The Making of Christian Malta Anthony Luttrell, 2017-09-29 This title was first published in 2002 Dr Luttrell's work has helped change our understanding of the history of the small islands of Malta and Gozo providing a more coherent story of the ways in which during the Middle Ages a small isolated Muslim community was converted into a more prosperous outpost of Roman Christianity with a unique cultural mixture of Arabic speech and European institutions This selection of studies places the process within the context of developments in the medieval Mediterranean world and combines archaeological and architectural investigations with work in Maltese Sicilian and other archives with a particular focus on ecclesiastical matters a new introduction brings the subject up to date This work is of relevance to scholars of Islam and Christianity while providing insights into the nature of an unusual island community whose significance far exceeds its size

The Military Orders Volume III Victor #N/A,2017-07-05 In the last twenty years there has been an explosion of scholarly interest in the Military Orders With a history stretching from the early twelfth century to the present day they were among the richest and most powerful orders of the church in medieval Europe They founded their own states in Prussia and on the Mediterranean islands of Rhodes and Malta They are of concern to historians of the Church art and architecture government agriculture estate management banking medicine and warfare and of the expansion of Europe overseas The conferences on their history which have been organized in London every four years have attracted leading scholars from all over the world The present volume records the proceedings of the Third Conference in 2000 and is essential reading for those interested in the progress of research on these extraordinary institutions Of the thirty papers published in this collection two deal with the orders in general while eighteen concentrate on the Hospital of St John six on the Temple and three on the Teutonic Order together with another on the Order of the Sword Brothers which it absorbed The preponderance of works on the Hospitallers is perhaps a particular characteristic of this volume but the fact that most of the papers relate to provincial life rather than to the headquarters in the east Prussia or Malta accurately reflects modern concerns as do the contributions on historiography the papacy cultural history and religious life Examples of new research interests are the paper on bioarchaeology and the two on liturgy Paulus Mark Gatt,2024-06-20 This book narrating the discovery of an ancient lead anchor stock embossed with the names of the Egyptian gods Isis and Sarapi s in the seabed off Salina Bay on a Sunday morning in April 2005 is also the story of the search for the real site of St Paul s shipwreck in Malta In the process the author surprises us with a novelistic but accurate account of the storm shipwreck and landing of St Paul in Malta as set out in chapters 27 and 28 of the Acts of the Apostles But Mark Gatt s own investigations on the site of the Apostle Paul s shipwreck is also his own quest for the spiritual message of salvation in St Paul s life and teaching embodied in the real anchor of Christ Jesus Paul Guillaumier Biblical scholar

Studies in the Origins of Early Islamic Culture and Tradition Michael Cook, 2022-04-19 In contrast to the gradual formation of the high cultures of most of the world the process by which Islamic civilisation emerged and took on its classical form between the 7th and 9th centuries was unusually sudden The studies collected here are concerned with aspects of this remarkable development Their topics are varied including the emergence of dialectical theology the origins of accounts of Pharaonic history current in medieval Egypt the sources of Muslim dietary law the Islamic background of Karaism and Max Weber's views on Islamic sects Other articles look at early Syrian eschatology and its connections with late antiquity and Byzantium at the relevance of eschatology to debates about the dating of traditions and at the attitudes of the early traditionists to the writing down of tradition The final items examine reports about the textual affiliations of a long lost Koranic codex and discussions of adultery among the baboons of Yemen A recurring theme is the relationship between Early Muslim ideas and those of non Muslim cultures sometimes very ancient ones

Arabic Administration in Norman Sicily Jeremy Johns, 2002-10-07 In the late eleventh century Sicily originally part of the Islamic world was captured by Norman French and Italian adventurers led by Roger de Hauteville For the next 150 years Roger and his descendants ruled the island and its predominantly Arabic speaking Muslim population Jeremy Johns 2002 book represents a comprehensive account of the Arabic administration of Norman Sicily While it has generally been assumed that the Normans simply inherited their Arabic administration from the Muslim governors of the island the author uses the unique Sicilian Arabic documents to demonstrate that the Norman kings restructured their administration on the model of the contemporary administration of Fatimid Egypt Controversially he also suggests that in doing so their intention was not administrative efficiency but the projection of their royal image This is a compelling and accessible account of the Norman rulers and how they related to their counterparts in the Muslim Mediterranean
