Making Educational Changes Sustainable: A Guide

David Baine, Ph.D., 2020-04-12 Billions of dollars are wasted on unsuccessful educational innovations. The results failure to improve student outcomes discouraged teachers and wasted hope, time and money. This Guide demonstrates how to introduce positive and sustainable educational improvements based on leading research. Practical step by step methods demonstrate preplanning, analysis of influential social, political, educational, financial and policy characteristics of contexts into which changes will be introduced, make contextually valid decisions, how to identify and prevent impediments to change. Implementation use systematic strategies for introducing change, how to create a culture of collaboration, collegiality and authenticity, united in the focus. We can improve student achievements, how to team with stakeholders, the government, school boards, teachers, students, parents and the community, how to deliver effective classroom, valid professional development, how to establish active and engaged communication for mutual feedback, mentoring and reinforcement. Evaluation, how to select valid and reliable methods of program evaluation, how to make data based decisions for program Sustainment, how to make durable educational changes. Written by an award winning author, David Baine, academic and practitioner. If you want to improve student achievements, this is a must have Guide. Teaching Climate Change for Grades 6-12 Kelley T.

Lê, 2021-06-20 Looking to tackle climate change and climate science in your classroom. This timely and insightful book supports and enables secondary science teachers to develop effective curricula ready to meet the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS) by grounding their instruction on the climate crisis. Nearly one third of the secondary science standards relate to climate science, but teachers need design and implementation support to create empowering learning experiences centered around the climate crisis. Experienced science educator, instructional coach and educational leader, Dr. Kelley T. Lê offers this support, providing an overview of the teaching shifts needed for NGSS and to support climate literacy for students via urgent topics in climate science and environmental justice from the COVID-19 pandemic to global warming, rising sea temperatures, deforestation and mass extinction. You'll also learn how to engage the complexity of climate change by exploring social, racial and environmental injustices stemming from the climate crisis that directly impact students. By anchoring instruction around the climate crisis, Dr. Lê offers guidance on how to empower students to be the agents of change needed in their own communities. A range of additional teacher resources are also available at www.empoweredscienceteachers.com. The Dialogic Classroom in Higher Education Jill DeTemple, Harriett E.
