Tony Royle

Making Fast Food From The Frying Pan Into The Fryer:

Making Fast Food Ester Reiter, 1996 Some say the adventurous days of grueling and dangerous scientific exploration are long gone but Reiter sociology Brock U undertook a 10 month trek without pay into the uncharted wilds of a Burger King kitchen to bring us first hand accounts of the strange and marvellous customs of the natives The illustrations are hilarious Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Making Fast Food Ester Reiter, 1991-09-03 The flourishing fast food industry represents one particular blueprint of how to live Reiter analyses the profound consequences of this blueprint for many spheres of life women s work youth employment the labour movement the family and the community Since the 1970s young people and women have increasingly entered the job market in low waged service sector jobs Family life she explains has changed dramatically in the last forty years as many activities that were traditionally part of the home have been replaced by services available in the marketplace The production of meals and those who produce them have moved from the family kitchen to the highly regulated corporate workplace where workers are like the interchangeable parts of a machine

Fast Food Nation Eric Schlosser, 2001 An exploration of the fast food industry in the United States from its roots to its long term consequences Making Fast Food Ester Reiter, 1996 Working for McDonald's in Europe Tony Royle, 2004-08-02 The McDonald s Corporation is not only the largest system wide sales service in the world it is a phenomenon in its own right and is now recognized as the most famous brand in the world By providing a detailed analysis of the extent to which the McDonald s Corporation adapts or imposes its labour relations policies in Europe this volume represents a real life case study revealing the interaction between a global multi national enterprise and the regulatory systems of a number of different European countries Key features include an overview of the McDonald s Corporation s development and structure an analysis of its corporate culture and the issues of franchising an examination of key union strategies including systems of co determination consultation and collective bargaining a chapter dealing specifically with European legislation in particular the McDonald s European Works Council The author systematically analyzes the conflict between the McDonald s Corporation and the industrial relations systems of the European countries within which it operates and exposes this conflict as an unequal struggle between economic liberalism and collectivism Language and Hegemony in Gramsci Peter Ives, 2004-07-20 Language and Hegemony in Gramsci introduces Gramsci s social and political thought through his writings on language It shows how his focus on language illuminates his central ideas such as hegemony organic and traditional intellectuals passive revolution civil society and subalternity Peter Ives explores Gramsci s concern with language from his university studies in linguistics to his last prison notebook Hegemony has been seen as Gramsci s most important contribution but without knowledge of its linguistic roots it is often misunderstood This book places Gramsci s ideas within the linguistically influenced social theory of the twentieth century It summarizes some of the major ideas of Ferdinand de Saussure Ludwig Wittgenstein language philosophy and post structuralism in relation to Gramsci s position By paying great attention to the linguistic underpinnings of Gramsci's Marxism Language and Hegemony in Gramsci shows how his theorization of power language and politics address issues raised by post modernism and the work of Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Chantal Mouffe and Ernesto Laclau Understanding Global Environmental Politics M.

Paterson, 2000-04-07 Understanding Global Environmental Politics develops a new critical approach to global environmental politics It argues that the major power structures of world politics are deeply problematic in ecological terms and that they cannot be easily used to resolve major environmental challenges such as global warming Instead of simply advocating the construction of new international institutions to respond to such challenges therefore the book argues that the construction of alternative social and political structures is necessary Identity in Organizations Paul C. Godfrey, 1998-07-21 This investigation of the fundamental character of organizational identity and identification with an organization is arranged in the form of a provocative discussion between key scholars The book focuses on three different paradigmatic views of identity functionalist interpretive and postmodern Similarities and distinctions among these ways of understanding are explored and numerous theoretical and practical insights are gained The book concludes with a discussion of the relevance of identity as a construct in organizational study and observations on conversation and theory building Women, Work and

Computerization A. Frances Grundy, 1997-05-20 This volume considers the submissions to the 6th International IFIP TC 9 WG 9.1 Conference on Women Work and Computerization WWC 97 The conference provides an interdisciplinary forum for researchers practitioners and users in the field of information technology In this book the authors discuss how different areas of society are being transformed by computer technology but with particular emphasis on changes in women's work and life and how these have come about Such transformations include the transitions from women's traditional work to work based on modern technology from communicating within personal communities to communicating within virtual communities from traditional job gendering to new perspectives on who does what Eating Out Alan Warde, Lydia Martens, 2000-03-30 Eating

