Rebecca T. Isbell, Shirley C. Raines, 2007 Creativity and the Arts with Young Children 2e is written specifically for early childhood educators as well as professionals who work with children birth through age eight. The focus of this book now in its second edition is on making the vital connection to music, movement, drama, and the visual arts in all areas of the classroom as well as developing creative teachers and professionals who will be able to foster an artistic environment. The book includes observations and pictures of teachers and children that demonstrate practical ways the arts can be used to help children reach their potential. There are expanded sections on multi-intelligences, Reggio Emilia, divergent questioning, and art recipes, and the book also includes literacy connections and activities for adults at the end of each chapter. There are many ideas in the book for open-ended activities that are important for the development of young children and will encourage them to think in new ways. The standards and recommendations from professional organizations are addressed so that the reader can recognize what goals these organizations believe are important in the early years. Thorough in its coverage, the text speaks to children with special needs and cultural diversity, leaving the reader with the most complete information regarding arts in the young child's learning environment.

Wiggle, Giggle, and Shake Rae Pica, 2001. Presents a comprehensive guide that includes two hundred movement activities for children four through eight that helps to stimulate imagination and positive attitudes.
