Making Love Work New Techniques In The Art Of Staying Together:

Making Love Work Zev Wanderer, 1982 Making Love Work Zev Wanderer, 1981-12 Her Neighbor's Wife Lauren Jae Gutterman, 2019-11-01 At first glance Barbara Kalish fit the stereotype of a 1950s wife and mother Married at eighteen Barbara lived with her husband and two daughters in a California suburb where she was president of the Parent Teacher Association At a PTA training conference in San Francisco Barbara met Pearl another PTA president who also had two children and happened to live only a few blocks away from her To Barbara Pearl was the most gorgeous woman in the world and the two began an affair that lasted over a decade Through interviews diaries memoirs and letters Her Neighbor's Wife traces the stories of hundreds of women like Barbara Kalish who struggled to balance marriage and same sex desire in the postwar United States In doing so Lauren Jae Gutterman draws our attention away from the postwar landscape of urban gay bars and into the homes of married women who tended to engage in affairs with wives and mothers they met in the context of their daily lives through work at church or in their neighborhoods In the late 1960s and 1970s the lesbian feminist movement and the no fault divorce revolution transformed the lives of wives who desired women Women could now choose to divorce their husbands in order to lead openly lesbian or bisexual lives increasingly however these women were confronted by hostile state discrimination typically in legal battles over child custody Well into the 1980s many women remained ambivalent about divorce and resistant to labeling themselves as lesbian therefore complicating a simple interpretation of their lives and relationship choices By revealing the extent to which marriage has historically permitted space for wives relationships with other women Her Neighbor's Wife calls into question the presumed straightness of traditional American marriage The Art of Staying Together Mark Robert Waldman, 1998 Noted scientists psychologists and writers such as Deborah Tannen Judith Wallerstein M Scott Peck and Nathaniel Branden bring the latest psychological and medical research to bear on the task of building and holding together satisfying relationships The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Theater Nadine George-Graves, 2015-07-13 The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Theater collects a critical mass of border crossing scholarship on the intersections of dance and theatre Taking corporeality as an idea that unites the work of dance and theater scholars and artists and embodiment as a negotiation of power dynamics with important stakes these essays focus on the politics and poetics of the moving body in performance both on and off stage Contemporary stage performances have sparked global interest in new experiments between dance and theater and this volume situates this interest in its historical context by extensively investigating other such moments from pagan mimes of late antiquity to early modern archives to Bolshevik Russia to post Sandinista Nicaragua to Chinese opera on the international stage to contemporary flash mobs and television dance contests Ideologically the essays investigate critical race theory affect theory cognitive science historiography dance dramaturgy spatiality gender somatics ritual and biopolitics among other modes of inquiry In terms of aesthetics they examine many genres such as musical theater contemporary dance improvisation experimental theater television African total theater modern dance new Indian dance theater aesthetics philanthroproductions Butoh carnival equestrian performance tanztheater Korean Talchum Nazi Movement Choirs Lindy Hop Bomba Caroline Masques political demonstrations and Hip Hop The volume includes innovative essays from both young and seasoned scholars and scholar practitioners who are working at the cutting edges of their fields The handbook brings together essays that offer new insight into well studied areas challenge current knowledge attend to neglected practices or moments in time and that identify emergent themes The overall result is a better understanding of the roles of dance and theater in the performative production of meaning

Working Mother ,1995-09 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives

There's a Disco Ball Between Us Jafari Sinclair Allen,2021-11-15 In There s a Disco Ball Between Us Jafari S Allen offers a sweeping and lively ethnographic and intellectual history of what he calls Black gay habits of mind In conversational and lyrical language Allen locates this sensibility as it emerged from radical Black lesbian activism and writing during the long 1980s He traverses multiple temporalities and locations drawing on research and fieldwork conducted across the globe from Nairobi London and Paris to Toronto Miami and Trinidad and Tobago In these locations and archives Allen traces the genealogies of Black gay politics and cultures in the visual art poetry film Black feminist theory historiography and activism of thinkers and artists such as Audre Lorde Marsha P Johnson Essex Hemphill Colin Robinson Marlon Riggs Pat Parker and Joseph Beam Throughout Allen renarrates Black queer history while cultivating a Black gay method of thinking and writing In so doing he speaks to the urgent contemporary struggles for social justice while calling on Black studies to pursue scholarship art and policy derived from the lived experience and fantasies of Black people throughout the world

Working Mother ,1995-09 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives

New York Magazine ,1981-02-16 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Well-being Past and Present Siobhan Hyland,Paul Jackson,Mark Rothery,2025-09-18 In this exciting interdisciplinary volume researchers archivists curators and social scientists offer a fresh exploration of the concept of well being in Britain throughout history and in the present day Well being Past and Present examines the various ways well being has been invoked as a concept or term throughout historical periods attending to its multifarious meanings and its significance on the way we live our lives Focusing on the interactions between historical research and heritage and archival methods and practices the volume bridges the gap between historical experiences of well being and contemporary well being interventions by institutions and communities Across sixteen chapters the authors in Well being Past and Present travel from the battlefield to the library the orchard to the archive and the country house to the hospital ward examining well being s own historical and contemporary position in discourses like leisure health and happiness The key questions this volume asks are has the concept of well being become too nebulous to carry any real meaning What happens to the term when we place it in the range of very different contexts that it finds a home in How do past discourses of well being connect to the present How widely is well being and associated activities spread across our diverse societies Well being Past and Present is a timely volume and contributes not just to our historical understanding of well being but how we can utilise history and heritage to establish communities of care in Britain Drawing Futures Bob Sheil,Frédéric Migayrou,Luke Pearson,Laura

Allen,2016-11-11 Drawing Futures brings together international designers and artists for speculations in contemporary drawing for art and architecture Despite numerous developments in technological manufacture and computational design that provide new grounds for designers the act of drawing still plays a central role as a vehicle for speculation There is a rich and long history of drawing tied to innovations in technology as well as to revolutions in our philosophical understanding of the world In reflection of a society now underpinned by computational networks and interfaces allowing hitherto unprecedented views of the world the changing status of the drawing and its representation as a political act demands a platform for reflection and innovation Drawing Futures will present a compendium of projects writings and interviews that critically reassess the act of drawing and where its future may lie Drawing Futures focuses on the discussion of how the field of drawing may expand synchronously alongside technological and computational developments The book coincides with an international conference of the same name taking place at The Bartlett School of Architecture UCL in November 2016 Bringing together practitioners from many creative fields the book discusses how drawing is changing in relation to new technologies for the production and dissemination of ideas
