Alternatives to Economic Globalization John Cavanagh and Jerry Mander, Mander Jerry, Cavanagh John, 2010-06 The definitive document of the anti corporate globalization movement the consensus report of an alliance of leading activists scholars economists researchers and writers Offers a constructive coherent positive alternative to globalization the very thing that the anti corporate globalization movement is always accused of not putting forward The International Forum on Globalization consists of the leaders of over 60 organizations in 25 countries including such prominent organizations as Friends of the Earth the Third World Network the Sierra Club the Institute for Policy Studies Public Citizen Rainforest Action Network and Food First Written by a premier group of 21 thinkers from around the world the second edition of Alternatives to Economic Globalization lays out democratic ecologically sound socially just alternatives to corporate globalization more fully specifically and thoughtfully than has ever been done before Focusing on constructive achievable goals the authors present ten governing principles for establishing truly sustainable societies and describe alternatives to the World Bank the IMF and the WTO that would better serve the needs of the planet They offer detailed proposals for protecting vital goods and services from corporate exploitation limiting corporate privileges and power rebuilding economies to make them more responsive to human needs and more This revised and expanded edition features a new opening chapter on the global balance of power a new section on the media and globalization and a new final chapter on what ordinary citizens can do to fight the injustices of globalization It also includes many new charts sidebars and other updated information Alternatives to Economic Globalization International Forum on Globalization. Alternatives Task Force, 2002 Written by a premier group of thinkers from around the world this book is the defining document of the anti globalization movement and the culmination of a three year project by the International Forum on Globalization Alternatives to Economic Globalization John Cavanagh, Jerry Mander, 2004-10-10 The culmination of a five year project by the International Forum on Globalization IFG this book presents an inspiring plan for moving toward more sustainable humanistic models of economic prosperity with an emphasis on citizen democracies local self sufficiency and ecological health Places and Politics in an Age of Globalization Roxann Prazniak, Arif Dirlik, 2001-02-07 This ambitious work provides a unique statement on the question of place based activism and its relationship to powerful forces of international capital Arguing that specific places around the world are sites for the defense and enhancement of daily life in the context of rapidly expanding global technologies and investment options the contributors reach for a vision of social development that supports sustainable humane cultures Bringing together the local and the global this work provides the first sustained linkage of ethnic groups in diaspora to macrocosmic processes of world capital that inevitably reach down to mediate even the most local experiences The essays ranging in their discussion of place from Los Angeles and New York to New Zealand and Indonesia offer both reasoned argument and authoritative information on how local experience interacts with larger processes of global capital and the diasporic phenomenon The book will be an invaluable resource and launching point for scholars and students in ethnic and identity studies and will interest all readers exploring the production of place and identification      Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies      Local Politics, Global Impacts Olivier Charnoz, Virginie Diaz Pedregal, 2016-05-06 Serving as a touchstone for a much needed research program on social scales this volume challenges disciplinary boundaries and brings into focus a paradoxical state of affairs in contemporary thought the domain of local global interactions has not yet been identified as an object of analysis in its own right despite engaging a large multi disciplinary research community with strong potential for cross fertilization Bringing together internationally renowned as well as emerging scholars this book presents concrete case studies framed by theoretical concern with the issue of scale It demonstrates that a diverse array of theoretical methodological and empirical perspectives can productively converge on a common set of problems related to social temporal and spatial scales and contemporary globalization Local Politics Global Impacts will stimulate empirical and theoretical research that focuses on understanding how political concepts practices and instruments translate across scales and contribute to the emergence of a self aware community of scholars and practitioners focusing explicitly on modelling the dynamics of local regional global interactions      Local Politics, Global Impacts Dr Olivier Charnoz, Dr Virginie Diaz Pedregal, Professor Alan L Kolata, 2015-12-28 Serving as a touchstone for a much needed research program on social scales this volume challenges disciplinary boundaries and brings into focus a paradoxical state of affairs in contemporary thought the domain of local global interactions has not yet been identified as an object of analysis in its own right despite engaging a large multi disciplinary research community with strong potential for cross fertilization Bringing together internationally renowned as well as emerging scholars this book presents concrete case studies framed by theoretical concern with the issue of scale It demonstrates that a diverse array of theoretical methodological and empirical perspectives can productively converge on a common set of problems related to social temporal and spatial scales and contemporary globalization Local Politics Global Impacts will stimulate empirical and theoretical research that focuses on understanding how political concepts practices and instruments translate across scales and contribute to the emergence of a self aware community of scholars and practitioners focusing explicitly on modelling the dynamics of local regional global interactions

