traditionally educated Muslim religious scholars the ulama across contemporary Muslim societies Muhammad Qasim Zaman describes the transformations the centuries old culture and tradition of the ulama have undergone in the modern era transformations that underlie the new religious and political activism of these scholars In doing so it provides a new foundation for the comparative study of Islam politics and religious change in the contemporary world While focusing primarily on Pakistan Zaman takes a broad approach that considers the Taliban and the ulama of Iran Egypt Saudi Arabia India and the southern Philippines He shows how their religious and political discourses have evolved in often unexpected but mutually reinforcing ways to redefine and enlarge the roles the ulama play in society Their discourses are informed by a longstanding religious tradition of which they see themselves as the custodians But these discourses are equally shaped by and contribute in significant ways to contemporary debates in the Muslim public sphere This book offers the first sustained comparative perspective on the ulama and their increasingly crucial religious and political activism It shows how issues of religious authority are debated in contemporary Islam how Islamic law and tradition are continuously negotiated in a rapidly changing world and how the ulama both react to and shape larger Islamic social trends Introducing previously unexamined facets of religious and political thought in modern Islam it clarifies the complex processes of religious change unfolding in the contemporary Muslim world and goes a long way toward explaining their vast social and political ramifications

Contemporary Issues in Islam Asma Afsaruddin, 2015-08-31 This book deals with certain hot button contemporary issues in Islam that are often the focus of public scrutiny including the Sharia jihad the caliphate women s status and interfaith relations Notably it places the discussion of these topics within a longer historical framework in order to reveal their multiple interpretations and contested applications over time Most public and some academic discourses however present the Islamic tradition as unchanging and therefore unable to respond to the modern world Such an ahistorical approach fosters the belief that Muslim and Western societies are destined to clash with one another In contrast this book allows the reader to see the diversity and transformations within Islamic thought over time Focusing on this internal diversity permits us to appreciate the scriptural and intellectual resources available within the Islamic tradition for responding to the challenges of modernity even as it interrogates and shapes modernity itself

Islamic Religious Authority in a Modern Age Shaheen Amid Whyte, 2024-01-22 This book situates Australian Muslim experiences of religious authority within the global context of Islam in the modern world While drawing on examples of Muslim majority states new empirical findings indicate the growing diversity of Muslim religious actors in Australia as well as the contextual realities shaping the way religious authority is legitimised and contested in democratic and authoritarian environments In particular the study challenges homogenous articulations of Islamic religious authority in unearthing new voices epistemologies and socio political factors shaping Muslim attitudes and experiences of religious authority The book fills important gaps in the field such as intra Muslim relations female religious authority digital Islam and the relationship between traditional ulama reformists and Muslim intellectuals in the West

Modern Muslim Intellectuals and the Qur'an Suha Taji-Farouki, Institute of Ismaili Studies, 2006-01-26 This volume examines the writings of ten Muslim intellectuals working in the Muslim world and the West who employ contemporary critical methods to understand the Qur'an. An Introduction to Islam Frederick Denny, 2015-09-21 An Introduction to Islam Fourth Edition provides students with a thorough unified and topical introduction to the global religious community of Islam. In addition, the author's extensive field work experience and scholarship combined with his engaging writing style and passion for the subject also sets his text apart. An Introduction to Islam places Islam within a cultural, political, social, and religious context and examines its connections with Judeo-Christian morals. Its integration of the doctrinal and devotional elements of Islam enables readers to see how Muslims think and live, engendering understanding and breaking down stereotypes. This text also reviews pre-Islamic history so readers can see how Islam developed historically.

Muslim Legal Thought in Modern Indonesia R. Michael Feener, 2007-08-30 Indonesia has been home to some of the most vibrant and complex developments in modern Islamic thought anywhere in the world. Nevertheless, little is known or understood about these developments outside South East Asia. By considering the work of the leading Indonesian thinkers of the twentieth century, Michael Feener, an intellectual authority in the area, offers a cogent critique of this diverse and extensive literature and sheds light on the contemporary debates and the dynamics of Islamic reform. The book highlights the openness to and creative manipulation of diverse strands of international thought that have come to define Islamic intellectualism in modern Indonesia. This is an accessible and interpretive overview of the religious and social thought of the world's largest Muslim majority nation. As such, it will be read by scholars of Islamic law and society, South East Asian studies, and comparative law and jurisprudence.

