physically and mentally demanding as prima ballerina And yet despite very real professional risks three dancers from the world class San Francisco Ballet all decided to have children at the pinnacle of their careers In Balancing Acts photographer Lucy Gray takes readers on an unforgettable fourteen year journey with these ballerinas capturing their remarkable grit and determination In dramatic black and white photography Gray documents their struggles to balance the demands of family and work from their tireless preparation in rehearsals and dazzling mastery of craft displayed on stage to their time spent relaxing at home with family and even while giving birth In extensive interviews the dancers and their husbands discuss their stories with great candor providing remarkable insight into the life of a ballerina and the everyday challenges and joys of mothers everywhere Haydn, Mozart, and the Viennese School, 1740-1780 Daniel Heartz,1995 Historians have long tried to place the music of Haydn and Mozart in the lineage of German Lutheran music In this book Daniel Heartz shows that the first Viennese school grew from a Catholic inheritance in Italian music and from local tradition with an admixture of French currents The generation of composers led by Haydn no longer trained in Italy By the time young Mozart joined the ranks of the Viennese school its accomplishments towered above all others of the time The author s approach can be compared to viewing a majestic mountain range in its totality the highest peaks take on even greater majesty when seen in their natural context of foothills and lesser peaks This is how Haydn and Mozart were viewed by their contemporaries whose world of perception Heartz recreates using among other things the visual art of the period His focus is on music as a part of cultural history at a particular time and place Stylistic terms and a priori periods matter less to him than the common denominators of geography culture and political history Book jacket Dance Theatre of Harlem Judy Tyrus,Paul Novosel,2021-10-26
