The Crises of "Language and Dead Signs" in Ludwig Tieck's Prose Fiction William Crisman, 1996 Critical account of the works of Ludwig Tieck the German Romantic writer from a linguistic viewpoint Although twentieth century literary criticism has focused on language as a topic of discussion critical evaluations of Romanticism and Romantic writers rarely deal with it in terms derived from the philosophy of language This book evaluates the most prolific German Romanticist Ludwig Tieck 1773 1853 from such a linguistic viewpoint arguing that concerns in his work can be seen as forerunners of later language analysis from speech act theory to theories of reference It covers Tieck's whole career from his youth to his final novel Vittoria Accorombona providing a comprehensive analysis of this major author's work it will also be of interest to those interested in the linguistic aspects of Romanticism

The Methodology of Economics Mark Blaug, 1992-07-31 This book is an examination of the nature of economic explanation The opening chapters introduce current thinking in the philosophy of science and review the literature on methodology Professor Blaug then turns to the troublesome question of the logical status of welfare economics giving the reader an understanding of the outstanding issues in the methodology of economics This is followed by a series of case studies of leading economic controversies which shows how controversies in economics may be illuminated by paying attention to questions of methodology A final chapter draws the strands together and gives the author's view of what is wrong with modern economics This book is a revised and updated edition of a classic work on the methodology of economics in which Professor Blaug develops his discussion of the latest developments in macroeconomics general equilibrium theory and international trade theory A new section on the rationality postulate is also added

Dictionary of Twentieth-Century British Philosophers Stuart Brown, 2005-06-01 This is a two volume work with entries on individuals who made some contribution to philosophy in the period 1900 to 1960 or soon after The entries deal with the whole philosophical work of an individual or in the case of philosophers still living their whole work to date Typically the individuals included have been born by 1935 and by now have made their main contributions Contributions to the subject typically take the form of books or journal articles but influential teachers and people otherwise important in the world of philosophy may also be included The dictionary includes amateurs as well as professional philosophers and where appropriate thinkers whose main discipline was outside philosophy There are special problems about the term British in the twentieth century partly because of human migration partly because of decolonialization and the changing denotation of the term The intention has been to include not only those who were British subjects at least for a significant part of their lives even if they mostly lived outside what is now the U K but also people who spent a significant part of their lives in Britain itself irrespective of their nationality or country of origin In the first category are included for instance a number of people who were born and educated in Britain but who subsequently taught in universities abroad In the second category are included those who were born elsewhere but who came to Britain and contributed to its philosophical culture      Pragmatics Jef Verschueren, 1978-01-01 The selection of entries in this bibliography reflects the following definition of pragmatics The study i of the use and extra linguistic functions of language and ii of the relation between such uses or functions and the structure of language i e the contextual appropriateness conditions on the use of language This bibliography does not only cover purely theoretical works but also includes applications of pragmatic theory in language teaching language acquisition discourse analysis literary studies etc To augment the usefulness of the bibliography which is arranged alphabetically a subject and a language index have been added      Historical Dictionary of Logic Harry J. Gensler, 2006-02-27 Historical Dictionary of Logic contains a dictionary section of more than 300 entries on persons concepts theories forms of logic fields in which logic is used and the many fallacies that can trap the unwary It includes entries on historical periods and figures including ancient logic medieval logic Buddhist logic Aristotle Ockham Boole Frege Russell Godel and Quine It also includes information on propositional logic modal logic deontic logic temporal logic set theory many valued logic mereology and para consistent logic A substantial chronology lists the main events in the history of logic and an introduction sketches the central ideas and their evolution The bibliography provides a broad range of additional reading BOOK JACKET      Philosophy of Economic Behavior Nara Relu, 2021-11-03 Why do economic models often fail in their predictions Why do economists and financial market professionals make foolish decisions even though they know they may be harmful in the future Why do many competent people in their financial professional life make wrong decisions in their personal finances Why does economics today seem to us to have the characteristics of an exact science These are some of the questions that Philosophy of Economic Behavior aims to answer This is a new field that encompasses both behavioral and psychological studies of economics in the light of philosophical thought Economics is primarily a human and applied social science and its study is based on human behavior within the economy The main purpose of the book is to present its fundamentals focusing on the individual and not the market nor the government The conclusions drawn here indicate the starting point as a basis for the outcome of many possible approaches psychology of economics behavioral economics philosophy of emotions philosophy of economics nudges and other techniques that influence the decision making ethics of economic behavior ethics of decision making ethics of the financial system banks startups digital banks investments cryptocurrencies etc education health socio cultural condition employment income vs economic behavior influence of algorithms in decision making economic behavior and globalization and many other relevant topics     Words, Worlds, and Contexts Hans J.
