The Making of an Avant-Garde Niilo Kauppi, 2013-08-26 No detailed description available for The Making of an Avant Garde

French Intellectuals Against the Left Michael Scott Christofferson, 2004 Christofferson argues that French anti totalitarianism was the culmination of direct democratic critiques of communism revisions of the revolutionary project after 1956 He offers an alternative interpretation for the denunciation of communism Marxism by the French intellectual left in the late 1970s

Pierre Michon Patrick Crowley, 2007 Pierre Michon is one of France's most significant contemporary writers Since the publication in 1984 of his first book Vies minuscules Michon's work has never ceased to evade generic classifications His work ingests books lives and thought and probes their complex interrelationship and those moments of convergence that transform an ordinary name into that of an Author or of an Artist The contents of Michon's work are well documented they are drawn from canonical novels chronicles archives and the biographies of artists lives and are worked into cross generic forms that revive names and make us rethink the uncertainty of literature Less has been written of his engagement with avant garde thought The legacy of French avant garde thinkers of the 1960s and 1970s in particular the work of Roland Barthes informs Michon's work Barthes's notions of the referent of intertextuality and of authorship for example are transposed reconfigured and sometimes contested within Michon's work In this way Barthes's name the afterlife of his thought remains encrypted within Michon's prose This book situates and reads Michon's texts through the complex inscription and transformation of names drawn from the Creuse literature art and avant garde thought And it is within this matrix that Michon puts in play his own name and its uncertain relation to literature

The Archaeology of Foucault Stuart Elden, 2022-12-01 On 20 May 1961 Foucault defended his two doctoral theses on 2 December 1970 he gave his inaugural lecture at the Collège de France Between these dates he published four books travelled widely and wrote extensively on literature the visual arts linguistics and philosophy He taught both psychology and philosophy beginning his explorations of the question of sexuality Weaving together analyses of published and unpublished material this is a comprehensive study of this crucial period As well as Foucault's major texts it discusses his travels to Brazil Japan and the USA his time in Tunisia and his editorial work for Critique and the complete works of Nietzsche and Bataille It was in this period that Foucault developed the historical philosophical approach he called archaeology the elaboration of the archive which he understood as the rules that make possible specific claims In its detailed study of Foucault's archive the book is itself an archaeology of Foucault in another sense both excavation and reconstruction This book completes a four volume series of major intellectual histories of Foucault Foucault's Last Decade was published by Polity in 2016 Foucault The Birth of Power followed in 2017 and The Early Foucault in 2021

Contemporary French Poetics Michael Bishop, Christopher Elson, 2002 This book finds its origin partly in the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990s at Dalhousie University September 1998 number of the papers since reworked take their place here alongside other studies subsequently invited