The Biographical Encyclopedia of Islamic Philosophy Oliver Leaman, 2015-07-16 Philosophy flourished in the Islamic world for many centuries and continues to be a significant feature of cultural life today. Now available in paperback, The Biographical Encyclopedia of Islamic Philosophy covers all the major and many minor philosophers, theologians, and mystics who contributed to its development. With entries on over 300 thinkers and key concepts in Islamic philosophy, this updated landmark work also includes a timeline, glossary, and detailed bibliography. It goes beyond philosophy to reference all kinds of theoretical inquiry which were often linked with philosophy, such as the Islamic sciences, grammar, theology, law, and traditions. Every major school of thought from classical Peripatetic philosophy to Sufi mysticism is represented, and entries range across time from the early years of the faith to the modern period. Featuring an international group of authors from South East Asia, the Indian Subcontinent, the Middle East, North Africa, Europe, and North America, The Biographical Encyclopedia of Islamic Philosophy provides access to the ideas and people comprising almost 1400 years of Islamic philosophical tradition Mahathir's Islam Sven Schottmann, 2018-09-30 Mahathir Mohamad's legacy as Malaysia's longest serving prime minister 1981-2003 is deeply controversial His engagement with Islam the religion of just over half Malaysia's population has often been dismissed as partisan maneuvering Yet his willingness to countenance a more prominent place for Islam in government and society is what distinguished him from other modernist politicians and his instinct to set Malaysian politics against the backdrop of the wider Muslim world was politically astute Author Sven Schottmann argues that Mahathir's transformative effect on Malaysia can only be fully appreciated if we also take him seriously as one of the postcolonial Muslim world's most significant political thought leaders Schottmann sees Mahathir's representations of Islam as a relatively coherent discourse that can legitimately be described as Mahathir's Islam This discourse contains Mahathir's assessment of the economic political and sociocultural problems facing the contemporary Muslim world and the range of solutions and corrective measures that he proposed Muslims should adopt His ideas are fraught with flaws and contradictions On the one hand he emphasized the individualistic egalitarian pluralistic democratic and dynamic qualities of Islam On the other his government enacted legislation and acquiesced in the activities of religious bodies that curtailed religious freedoms of both Muslims and non Muslims His ideas contributed to Malaysia's worsening state of interethnic relations yet his insistence that every Muslim had the right to speak for Islam may have paradoxically prepared the ground for a future democratization of Malaysian politics Mahathir's Islam is based on rigorous analysis of Mahathir's speeches interviews and writings which the author is able to link to parallel processes elsewhere in the Muslim world Indonesia the Middle East Pakistan Turkey and diaspora communities in the West Mahathir's Islamic discourse Schottmann suggests must be read against the wider late twentieth century resurgence of religion in general and the post 1970s Islamic revival in particular Balanced in approach and engagingly written this book will be of interest to scholars and students of political science religious studies and others interested in Malaysia Southeast Asia or Mahathir himself

Islamic Movements of Europe Frank Peter, Rafael Ortega, 2014-09-08 Islam in Europe and Islamophobia are subjects of vital global importance which currently preoccupy policy makers and academics alike Through the examination of various European Muslim groups and institutions that have branched off from Islamic movements including the Muslim Brotherhood Hizb ut Tahrir and Jama'at al Islami this book outlines the configuration of social political and religious processes that have given rise to new kinds of European Muslim organisations The authors offer a new perspective on these Muslim groups and seek to reclaim them from the often highly charged public debates by placing them within the context of their origins as politicised religious movements on the one hand and their ongoing incorporation into European societal structures on the other They also consider the relationship of these organisations to their parent movements and examine the presence of Islam in European education and higher education institutions Taking into account the connection between Islamic movements and the perceived surge of Islamophobia in Europe this book does not debate the question of whether these groups fit into normative or cultural structures of European nation states but rather examines how these structures have changed through their interaction with these groups and the growing Muslim population within Europe It does not consider political Islam as the antithesis to a refined notion of secularism but as a form of public religion which contributes to the ever changing structure of Europe s secular regimes Featuring the work of more than 40 scholars from around the world this is the comprehensive guide to Islamic movements in Europe offering original definitive perspectives on Muslims and Islam in Europe today It will be essential reading for policy makers political commentators and scholars alike Muslims as Actors

Jacques Waardenburg,2012-02-13 This book deals with Islamic studies and with the question how the scholarly study of religion can contribute to the study of Islam The author advocates studying Islamic phenomena as signs and symbols interpreted and applied in diverse ways in existing traditions He stresses the role of Muslims as actors in the ongoing debate about the articulation of Islamic ways of life and construction of Islam as a religion A careful study of this debate should steer clear of political religious and ideological interests Research in this area by Muslims and non Muslim scholars alike should address the question of what Muslims have made of their Islam in specific circumstances Current political contexts have created an unhealthy climate for pursuing an open approach to Islam based on reading observing listening and reflecting Yet precisely nowadays we need to look anew at ways of Muslim thinking and acting that refer to Islam and to avoid certain schemes of interpreting Muslim realities that are no longer adequate for present day Muslim life situations Muslim recourse to Islam can be studied as human constructions of value and meaning and relations between Muslims and others can be seen in terms of human interaction without blame always falling on Islam as such Arab liberal thought in the modern age

Meir Hatina,2020-01-15 The provides in depth analysis of Arab liberalism which although lacking public appeal and a compelling political underpinning still sustained viability over time and remained a constant part of the Arab landscape

Islamic thought in Southeast Asia: New Interpretations and Movements Kamaruzzaman Bustamam-Ahmad,Patrick Jory,2013 Recent years have witnessed a remarkable growth in scholarship on Islam within Southeast Asia Underlying this scholarship is a desire to resolve pressing social and political problems facing Muslim communities an awareness of the significance of pluralism and cultural hybridity within Southeast Asian societies and the rapidly growing interaction between Southeast Asian Muslims and the outside world The chapters in this book represent some of the exciting new directions young scholars in Southeast Asia universities are taking Islamic Studies Themes covered include Islam and liberalism the diverse streams of contemporary Islamic thought neo Sufi movements Islam and human rights the growing influence of Islamic law Islam and democratic politics Islamic education and the relationship between Islam and ethnic identity
