Samuel Beckett's Lyric Failure Mantra Mukim,2025-03-06 Providing one of the first book length accounts of Samuel Beckett's poetry this work illustrates how Beckett's poetry and its failures reconfigure the lyric form Reading

Beckett alongside nineteenth and twentieth century European poets such as Hölderlin, Mallarmé, Rimbaud, Montale and Apollinaire the book situates failure in the triangulation of the lyric impulse, subjectivity and the human voice. Beckett in his poems employs lyric tactics that range from deixis, parataxis and caesura to specific kinds of timbre, resonances and punctuations. These tactics situate the poetic voice in the liminal points between life and death, event and non-event, beginning and ending and more broadly between expression and failure. The book frames these liminalities under the rubric of lyric failure. Moving beyond the usual comparisons with his prose and drama the study highlights failure as a generative force that structures Beckett's anti-expressive poetics.

The Making of a Prophet Spencer Weston, 2017-04-10

The Making of a Prophet by Spencer Weston Growing up in the pre-Civil Rights Movement South was more than difficult for young Spencer Weston. He saw his family and his community ravaged by prejudice both the passive discrimination present in everyday life and the active criminal behavior of the KKK. After the sun went down Spencer, a physically imposing young man, found himself the target of unwanted attention simply because he looked intimidating though he would never hurt a fly outside of self-defense. This trend would follow him throughout his life. The Making of a Prophet is the true story of a man who struggled to find his way in life fighting against injustice and discrimination at every turn. You'll follow Spencer through his tumultuous younger days, his stint in the Army, the Civil Rights Movement and his later years as a family man and preacher. At the end you'll know that Spencer Weston is a man who was called by God to help change the world for the better.

The BRAND NEW instalment in the Malvern Mysteries from Kate Wells. This is no peaceful walk in the countryside. When Jude Gray and DI Binnie Khatri join a local walking group their expectations for a peaceful outing to the Malvern Hills takes a grim turn. Arguments abound and the hike ends in tragedy when one of the walkers is found dead in her car. Initially ruled as an accident, Jude's instincts tell her there's more to the story. As Jude and Binnie dig deeper they uncover tensions and secrets within the group. From hidden affairs to longstanding rivalries it becomes clear this death was no accident. With each revelation the danger grows. Can Jude and Binnie unravel the mystery before the killer strikes again? A gripping addition to the Malvern Farm Mystery series perfect for fans of Frances Evesham, Merryn Allingham and Faith Martin. Praise for the Malvern Mysteries: A complex and intriguing murder mystery set in beautiful British countryside where the farm animals are as demanding as the local residents. Kept me guessing all the way to the end. T. A. Williams. An original setting and clever plot. Had me hooked from page one. E. V. Hunter. A tantalising corkscrew of a plot featuring a plucky quartet of very different women working together to uncover the truth about a series of dreadful crimes. Debbie Young. I loved this rollercoaster of a book. It was stylish, pacy and gripping with engaging characters. I rooted for Jude the sleuth from the first page. It's a hugely suspenseful story, compelling, well-crafted and cleverly calculated. Judy Leigh. A cryptically clever, cosy mystery that will transport you to the beautiful Malvern Hills. I couldn't put it down. Jessica Bull.

Death of an Idealist is the biography of Neil Aggett the only white person to die while being held in custody by South Africa s apartheid security police A medical doctor who worked most of the week as an unpaid trade union organiser Aggett s stark non materialism shared by his partner Dr Elizabeth Floyd aroused suspicions When their names appeared on a list of Close Comrades prepared for opposition leaders in exile they were among a swathe of union activists detained in 1981 After 70 days in detention Aggett was found hanging from the bars of the steel grille in his cell in John Vorster Square He was the 51st person and the first white person to die in detention He was 28 His death provoked an enormous public outcry his funeral attended by thousands of workers who marched through the streets of Johannesburg This quiet intense young man was in death a people s hero Born to settler parents in Kenya in 1953 Neil Aggett moved with his family to South Africa in early childhood He attended school in Grahamstown before studying medicine at the University of Cape Town Death of an Idealist explores the metamorphosis of a high achieving sports loving schoolboy into a dedicated activist and unpaid trade union organiser Beverley Naidoo traces Neil Aggett s life in particular the years leading up to his detention as a result of a Security Branch sting operation the weeks of interrogation and the inquest that followed his death She recreates the momentous events of his life and in doing so reveals the extraordinary impact Neil s life had on those around him including his family friends and comrades Today a generation later South Africa is free and democratic Yet the idealism and sacrifice displayed by Neil Aggett and so many others appears to have been replaced by cynicism and hand wringing Death of an Idealist is as much the story of a remarkable young man as it is a reminder that every generation needs its idealists
