Marguerite Yourcenar Inventing A Life:

Marguerite Yourcenar Josyane Savigneau, 1993-10 One of the most respected writers in the French language and best known as the author of Memoirs of Hadrian and The Abyss Yourcenar received countless literary honors and became the first woman to be elected to the Académie Française An uncompromising and intimate portrait 50 halftones Marguerite

Yourcenar and the USA Bérengère Deprez, 2009 This is a very welcome contribution to the debate on the real effect of the United States on Yourcenar's life and thought a good read on a fascinating subject which critics have often treated dismissively Future scholarship will be obliged to weigh Berengère Deprez's arguments and evidence seriously and thank her for her clearheaded thoroughness Prof Brian Gill University of Calgary Canada The Documentary Imagination in

Twentieth-Century French Literature Alison James, 2020-09-03 The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth Century French Literature identifies a documentary impulse in French literature that emerges at the end of the nineteenth century and culminates in a proliferation of factual writings in the twenty-first Focusing on the period bookended by these two moments it highlights the enduring concern with factual reference in texts that engage either with current events or the historical archive Specifically it considers a set of ideas and practices centered on the conceptualization and use of documents In doing so it contests the widespread narrative that twentieth-century French literature abandons the realist enterprise and argues that writers instead renegotiate the realist legacy outside or at the margins of the fictional space of the novel Analyzing works by authors including Gide Breton Aragon Yourcenar Duras and Modiano the book defines a specific documentary mode of literary representation that records assembles and investigates material traces of reality The document is a textual visual or material piece of evidence repurposed through its visual insertion textual transcription or description within a literary work It is a fact but it also becomes a figure standing for literature's confrontation with the real The documentary imagination involves a fantasy of direct access to a reality that speaks for itself At the same time it gives rise to concrete textual practices that open up new directions for literature by interrogating the construction and interpretation of facts Marguerite Yourcenar's Hadrian Keith Bradley, 2024-01-31 Marguerite Yourcenar is best known as the author of the 1951 novel Mémoires d'Hadrien her recreation of the life of the Roman emperor Hadrian The work can be examined from the perspective of the issues raised by writing Roman imperial biography at large and the many ways in which Mémoires d'Hadrien has a claim to historical authenticity In Marguerite Yourcenar's Hadrian Keith Bradley explains how Mémoires d'Hadrien came to be written gives details of Yourcenar's own biography and describes some of the intricate historical problems that her novel's portrait of Hadrian presents He draws on Yourcenar's correspondence her interviews with journalists and her literary corpus as a whole emphasizing Yourcenar's profound knowledge of the ancient evidence on which her life of Hadrian is based and exploiting a wide range of contemporary Yourcenarian criticism The book pays special attention to the methods by which Yourcenar believed Hadrian's life history to be recoverable compares examples of modern life writing and contrasts the procedures of conventional Roman biographers Revealing how and why Mmoires d Hadrien is as it is Marguerite Yourcenar's Hadrian illustrates how imaginative literary recreation is often little different from historical speculation How To Do Biography Nigel Hamilton, 2009-06-30 It is not surprising that biography is one of the most popular literary genres of our day What is remarkable is that there is no accessible guide for how to write one Now following his recent Biography A Brief History from Harvard award winning biographer and teacher Nigel Hamilton tackles the practicalities of doing biography in this first succinct primer to elucidate the tools of the biographer's craft Hamilton invites the reader to join him on a fascinating journey through the art of biographical composition Starting with personal motivation he charts the making of a modern biography from the inside from conception to fulfillment He emphasizes the need to know one's audience rehearses the excitement and perils of modern research delves into the secrets of good and great biography and guides the reader through the essential components of life narrative With examples taken from the finest modern biographies Hamilton shows how to portray the ages of man birth childhood love life's work the evening of life and death In addition he suggests effective ways to start and close a life story He clarifies the difference between autobiography and memoir and addresses the sometimes awkward ethical legal and personal consequences of truth telling in modern life writing He concludes with the publication and reception of biography its afterlife so to speak Written with humor insight and compassion How To Do Biography is the manual that would be biographers have long been awaiting The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization

