involves serving neighbors When Christ sets us free indeed John 8:36 we are set free to serve others in deed Ethics involves intentional and disciplined reflection together in community on the choices we must make in living out our lives in the world While the focus on loving the neighbor is not unique to Lutheran ethics the author contends in this book that it is the most distinctive feature of ethics in the Lutheran perspective To that end Nesson explores biblical authority and Lutheran hermeneutics alongside the authority of the traditional elements of tradition reason and experience He moves on to explore what gospel freedom looks like in the current American context Nesson acknowledges the misinterpretation of Luther's two kingdoms teaching opting to describe Luther's two kingdoms as God's two strategies to bring forth the kingdom shalom of God Also addressed are the themes of justification and sanctification the vocation of the universal priesthood the ethics of the cross Lutheran ethics and political advocacy and the ethics of forgiveness The book is accessibly written with theology students pastors and interested lay readers in mind

Healing to All Their Flesh Jeff Levin,Keith Meador,2013-01-15 Healing to All Their Flesh

asks us to step back and carefully rethink the relationship between religion and health. It does so by examining overlooked issues of theology and meaning that lie at the foundation of religion's supposed beneficial function. Is a religion/health relationship consistent with understandings of faith within respective traditions? What does this actually imply? What does it not imply? How have these ideas been distorted? Why does this matter for medicine and healthcare and also for the practice of faith? Is the ultimate relation between spirit and flesh as mediated by the context of human belief and experience a topic that can even be approached through empirical observation, scientific reasoning and the logic of intellectual discourse? 8 pages

 The editors of this collection, Drs Jeff Levin and Keith G Meador, have gathered together the writings of leading Jewish and Christian theological, pastoral, ethical and religious scholars to answer these important questions. Ethical disagreement is a fact of social life. We disagree about issues such as abortion, euthanasia, the meaning of justice and the treatment of animals, and our debates often fail to reach a consensus. Some philosophers think that this means there is no objective knowledge about morality. Discourse and Knowledge takes a radically different approach to the defence of ethical rationality. It claims that there is a correct solution to ethical controversies, but that ethical decisions have to be made collectively. Written specifically for those studying or teaching ethics or moral theory, Discourse and Knowledge will also be ideal for those on courses on social theory, ethics or feminist philosophy.