They form a broad and varying set of cogent and pertinent appraisals of very recent French and francophone poetic practice and its shifting becoming conceptual underpinnings Europa! Europa? Sascha Bru, Jan Baetens, Benedikt Hjärtarson, Peter Nicholls, Tania Ørum, Hubert Berg, 2009-10-29 The first volume of the new series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies focuses on the relation between the avant garde modernism and Europe It combines interdisciplinary and intermedial research on experimental aesthetics and poetics The essays written by experts from more than fifteen countries seek to bring out the complexity of the European avant garde and modernism by relating it to Europe's intricate history multiculturalism and multilingualism They aim to inquire into the divergent cultural views on Europe taking shape in avant garde and modernist practices and to chart a composite image of the other Europe's that have emerged from the contemporary avant garde and experimental modernism How did the avant garde and modernism in and outside Europe give shape to local national and pan European forms of identity and community To what extent does the transnational exchange and cross fertilisation of aesthetic tendencies illustrate the well rehearsed claim that the avant gardes form a typically European phenomenon Dealing with canonised as well as lesser known exponents of modernism and the avant garde throughout Europe this book will appeal to all those interested in European cultural literary and art history The Avant-Postman David Vichnar, 2023-11-01 The Avant Postman explores a broad range of innovative postwar writing in France Britain and the United States Taking James Joyce's revolution of the word in Ulysses and Finnegans Wake as a joint starting point David Vichnar draws genealogical lines through the work of more than fifty writers up to the present including Alain Robbe-Grillet B S Johnson William Burroughs Christine Brooke Rose Georges Perec Kathy Acker Iain Sinclair H L ne Cixous Alan Moore David Foster Wallace and many others Centering the exploration around five writing strategies employed by Joyce narrative parallax stylistic metempsychosis concrete writing forgery and neologising the logos the book reveals the striking continuities and developments from Joyce's day to our own Radicalism in French Culture Niilo Kauppi, 2016-09-17 An invisible pattern draws together most studies dealing with French cultural radicalism in the 1960s with intellectual creation reduced to individual creation and the role of semiotic and social factors that influence intellectual innovation minimized Sociological approaches often see a more or less external link between social location and intellectual production but because of their structural approach they are incapable of taking into account unique historical circumstances the crucial role of personal impulses and more importantly the semiotic logic of ideas as conditions of innovative thinking This ground breaking book will further an internal sociological analysis of ideas and styles of thought It will show that the defining but largely neglected feature of what has become French theory was a collective mind and style of thought an explosive but fragile mixture of scientific and political radicalism that rather quickly watered down to academic orthodoxy For some time radical intellectuals succeeded in producing ideas that were perfectly in tune with the demands of the consumers mostly the young university audience Ideas were used as part of radical posture that was set in opposition to the establishment and those in power Ideas could not be too empirical or verifiable and they had to shock It is not surprising that a slew of new sciences and concepts were invented to indicate this radical posture The central argument of this study is that ideas become power ideas only if they succeed in uniting individual and collective psychic investment in powerful social networks with significant institutional and political backing These conditions were met in the French context for a certain specific period of time From roughly the mid 1960s to the beginning of the 1970s radical intellectuals such as Roland Barthes Pierre Bourdieu Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault Julia Kristeva developed a host of new ideas concepts and theories a number of which have subsequently been labelled as French theory

A Companion to James Joyce Richard Brown, 2013-06-06 A Companion to James Joyce offers a unique composite overview and analysis of Joyce's writing his global image and his growing impact on twentieth and twenty first century literatures Brings together 25 newly commissioned essays by some of the top scholars in the field Explores Joyce's distinctive cultural place in Irish British and European modernism and the growing impact of his work elsewhere in the world A comprehensive and timely Companion to current debates and possible areas of future development in Joyce studies Offers new critical readings of several of Joyce's works including Dubliners A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man and Ulysses

The Future of Theory Jean-Michel Rabaté, 2008-04-15 In this controversial manifesto Jean Michel Rabat addresses current anxieties about the future of literary and cultural theory and proposes that it still has a crucial role to play

The Figure of Abraham in John 8 Ruth Sheridan, 2020-01-09 In the Gospel of John the character of Jesus repeatedly comes into conflict with a group pejoratively designated as the Jews In chapter 8 of the Gospel this conflict could be said to reach a head with Jesus labeling the Jews as children of the devil 8:44 a verse often cited as epitomizing early Christian anti Judaism Using methods derived from modern and post modern literary criticism Ruth Sheridan examines textual allusions to the biblical figures of Cain and Abraham in John 8:1-59 She pays particular attention to how these allusions give shape to the Gospel's alleged and infamous anti Judaism exemplified in John 8:44 Moreover the book uniquely studies the subsequent reception in the Patristic and Rabbinic literature not only of John 8 but also of the figures of Cain and Abraham It shows how these figures are linked in Christian and Jewish imagination in the formative centuries in which the two religions came into definition

French Intellectual Nobility Niilo Kauppi, 1996-11-26 French thinkers like Roland Barthes Pierre Bourdieu A J Greimas Michel Foucault and Claude Levi Strauss created the structuralist and poststructuralist movements They succeeded Sartrean existentialism and formed a new aristocracy of culture French Intellectual Nobility is the first study to examine the conditions for the creation of these movements Through case studies in cultural history sociology semiology and literature the book discusses the processes that enabled the French intellectual nobility to reinvent itself By developing a historical and comparative approach Kauppi analyzes the challenges that an intellectual generation faced and he contributes to a context sensitive analysis of culture and power