Convergence of Contemporary Art, Visual Culture, and Global Civic Engagement Shin, Ryan, 2016-11-29 Art is a multi faceted part of human society and often is used for more than purely aesthetic purposes When used as a narrative on modern society art can actively engage citizens in cultural and pedagogical discussions Convergence of Contemporary Art Visual Culture and Global Civic Engagement is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly material on the relationship between popular media art and visual culture analyzing how this intersection promotes global pedagogy and learning Highlighting relevant perspectives from both international and community levels this book is ideally designed for professionals upper level students researchers and academics interested in the role of art in global learning

Neighborhood Decline Ronald van Kempen, Gideon Bolt, Maarten van Ham, 2018-10-18 The global financial and economic crisis that hit the world since 2008 has affected the lives of many people all over the world and resulted in declining incomes rising unemployment foreclosures forced residential moves and cut backs in government expenditure The extent to which the crisis has affected urban neighborhoods and has led to rising intra urban inequalities has not yet received much attention The implemented budget cuts and austerity programs of national and local governments are likely to have hit some neighborhoods more than others The authors of this this book which come from a variety of countries and disciplines show that the economic crisis has affected poor neighborhoods more severely than more affluent ones The tendency of the state to retreat from these neighborhoods has negative consequences for their residents and may even nullify the investments that have been made in many poor neighborhoods in the recent past This book was originally published as a special issue of Urban Geography

Bringing the Biosphere Home Mitchell Thomashow, 2001-10-26 A guide for understanding the ecological and existential aspects of global environmental change This book shows how to make global environmental problems more tangible so that they become an integral part of everyday awareness At its core is a simple assumption that the best way to learn to perceive the biosphere is to pay close attention to our immediate surroundings Through local natural history observations imagination and memory and spiritual contemplation we develop a place based environmental view that can be expanded to encompass the biosphere Interweaving global change science personal narrative and commentary on a wide range of scientific and literary works the book explores both the ecological and existential aspects of urgent issues such as the loss of biodiversity and global climate change Written in a warm engaging style Bringing the Biosphere Home considers the perceptual connections between the local and global how the ecological news of the community is of interest to the world and how the global movement of people species and weather systems affects the local community It shows how global environmental change can become the province of numerous educational initiatives from the classroom to the Internet from community forums to international conferences from the backyard to the biosphere It explains important scientific concepts in clear nontechnical language and provides dozens of ideas for learning how to practice biospheric perception

American Literary Regionalism in a Global Age Philip Joseph,2007-01-01 In this distinctive book Philip Joseph considers how regional literature can remain relevant in a modern global community Why he asks should we continue to read regionalist fiction in an age of expanding international communications and increasing nonlocal forms of affiliation With this question as a guide Joseph places the regionalist tradition of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries at the center of a contemporary conversation about community Part of the challenge Joseph shows is to distinguish between versions of regionalism that speak nostalgically to modern readers and those that might enter actively into a more progressive collective dialogue Examining the works of well known writers including Hamlin Garland Abraham Cahan Willa Cather Zora Neale Hurston and William Faulkner Joseph argues that these regionalist authors share a vision of local communities in open discourse with the external world capable of shaping public thought and policy and also of benefiting from the knowledge and experiences of outsiders Their fiction depicts a range of localities from Jewish American neighborhoods and midwest farming communities to southern African American towns and southwestern mixed race parishes Their characters are often associated with the literary artistic process a method stressing open ended critique that unlike journalistic philosophical or legal processes ensures open dialogue Joseph takes his argument beyond the boundaries of literary scholarship by engaging with art critics such as Lucy Lippard distance learning opponents such as David Noble and civil society proponents such as Robert Putnam and Michael Sandel Like civil society advocates today regionalist writers used the idea of community as a discursive topos and explored how values including home and neighborhood were reconciled with such democratic ideals as individual self determination and collective empowerment
