Making Music in Montessori Michael Johnson, 2020-11-21 Infused with a warm affable tone Making Music in Montessori is the Guide's guide to music education providing Montessori teachers all at once a snappy practical handbook music theory mentor pedagogical manual and resource anthology The book's goal To give teachers confidence in music so that when their children walk away from a lesson all fired up to compose their own music their teacher will know how to guide them Before Making Music in Montessori teachers may have only dreamed of a classroom buzzing with children working learning and growing with music alongside all of the other subject areas in the Montessori curriculum Now it's a reality If children's minds are a fertile field then Making Music in Montessori will stir Montessori teachers of all musical backgrounds to don their overalls roll up their sleeves sow the musical seeds and watch them blossom under their children's flaming imagination

Making Time for Making Music Amy Nathan, 2018 Are you a former music maker who yearns to return to music but aren't sure where to begin Or are you a person who never played music as a child but you are now curious about trying You're not alone Many adults who used to play an instrument haven't touched it in years because either they can't find the time to practice are afraid their skills are too rusty or are unsure of what kind of group they could join Others are afraid to sing or start playing an instrument because they received negative feedback from childhood experiences Performing practicing and composing music may seem like unattainable goals with insurmountable obstacles for busy adults with non-musical careers Making Time for Making Music can help adults find ways to make music part of their lives The first book of its kind it is filled with real-life success stories from more than 350 adults who manage to fit music making into their jam-packed schedules They polished rusty skills found musical groups to join and are having a great time Their testimonies prove that you are never too old to learn to make music and that there are numerous musical paths to explore Featuring advice from dozens of music educators health-care professionals and music researchers who point out that making music can even be good for your health as well as an extensive resource list of websites organizations and summer programs this book offers inspiration and tried and true strategies for anyone who wishes to return to music making or begin as an adult

Knowing Music, Making Music Benjamin Brinner, 1995-12 Using illustrative examples from a variety of traditions Benjamin Brinner first examines the elements and characteristics of musical competence the different kinds of competence in a musical community the development of multiple competences and the acquisition and transformation of competence through time He then shows how these factors come into play in musical interaction establishing four intersecting theoretical perspectives based on ensemble roles systems of communication sound structures and individual motivations These perspectives are applied to the dynamics of gamelan performance to explain the social musical and contextual factors that affect the negotiation of consensus in musical interaction The discussion ranges from sociocultural norms of interpersonal conduct to links between music dance theater and ritual and from issues of authority and deference to musicians' self-perceptions and mutual assessments      Making Music, Making Society Josep Martí, Sara Revilla, 2018-01-23 A society is the result of interacting individuals and individuals are also the result of this interaction This interaction happens through music among other factors As such music constitutes a powerful resource for symbolic interaction which constitutes the medium and substance of a culture The importance of music in a society is clearly brought to light in the role that it plays in the three basic parameters of the social logics identity social order and the need for exchange If music is so important to us it is because apart from its assigned aesthetic values it fits closely with the dynamics of each of these three different parameters These parameters which are consubstantial to the social nature of the human being constitute the core of the book as they manifest in musical practices This publication addresses important issues such as the role of music in shaping identities how music and social order are intertwined and why music is so relevant in human interaction The last part of the book explores issues related to the social application of musical research The volume brings together specialists from different academic disciplines with the same powerful starting point music is not merely something related to the social but rather a social life itself something capable of structuring the social experience      A Little History of Music Robert Philip, 2023-04-11 A lively engaging guide to music around the world from prehistory to the present Human beings have always made music Music can move us and tell stories of faith struggle or love It is common to all cultures across the world But how has it changed over the millennia Robert Philip explores the extraordinary history of music in all its forms from our earliest ancestors to today's mass produced songs This is a truly global story Looking to Europe South America Asia Africa and beyond Philip reveals how musicians have been brought together by trade and migration and examines the vast impact of colonialism From Hildegard von Bingen and Clara Schumann to Bob Dylan and Aretha Franklin great performers and composers have profoundly shaped music as we know it Covering a remarkable range of genres including medieval chant classical opera jazz and hip hop this Little History shines a light on the wonder of music and why it is treasured across the world      Handbook of Musical Identities Raymond A. R. MacDonald, David John Hargreaves, Dorothy Miell, 2017 The Handbook of Musical Identities explores three features of psychological approaches to musical identities and four real life contexts in which musical identities have been investigated The multidisciplinary breadth of the Handbook reflects the changes that are taking place in music in digital technology and in their role in society      Music for Little Mozarts: Teacher's Handbook for Books 3 & 4 Christine H. Barden, Gayle Kowalchuk, E. L. Lancaster, The Teacher's Handbook for Levels 3 & 4 of Music for Little Mozarts serves as an aid in curriculum development and daily lesson planning while providing information related to teaching young children The suggested lesson plans provide teachers with a starting point to adapt this series for their own teaching situation A special section provides helpful teaching tips for using the Music Discovery Book and teacher examples for the ear training pages in the Music Workbook are also given Beginning teachers of young students should find the handbooks extremely useful      Special Needs, Community Music, and Adult Learning Gary E. McPherson, Graham F. Welch, 2018-05-03 Special Needs

Community Music and Adult Learning is one of five paperback books derived from the foundational two volume Oxford Handbook of Music Education Designed for music teachers students and scholars of music education as well as educational administrators and policy makers this fourth book in the set focuses on issues and topics that help to broaden conceptions of music and musical involvement while recognizing that development occurs through many forms The first section addresses music education for those with special abilities and special needs authors explore many of the pertinent issues that can promote or hinder learners who share characteristics and delve deep into what it means to be musical The second section of the volume addresses music as a shared community experience and the diverse and constantly evolving international practice of community music The chapters in the third section provide evidence that the process of music education exists as a lifelong continuum that encompasses informal formal and non formal methods alike The authors encourage music educators to think in terms of a music learning society where adult education is not peripheral to the priority of other age groups but is instead fully integral to a vision for the good of society By developing sound pedagogical approaches that are tailored to take account of all learners the volume endeavors to move from making individual adaptations towards designing sensitive universal solutions Contributors Carlos R Abril Mary Adamek Kenneth S Aigen Chelcy Bowles Mary L Cohen William M Dabback Alice Ann Darrow John Drummond Cochavit Elefant David J Elliott Lee Higgins Valentina Iadeluca Judith A Jellison Janet L Jensen Patrick M Jones Jody L Kerchner Thomas W Langston Andreas C Lehmann Katrina McFerran Gary E McPherson David Myers Adam Ockelford Helen Phelan Andrea Sangiorgio Laya H Silber Marissa Silverman Rineke Smilde David S Smith Kari K Veblen Janice Waldron Graham F Welch