Gender, Embodiment and Fluidity in Organization and Management Robert McMurray, Alison Pullen, 2019-11-12 This third volume in the Routledge Focus on Women Writers in Organization Studies series challenges us to think again about the implications of gender embodiment and fluidity for organizing and managing The themes of this book disrupt our understanding of dualisms between sex men and women gender masculinity and femininity and mind body and in so doing analyze the ways in which dominant power relations constitute heteronormativity throughout organizational history thereby reinforcing mainstream management research and teaching By centring the work of women writers this book gives recognition to their thinking and praxis each writer making political inroads into changing the lived experiences of those who have suffered discrimination exclusion and marginalization as they consider the ways in which organizational knowledge has tended to privilege rather than problematize masculinity fixity control normativity violence and discrimination The themes and authors Acker de Beauvoir Halberstam Kosofsky Sedgwick Kristeva Yourcenar covered in this book are important precisely because they are not generally encountered in mainstream writing on management and organization studies They are significant to the study and analysis of organizations because they demonstrate how our understanding of managing and organizing can be transformed when other voices bodies genders write on what it is work live lead and relate to self and others All the writers turn to the ways in which individuals matter organizationally acknowledging that lived experiences are a source of political and ethical practice Each Woman Writer is introduced and analyzed by experts in organization studies Further reading and accessible resources are also identified for those interested in knowing more This book will be relevant to students researchers and practitioners with an interest in business and management organizational studies critical management studies gender studies and sociology Like all the books in this series it will also be of interest to anyone who wants to see think and act differently

Dreams and Destinies NA NA, 2016-04-30 Dreams and Destinies the Rosetta Stone of Marguerite Yourcenar's canon is an intimate journal of her dreams In Dreams and Destinies Yourcenar has provided us with the most daring yet least conventional form of autobiography a form that allows the reader to view her life refracted through the poetic sensibility of her own sleeping mind In recording her dream life Yourcenar wanders through a picture gallery of the soul pausing before ruined cathedrals filled with candles dark ravines that hold dead bodies and still reflecting pools located deep inside soaring gothic churches Her dreams are populated by men women and children as well as animals and mythical creatures Available for the first time in English in the way that she intended upon her death Dreams and Destinies is a reminder from one of the greatest writers of the twentieth century that the dreams we create are with us forever

The Troubling Play of Gender Maria Stadter Fox, 2001 Although these three modernist writers were not primarily playwrights as expatriates they were interested in the Euripidean theme of women in exile each independently chose to rewrite Euripides Hippolytus a play in which the protagonist is a woman in exile whose speech writing and passion are deeply problematic Each author approaches the Euripidean material in a different way Tsvetaeva focuses on gender in language Yourcenar explores the gendering of a self and H D performs the undoing of gendered oppositions

Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi-layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors

Subversive Subjects Judith Holland Sarnecki, Ingeborg Majer O'Sickey, 2004 Subversive Subjects Reading Marguerite Yourcenar is the first collection of articles in English to deal with many of this very private author's best known works Its contributors make use of a variety of literary theories to probe the complex ambiguities at the heart of Yourcenar's writings Each contributor ventures beyond traditional readings of Yourcenar's complex texts pushing against the boundaries of interpretation that the Belgian born writer carefully established Many of the essays read like a mystery hence they follow Yourcenar's call for rigorous explications du texte as they probe her complex oeuvre Judith Holland Sarnecki is Associate Professor of French at Lawrence University Ingeborg Majer O'Sickey is Associate Professor of German and Women's Studies at the State University of New York Binghamton

The Intersecting Realities and Fictions of Virginia Woolf and Colette Helen Southworth, 2004 What might the author of Mrs Dalloway and A Room of One's Own have in common with the author of the Claudine series and The Pure and the Impure Resisting long held interpretations that Colette and Virginia Woolf had little in common Southworth shows here the links between the two famous writers both real and imagined Often cast in their diametrically opposed roles of elitist bluestocking and risqué music hall performer critics have overlooked the many ways in which the lives and works of Woolf and Colette intersect This study provides a broad ranging introduction to the biographical stylistic and thematic ties that link the lives and works of Britain's and France's first ladies of letters of the early twentieth century Situating the two writers within an international network of artists and literati including Jacques Emile Blanche Radclyffe Hall and Una Troubridge Winnie de Polignac Gisele Freund Sylvia Beach and Adrienne Monnier Vita Sackville West and Violet Trefusis this study complicates conceptions of the differences national sexual cultural and intellectual which have kept these two women apart by placing these same differences at its center Southworth develops work already undertaken on Woolf's contacts with France and adds to the body of comparative work on Woolf and her contemporaries This study also highlights as yet unexplored connections between Colette and her British and American peers Southworth's book makes a significant contribution to gay and lesbian studies and the study of modernist culture It also demonstrates the potential of social network theory for literary studies