Understanding Sade, Understanding Modernism James Martell, 2025-01-23 The most current multidisciplinary and multivocal engagement with Sade's enduring influences on modernism and the philosophical need for continued analysis of his work and the questions it raises. From Lacan to Dal through Simone de Beauvoir, Beckett, Horkheimer, Burroughs, Pasolini, Foucault, Deleuze up to i ek the Marquis de Sade's influence and impact on modernism and modern thinking is hard to measure. Understanding Sade: Understanding Modernism presents its readers with a chance to reflect on the importance of this radical oeuvre from different perspectives. Contributors examine Sadean literature and thought through some of its main texts including 120 Days of Sodom, History of Juliette, The Crimes of Love and Philosophy in the Boudoir in a series of comparative essays that not only examine Sade's influence in French, European and American thought but also critique it in the context of some of modern philosophy's most relevant subjects: ecology, nature, universalism and the links between ethics and aesthetics. The final section identifies key concepts and notions within Sade's corpus in a series of entries offering context and a discussion of their relevance for current thought.

Revolt, Affect, Collectivity Tina Chanter, Ewa Plonowska Ziarek, 2012-02-01 These original essays explore how the concept of revolution permeates and unifies Julia Kristeva's body of work by tracing its trajectory from her early engagement with the Tel Quel group through her preoccupation in the 1980s with abjection, melancholia and love to her latest work. Some of the leading voices in Kristeva scholarship examine her reevaluation of the concept of revolt in the context of the changing cultural and political conditions in the West, the questions of the stranger, race and nation, her reflections on narrative, public spaces and collectivity in the context of her engagement with Hannah Arendt's work, her development and refinement of the notions of abjection, melancholia and narcissism in her ongoing interrogation of aesthetics as well as her contribution to film theory. Focused primarily on Kristeva's newest work, much of it only recently translated into English, this book breaks new ground in Kristeva scholarship.

Reflets Réciproques Pamela Marie Hoffer, 2006 Reflets r ciproques: A Prismatic Reading of Stéphane Mallarmé and Hélène Cixous evokes the refractory aspect of a prism that bends and deflects light in order to produce a spectrum of twentieth-century thought emanating from the late nineteenth-century French literary avant-garde. Because the works of Mallarmé and Cixous are often described as hermetic and illisible, Jacques Derrida intervenes to play the role of intermediary through his separate writings on these poets. Important questions arise: How does the elliptical writing of Mallarmé relate to the hyperbolic writing of Cixous? What common strategies emerge and how do these strategies address the critical areas of sexual difference and political testimony for each writer?

Robert Rauschenberg and Surrealism Gavin Parkinson, 2023-03-23 The art of Robert Rauschenberg, 1925–2008 is usually viewed as quite distinct from Surrealism, a movement which the artist himself displayed some hostility towards. However, Rauschenberg had a very positive reception among Surrealists, particularly across the period 1959–69. In the face of Rauschenberg's avowals of his own literalism and insistence on his art as facts, this book gathers generous evidence of the poetic, metaphorical, allusive, associative and connotative dimensions of the artist's oeuvre as identified by Surrealists and thus extrapolates new readings from Rauschenberg's key works on that basis. By viewing

Rauschenberg's art against the expansion of the cultural influence of the United States in Europe in the period after the Second World War and the increasingly politicized activities of the Surrealists in the era of the Algerian War of Independence 1954-62 Robert Rauschenberg and Surrealism shows how poetic inference of the artist's work was turned towards political interpretation By analysing Rauschenberg's art in the context of Surrealism and drawing from it new interpretations and perspectives this volume simultaneously situates the Surrealist movement in 1960s American art criticism and history

Art, Global Maoism and the Chinese Cultural Revolution Jacopo Galimberti, Noemi de Haro García, Victoria H. F. Scott, 2019-11-18 This is the first book to explore the global influence of Maoism on modern and contemporary art Featuring eighteen original essays written by established and emerging scholars from around the world and illustrated with fascinating images not widely known in the west the volume demonstrates the significance of visuality in understanding the protean nature of this powerful worldwide revolutionary movement Contributions address regions as diverse as Singapore Madrid Lima and Maputo moving beyond stereotypes and misconceptions of Mao Zedong Thought's influence on art to deliver a survey of the social and political contexts of this international phenomenon At the same time the book attends to the similarities and differences between each case study It demonstrates that the chameleonic appearances of global Maoism deserve a more prominent place in the art history of both the twentieth and twenty first centuries Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 1997 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers The Columbia History of Twentieth-century French Thought Lawrence D.
