the challenging spirit behind her intellectual confidence and mesmerizing energy led to the invention of an unbalanced legacy that denied her a place among the canonical Concord writers This collection of first hand reminiscences by those who knew Fuller personally rescues her from these confusions and provides a clearer identity for this misrepresented personality The forty one remembrances from Nathaniel Hawthorne Oliver Wendell Holmes Ralph Waldo Emerson Thomas Carlyle Harriet Martineau Henry James and twenty four others chart Fuller s expanding influence from schooldays in Boston meetings at the Transcendental Club teaching in Providence and Boston work on the New York Tribune publications and conversations travels in the British Isles and life and love in Italy before her tragic early death Joel Myerson s perceptive introduction assesses the pre and postmortem building of Fuller s reputation as well as her relationship to the prominent Transcendentalists reformers literati and other personalities of her time and his headnotes to each selection present valuable connecting contexts The woman who admitted that at nineteen she was the most intolerable girl that ever took a seat in a drawing room whose Woman in the Nineteenth Century is considered the first major book length feminist call to action in America never conformed to nineteenth century expectations of self effacing womanhood The fascinating contradictions revealed by these narratives create a lively lifelike biography of Fuller s rare gifts and solid acquirements and unfailing intellectual sympathy Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern: A-Z Charles Dudley Warner,1902

Their Other Side Helen Barolini,2006 Our lives are Swiss Emily Dickinson wrote in 1859 So still so cool But over the Alps Italy stands the other side For Dickinson as for many other writers and artists Italy has been the land of light a seductive source of invention enchantment and freedom So it was for Helen Barolini who as a student in Rome after World War II wrote her first poetry and gave birth to her own creative life reinvigorating her mother tongue In this book Barolini celebrates the lives of other women whose imaginations succumbed to the lure of Italy Here Barolini profiles six gifted women transformed by Italy s mythic appeal Unlike Barolini herself they were not daughters of the great Italian diaspora Rather they were drawn to an idea of Italy and its gifts in whose welcome a new self could be created Or discovered Emily Dickinson traveled to Italy only in the imaginative genius of her verse Margaret Fuller struggled alongside her Italian lover in the political revolutions that gave birth to the Italian Republic while the novelist and short story writer Constance Fennimore Woolson found her home in Venice and Florence Here too is the flamboyant artist Mabel Dodge Luhan entertaining at her villa near Florence and Marguerite Chapin of Connecticut who married an Italian prince and in Rome founded the premier literary review of the mid century Botteghe Oscure Finally here is Iris Cutting Origo the Anglo American heiress who with her Italian nobleman husband built a Tuscan estate where she wrote acclaimed biographies and created a refuge from Mussolini s fascism Linking these lives Barolini shows is the transforming catalyst of change in a new land Their Other Side is a wise warm and deeply felt literary journey that brilliantly captures the enduring effects of Italy as a place a culture and an experience The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1910 Co-operative Bulletin Pratt Institute.
