Montgomery Irene Gammel, 2005-01-01 Who ultimately is L M Montgomery and why was there such an obsession with secrecy hiding and encoding in her life and fiction Delving into the hidden life of Canada's most enigmatic writer The Intimate Life of L M Montgomery answers these questions The eleven essays illuminate Montgomery's personal writings and photographic self portraits and probe the ways in which she actively shaped her life as a work of art This is the first book to investigate Montgomery's personal writings which filled thousands of pages in journals and a memoir correspondence scrapbooks and photography Using theories of autobiography and life writing the essays probe the author's flair for the dramatic and her exuberance in costuming while also exploring the personal facts behind some of her fiction including the beloved Anne of Green Gables Focussing on topics such as sexuality depression marriage aging illness and writing the essays strip away the layers of art and artifice that disguised Montgomery's most intensely guarded secrets including details of her affair with Herman Leard her marriage with Ewen Macdonald and her friendships with Nora Lefurgey and Isabel Anderson The book also includes rare photographs taken by Montgomery and others many of which have not previously appeared in print One of the highlights of The Intimate Life of L M Montgomery is the inclusion of a secret diary that Montgomery wrote with Lefurgey in 1903 This hilarious document is a rare find for Montgomery's teasing banter presents us with a new voice that is distinct from the sombre tone of her journals Published here for the first time more than 100 years after its composition this diary is virtually unknown to readers and scholars and is a welcome addition to the literature on this important figure This volume fills in many of the blanks surrounding Montgomery's personal life Engaging and erudite it is a boon for scholars and Montgomery fans alike Anne's World Irene Gammel, Benjamin Lefebvre, 2010-01-01 The original essays in Anne's World offer fresh and timely approaches to issues of culture identity health and globalization as they apply to Montgomery's famous character and to today's readers L.M. Montgomery and Gender E. Holly Pike, Laura M. Robinson, 2021-11-15 The celebrated author of Anne of Green Gables and Emily of New Moon receives much deserved additional consideration in L M Montgomery and Gender Nineteen contributors take a variety of critical and theoretical positions from historical analyses of the White Feather campaign and discussions of adoption to medical discourses of death and disease explorations of Montgomery's use of humour and the author's rewriting of masculinist traditions The essays span Montgomery's writing exploring her famous Anne and Emily books as well as her short fiction her comic journal composed with her friend Nora Lefurgey and less studied novels such as Magic for Marigold and The Blue Castle Dividing the chapters into five sections on masculinities and femininities domestic space humour intertexts and being in time L M Montgomery and Gender addresses the degree to which Montgomery's work engages and

Crossing Textual Boundaries in International Children's Literature Lance Weldy, 2011-01-18 As the first part of the title indicates my interest in looking at intertextuality and transformation still maintains a prominent place throughout this book as well If we believe that no text is an island then we will understand that the relationships between and within texts across the years become a fascinating place for academic inquiry I included the word boundaries into the title because we never get tired of voicing our opinions about texts which traverse relegated boundaries such as genre or medium Not only am I interested in discussing what these changes across boundaries mean socially historically and culturally but also what they mean geographically which accounts for the second part of my title I am very excited that this book will be placing even more emphasis on children's literature in an international scene than my first book did in the sense that I have added more scholars on an international level I hesitate to list the nationalities of all of the contributors here because quite a few have themselves crossed international boundaries in different ways by either studying abroad or finding permanent residency in foreign countries Nevertheless the writers have lived extensively in or identify as being from Australia Canada England Finland Germany Greece Iceland Ireland Israel Norway Spain Sweden Turkey the United States of America and Wales

Becoming Green Gables Alan MacEachern, 2024-06-12 In 1909 Myrtle and Ernest Webb took possession of an ordinary farm in Cavendish Prince Edward Island. Ordinary but for one thing it was already becoming known as inspiration for Anne of Green Gables, the novel written by Myrtle's cousin Lucy Maud Montgomery and published to international acclaim a year earlier. The Webbs welcomed visitors to Green Gables and soon took in summer boarders making their home the heart of PEI's tourist trade. In the 1930s the farm was made the centrepiece of a new national park and still the family lived there for another decade, caretakers of their own home. During these years Myrtle kept a diary. When she first picked up the pencil in 1924 she was a forty-year-old homemaker running a household of eight. By the time she set the pencil down in 1954 she was a seventy-year-old widow, no longer resident in what was now the most famous house in Canada. Becoming Green Gables tells the story of Myrtle Webb and her family and the making of Green Gables. Alan MacEachern reproduces a selection of the diary's daily entries using them as springboards to examine topics ranging from the adoption of modern conveniences to the home front hosting of soldiers in wartime and visits from Aunt Maud herself. While the foundation of Becoming Green Gables is the Webbs' own story, it is also a history of their famous home, their community, the nation, and the world in which they lived.

Editing as Cultural Practice in Canada Dean Irvine, Smaro Kamboureli, 2016-05-20 This collection of essays focuses on the varied and complex roles that editors have played in the production of literary and scholarly texts in Canada. With contributions from a wide range of participants who have played seminal roles as editors of Canadian literatures from nineteenth-century works to the contemporary avant-garde, from canonized texts to anthologies of so-called minority writers and the oral literatures of the First Nations, this collection is the first of its kind. Contributors offer incisive analyses of the cultural and publishing politics of editorial practices that question inherited paradigms of literary and scholarly values. They examine specific cases of editorial production as well as theoretical considerations of editing that interrogate such key issues as authorial intentionality, textual authority, historical contingencies of textual production, circumstances of publication and reception, the pedagogical uses of edited anthologies, the instrumentality of editorial projects in relation to canon formation and minoritized literatures, and the role of editors as interpreters, enablers, facilitators, and creators. Editing as Cultural Practice in Canada situates editing in the context of the growing number of collaborative projects in which Canadian scholars are engaged, which brings into relief not only those aspects of editorial work that entail collaborating as it were with existing texts and documents but also collaboration as a scholarly practice that perforce involves co editing
