Marginal Communities And Social Development:

Self-help Groups and Marginalised Communities Amir Afaque Ahmad Faizi, 2009 Study conducted at Muzaffarpur District of Bihar India Marginalized Communities and Decentralized Institutions in India Bala Ramulu Chinnala, 2020-12-21 This book examines the causes and consequences of marginalization of social groups and the state of democratic decentralization in India in the unfolding context of globalization and changing perspectives of development models and institutions The first of its kind it correlates macro and micro level issues to understand social exclusion and inclusion and the level of participation of democratic institutions at the grassroots level since economic liberalization 1991 and the 73rd Constitution Amendment Act of 1992 marking three decades since granting constitutional status to the Panchayati Raj Institutions The study looks at the linkages between certain key themes the neoliberal model of development growth and distributive justice the role and mandate of grassroots level public institutions enshrined in the Constitution inclusive growth and the Indian State the role of political executives from marginalized communities factors involved in people's active participation in the development process and challenges in current political structures inclusion of marginalized communities in governance and development and real empowerment of local bodies and institutions The book argues that legislative enactments constitutional status reservation of seats to marginalized communities and so on can only empower local bodies and their leadership symbolically The success of these provisions depends on the overall development model of the country the support of national and state governments the socio economic and political environment of the institutions and effective service and accountability Topical and rich in empirical data including case studies this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of political science development studies governance public administration sociology public policy and also for government agencies administrators and bureaucrats policymakers international organizations think tanks and NGOs working in the area Religion and Social Development in Post-apartheid South Africa Ignatius Swart, Hermann Rocher, Sulina Green, Johannes Erasmus, 2010-10-01 It reflects original research and contributes to new developments in the field of theology and religion with regard to its developmental role within a transformation context The book may easily stand out in future as seminal in the way that it promoted the social development debate of the church and its organisational structures from an interdisciplinary focus Prof Antoinette Lombard Department of Social Work and Criminology University of Pretoria Social Development through Social Work Ashok Antony D'Souza, 2015-02-02 A Subject Book on Social Policy Planning and Development for BSW and MSW Courses This book has been written to help the teachers and learners of social work to gain a clear and comprehensive understanding of various topics related to the subject

Empowering Marginal Communities with Information Networking Rahman, Hakikur, 2005-11-30 This book details how new technologies can help people living in poverty improve their livelihood increase productivity improve the quality of services and empower them if technologies are used in ways that are appropriate to their context and needs Provided by

publisher Research Anthology on Empowering Marginalized Communities and Mitigating Racism and Discrimination Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-02-05 With the newly inaugurated US Presidential Administration signing several orders to mitigate discrimination and racism within the United States government attentions globally are once again brought to the Black Lives Matter campaign and its message Discrimination in business contexts social interactions and educational institutions remains a concern for leaders today The empowerment of marginalize communities has been rapidly spreading through societies thanks to the platforms that social media now offer The Research Anthology on Empowering Marginalized Communities and Mitigating Racism and Discrimination is a three volume hand selected compilation of the highest quality research on the empowerment of marginalized communities that have been experiencing ongoing discrimination To shed light on the underpinnings of disparities between marginalized groups and overreaching society this text explores social justice applications and practices and the changes being made or pushed for around the globe that promote equality fair treatment and inclusivity This book is ideal for sociologists teachers activists practitioners managers administrators policymakers government officials researchers academicians and students working in fields such as gender studies race studies social justice behavioral studies history sociology anthropology psychology law as well as anyone interested in the current practices and advances in mitigating racism and discrimination in society The Power of Social and Emotional Learning for Student Success Stewart, Delarius O., 2025-05-09 Improving student achievement in marginalized communities requires an approach that goes beyond traditional academic strategies In these communities students often face multiple challenges including economic instability social inequality and limited access to resources which can impact their learning and development One approach to addressing these challenges is through social and emotional learning SEL which focuses on building skills such as self awareness emotional regulation and social interaction By cultivating these abilities SEL enhances academic performance and fosters resilience empathy and a sense of community among students In environments where students may feel disconnected or overwhelmed SEL can serve as a foundation for emotional well being creating a supportive atmosphere that encourages both personal growth and academic success Further research may reveal that SEL can play a pivotal role in helping students in marginalized communities reach their full potential The Power of Social and Emotional Learning for Student Success explores the critical role that social and emotional learning SEL plays in the academic success of students particularly those from marginalized communities such as African American students and students with disabilities It challenges the prevailing reliance on punitive disciplinary measures like suspension arguing that these approaches fail to address behavioral issues while contributing to widening educational inequities This book covers topics such as mental health community resilience and sociology and is a useful resource for educators sociologists policymakers academicians researchers and scientists Marriage in Contemporary Zimbabwe Manase Kudzai Chiweshe, 2024-12-19 Marriage has always occupied a profound cultural and social significance in

Zimbabwean society but the forms and meanings attached to marriage have changed in recent decades Marriage in Contemporary Zimbabwe provides a social analysis of the institution highlighting how it is changing and evolving in the face of societal factors such as globalisation technology increased migration religious plurality and shifting cultural systems This book traces the evolution of Zimbabwean marriages from traditional pre colonial customs into the diverse modern practices seen today Drawing on rich qualitative insights from across urban rural and diaspora communities it explores the shift in traditional ascribed gender roles and the complex negotiations between persisting tradition and emerging modern influences These influences include women s empowerment partner choice and divorce It explores changes in childrearing and the dissolution of the extended family networks that once governed marriages and provided mutual support The book also explores broader societal transformations such as urban migration and westernisation and the impact of socioeconomic challenges such as HIV AIDS COVID 19 poverty and economic hardship Students and scholars of Zimbabwean history culture gender and the family will find this book essential for understanding the continuities and evolutions of the marriage institution in Zimbabwe

Developing Community-Referenced Curricula for Marginalized Communities David Baine, Ph.D., 2017-07-01 Thus the community referenced curriculum development program described in this text is designed to teach the knowledge skills and attitudes students require to perform effectively in the communities in which they live now and are likely to live in future These curricula are based on an analysis of the social cultural physical economic environment and political conditions of these communities In addition the curricula incorporate an educationally cost effective blending of academic and functional skill teaching while promoting effective methods of instructional delivery This book describes the empirical rational and the step by step procedures for developing community referenced curricula for marginalized communities The curricula are designed for communities of people living in refugee camps in reserves of indigenous people in peri urban slums in rural areas of developing countries and for people marginalized by disabilities wherever they live