Out first published in 2000 is a fascinating study of the consumption of food outside the home based on extensive original research carried out in England in the 1990s Reflecting the explosion of interest in food ranging from food scares to the national obsession with celebrity chefs the practice of eating out has increased dramatically over recent years Through surveys and intensive interviews the authors have collected a wealth of information into people's attitudes towards and expectations of eating out as a form of entertainment and an expression of taste and status Amongst other topics they examine social inequalities in access to eating out social distinction interactions between customers and staff and the economic and social implications of the practice Eating Out will be a valuable resource to academics advanced students and practitioners in the sociology of consumption cultural studies social anthropology tourism and hospitality home economics marketing and the general reader The Oxford Handbook of Food History Jeffrey M. Pilcher, 2012-10-16 Food matters not only as a subject of study in its own right but also as a medium for conveying critical messages about capitalism the environment and social inequality to diverse audiences Recent scholarship on the subject draws from both a pathbreaking body of secondary literature and an inexhaustible wealth of primary sources from ancient Chinese philosophical tracts to McDonald's menus contributing new perspectives to the historical study of food culture and society and challenging the limits of history itself The Oxford Handbook of Food History places existing works in historiographical context crossing disciplinary chronological and geographic boundaries while also suggesting new routes for future research The twenty seven essays in this book are organized into five sections historiography disciplinary approaches production circulation and consumption of food The first two sections examine the foundations of food history not only in relation to key developments in the discipline of history itself such as the French Annales school and the cultural turn but also in anthropology sociology geography pedagogy and the emerging Critical Nutrition Studies The following three sections sketch various trajectories of food as it travels from farm to table factory to eatery nature to society Each section balances material cultural and intellectual concerns whether juxtaposing questions of agriculture and the environment with the notion of cookbooks as historical documents early human migrations with modern culinary tourism or religious customs with social activism In its vast interdisciplinary scope this handbook brings students and scholars an authoritative guide to a field with fresh insights into one of the most fundamental human concerns

Agricultural Standards Jim Bingen, Lawrence Busch, 2006-03-08

Food and agricultural standards have recently risen to the top of both national and international agendas Popular concerns about the power of the World Trade Organization focus on the intertwined relationships between environmental protection labor and human rights and the standards used to produce and supply our food and fiber globally In the developing world agricultural grades and standards are an important part of the reconfiguration of roles and responsibilities between various public and private actors in market reform This original and informative collection of studies of agri food standards in the modern economy addresses these and helps to define the scope of the emerging study of the politics of standards setting Following an overview essay dealing with the multiple ways of thinking about approaching and defining food and agricultural standards eleven case studies offer a rich body of evidence that assesses the processes dynamics and potential consequences of global agri food standards For all interested in the strategic use of food and agricultural standards from those in national and international governmental agencies researchers and others in the academic and private sector to those in the private business sector this volume offers a broader perspective on and will serve as an important resource

Eating Chinese Lily

Cho, 2010-01-01 In Eating Chinese Lily Cho examines Chinese restaurants as spaces that define for those both inside and outside the community what it means to be Chinese and what it means to be Chinese Canadian

Wheel of Fortune Jamie

Swift, 1995-05-01 Jamie Swift combines sharp eyed journalism that brings out the nuances of daily life with a penetrating analysis of jobless recovery He describes the emerging world of work through the eyes and experiences of people in Kingston and Windsor two Ontario cities with roots in the pre industrial past places poised for the post industrial information age

The Cinema of the Precariat Tom Zaniello, 2020-02-20 The Cinema of the Precariat is the first book to lay out the incredible range of the precariat the social class suffering from precarity as well as a detailed report on the cinematic record of their work and lives It discusses a thorough and definitive selection of more than 250 films and related visual media that take the measure of the precariat worldwide For example thousands of Haitians including children harvest sugar cane in the Dominican Republic The Price of Sugar while illegal Afghan refugees work in Iran Delbaran More familiar are the millions of Latino immigrants legal or not of all ages that work in the United States Food Chains Each chapter focuses on a sub class of the precariat or a contested zone of labor or the evolving political manifestation of the struggles of the unorganized and the dispossessed Among the hundreds of bewildering film choices available nowadays this book offers the reader reliable guidance to the films bringing to life the economic political and social dilemmas faced by millions of the world's global workforce and their families Getting by in Hard Times David Livingstone, Meg Luxton, June Shirley Corman, 2001-01-01

Describes the experiences of daily life for predominantly white working class women and men during the period of economic restructuring begun in the 1980s Contemporary Marketing and Consumer Behavior John F. Sherry, 1995-05-02 This exploration of marketing and consumer behaviour comprises original articles both theoretical and empirical and serves as a sourcebook for those interested in consumption and managerial consequences Issues discussed include elements of the marketing mix advertising and promotion relationship management managerial intervention and stakeholder response organization behaviour economic development class and gender linked consumer behaviour and the production of consumption They are examined using anthropological perspectives and methods ranging from materialistic to semiotic

Work in Tumultuous Times Vivian Shalla, Wallace Clement, 2007-03-12 Using a progressive approach to political economy contributors propose alternative policies and practices that might secure more decent livelihoods for workers and their families The McDonaldization of Society George Ritzer, 2020-12-03 George Ritzer's seminal work of critical sociology The McDonaldization of Society continues to stand as one of the pillars of modern sociological thought Building on the argument that the fast food restaurant has become the model for the rationalization process today this book links theory to contemporary life in a globalized world and resonates with students in a way that few other books do Measured Meals

Jessica J. Mudry, 2009-02-18 2009 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title As nutritional studies proliferate producing more and more knowledge about the connection between diet and health Americans seem increasingly confused about what to eat to stay healthy In Measured Meals Jessica J Mudry looks at the language used in the United States to communicate about health and nutrition and reveals its effects on reframing reshaping and controlling what and how Americans eat Analyzing the USDA and American federal food guidelines over the past one hundred years Mudry shows how the language of nutrition has evolved over time She critiques the trend of discussing food in terms of quantification calories vitamins and serving sizes She also examines how organizations such as the USDA attempt to legislate a healthy diet by mandating quantities of food based on measurable nutrients revealing the power of language to make meaning and influence social action