Walking Since Daybreak Modris Eksteins, 2021-05-12 An account of one family's displacement and the tragic history of twentieth century Latvia Lithuania and Estonia Deeply moving Los Angeles Times Winner of the Pearson Prize for Nonfiction The immense cataclysm of World War II devastated the Baltic republics of Lithuania Latvia and Estonia sending many of their inhabitants to the ends of the earth Part history part autobiography Walking Since Daybreak tells the tragic story of the Baltic nations before during and after the war Personal stories of the survival or destruction of Modris Eksteins's family members lend an intimate dimension to this vast narrative of those who have surged back and forth across the lowlands bordering the Baltic Sea In the tradition of books that redefine our historical understanding such as Huizinga's The Waning of the Middle Ages and Burckhardt's The Renaissance in Italy Eksteins's narrative is a haunting portrait of national loss and the struggle of a displaced family caught in the maw of history An authoritative and moving mélange of historical analysis, family legend and memoir The Boston Globe Eksteins has astutely and thrillingly braided together the tortured history of modern Latvia, his own personal story of being born there in 1943 and the fate of his family as they and countless millions made their way to and through the refugee camps of postwar Europe The Washington Post Book World This unconventional account of the fate of the Baltic nations is also an important reassessment of WWII and its outcome the pivotal character is Eksteins's maternal great grandmother Grieta The tale of this Latvian chambermaid made pregnant and then rejected by her Baltic German baron serves as a mirror of Latvian-German relations over the centuries In addition the family history opens up the subject of displacement and the struggle and hope of the immigrant experience Kirkus Reviews French

Twentieth Bibliography Douglas W. Alden, 1995-08 This series of bibliographical references is one of the most important tools for research in modern and contemporary French literature No other bibliography represents the scholarly activities and publications of these fields as completely Re-Embroidering the Robe Suzanne Bray, Adrienne E. Gavin, Peter

Merchant, 2009-10-02 Religious faith, myths and legends have always been present in literature However their role has changed over time Since the middle of the nineteenth century with the diminishing role of religion in European society writers with some kind of belief system, whether religious or political, have tended to use myth in two different ways They have either retold the old familiar myths of the past so that they carry fresh messages relevant to a contemporary audience or created their own new myths as modern vehicles of traditional truths Many writers have combined the two techniques Such is the transforming artistry which the eighteen essays in Re-Embroidering the Robe examine the remaking or new minting of myth in literature from 1850 to the present day so that what it embodies and expresses speaks powerfully to the modern reader In widely differing ways therefore all of the texts analysed here compel attention Reference Guide to

World Literature Tom Pendergast, 2003 Covers writers from the ancient Greeks to 20th century authors Includes biographical, bibliographical entries on nearly 500 writers and approximately 550 entries focusing on significant works of world literature Each author entry provides a detailed overview of the writer's life and works Work entries cover a particular piece of world literature in detail Thinking Fascism Erin G. Carlston, 1998 This book analyzes three works by sexually marginal women sometimes grouped as the Sapphic Modernists Djuna Barnes's Nightwood 1936 Marguerite Yourcenar's Denier du r ve 1934 and Virginia Woolf's Three Guineas 1938 that engage directly or indirectly with fascist politics and ideology Homintern

Gregory Woods, 2017-01-01 A landmark account of gay and lesbian creative networks and the seismic changes they brought to twentieth century culture In a hugely ambitious study which crosses continents, languages and almost a century Gregory Woods identifies the ways in which homosexuality has helped shape Western culture Extending from the trials of Oscar Wilde to the gay liberation era, this book examines a period in which increased visibility made acceptance of homosexuality one of the measures of modernity Woods shines a revealing light on the diverse informal networks of gay people in the arts and other creative fields Uneasily called the Homintern an echo of Lenin s Comintern by those suspicious of an international homosexual conspiracy such networks connected gay writers actors artists musicians dancers filmmakers politicians and spies While providing some defense against dominant heterosexual exclusion the grouping brought solidarity celebrated talent and in doing so invigorated the majority culture Woods introduces an enormous cast of gifted and extraordinary characters most of them operating with surprising openness but also explores such issues as artistic influence the coping strategies of minorities the hypocrisies of conservatism and the effects of positive and negative discrimination Traveling from Harlem in the 1910s to 1920s Paris 1930s Berlin 1950s New York and beyond this sharply observed warm spirited book presents a surpassing portrait of twentieth century gay culture and the men and women who both redefined themselves and changed history
