unpicks these ties in Ader's work in order to highlight the specific and unique way in which Ader explores the existential and emotional with an artistic approach that is as conceptual and analytic as it is poetic and personal Afterall Books are distributed by The MIT Press      Making a Leap Sara Clifford, Anna Herrmann, 1999 A practical handbook for those wanting to use drama and theatre to explore issues in their work with young people this book has developed from ten years of active research in community settings The authors holistic approach to theatre making draws on theatre in education community theatre youth work group work and conflict resolution      Make a Scene Revised and Expanded Edition Jordan Rosenfeld, 2017-07-19 The definitive guide to writing scenes now revised and expanded Scenes are the building blocks for any work of fiction the DNA sequence that makes a novel unputdownable and unforgettable When writers are able to craft effective engaging scenes they can develop a complete cohesive story and a mesmerizing experience for readers Make a Scene Revised and Expanded Edition takes you step by step through the elements of strong scene construction and demonstrates how the essential aspects of a compelling story including character plot and dramatic tension function within the framework of individual scenes to give momentum to the whole narrative You'll learn how to Craft an opening scene that hooks readers and foreshadows conflict Develop various scene types from contemplative to suspenseful to flashback that are distinct and purposeful Establish characters intentions within a scene that drive the plot Transition into new scenes by clearly establishing details of setting character and point of view Create resonating climactic and final scenes that stay with readers long after they've finished your story The revised and expanded edition includes brand new examples an increased focus on advancing plot and character development and the same knowledge and clarity that writers have come to expect from Jordan Rosenfeld Make a Scene is an essential part of any novelist's library make sure it's in yours      Making Scenes, 1995 Four short plays for young actors Making Scenes 1 is an exciting selection of plays commissioned by the Royal National Theatre for the BT National Connections festival for young actors in 1995 Each play includes Production Notes dealing with setting and staging costume lighting and casting Also included are a set of questions and exercises for workshop classes unpublished archive material to document the composition and reception of some of Noel Coward's most significant plays. It examines his working practices as a playwright from manuscript to performance. This study argues that while he did not embrace any of the more radical theatricalisms of his time, Coward experimented with both form and content. He adapted the familiar well-made formulas while also emphasizing theatrical self-consciousness and an exploration of radical social and sexual relationships. After an overview of Coward's career and the reception of his plays, the work discusses selected texts from successive phases of Coward's career, including some unproduced or uncompleted work and perennially popular plays such as The Vortex, Hay Fever, Private Lives, Design for Living, Blithe Spirit, and Present Laughter. This study also explores how, in the aftermaths of two world wars, as major changes in social and political circumstances suggested new approaches to dramaturgy, Coward's post-1945 work failed to achieve the same success he had enjoyed in earlier periods. The final chapter examines Coward's approach to his craft in response to the new theatrical and cultural environment and the new freedom in the treatment of homosexuality represented by Suite in Three Keys and his final uncompleted play Age Cannot Withstand.
