Mixed Methods Social Networks Research Silvia Domínguez, Betina Hollstein, 2014-06-30 This edited volume demonstrates the potential of mixed methods designs for the research of social networks and the utilization of social networks for other research. Mixing methods applies to the combination and integration of qualitative and quantitative methods. In social network research, mixing methods also applies to the combination of structural and actor-oriented approaches. The volume provides readers with methodological concepts to guide mixed method network studies with precise research designs and methods to investigate social networks of various sorts. Each chapter describes the research design used and discusses the strengths of the methods for that particular field and for specific outcomes. Through Iceboxes and Kennels Luis H. Zayas, 2023 Through Iceboxes and Kennels informs readers about lesser discussed issues in immigration reform. Luis H. Zayas introduces the history and politics of the systems of immigration enforcement and of detention centers operated by private prison companies growing rich by using penal methods on infants, toddlers, children, and mothers. Featuring stories told by children and parents, the book describes government decisions at the federal and state levels that vilified and hurt children and parents. It analyzes the stages of migration from Central America and dissects the damaging effects on children's brain growth and their social, psychological, and emotional development. Bodies on the Front Lines Brenda Werth, Katherine Zien, 2024-04-24 Performances as feminist, queer, and trans activism from theater and flash mobs to street protests and online manifestos. The Island of Missing Trees Elif Shafak, 2021-11-02 A REESE S BOOK CLUB PICK Winner of the 2022 BookTube Silver Medal in Fiction Shortlisted for the Women's Prize for Fiction A wise novel of love and grief roots and branches displacement and home faith and belief Balm for our bruised times David Mitchell author of Utopia Avenue A rich magical new novel on belonging and identity love and trauma nature and renewal from the Booker shortlisted author of 10 Minutes 38 Seconds in This Strange World Two teenagers a Greek Cypriot and a Turkish Cypriot meet at a taverna on the island they both call home In the taverna hidden beneath garlands of garlic chili peppers and creeping honeysuckle Kostas and Defne grow in their forbidden love for each other A fig tree stretches through a cavity in the roof and this tree bears witness to their hushed happy meetings and eventually to their silent surreptitious departures The tree is there when war breaks out when the capital is reduced to ashes and rubble and when the teenagers vanish Decades later Kostas returns He is a botanist looking for native species but really he's searching for lost love Years later a Ficus carica grows in the back garden of a house in London where Ada Kazantzakis lives This tree is her only connection to an island she has never visited her only connection to her family's troubled history and her complex identity as she seeks to untangle years of secrets to find her place in the world A moving beautifully written and delicately constructed story of love division transcendence history and eco consciousness The Island of Missing Trees is Elif Shafak's best work yet Violent Victors Sarah Zukerman Daly, 2022-11-22 Why populations brutalized in war elect their tormentors One of the great puzzles of electoral politics is how parties that commit mass atrocities in war often win the support of victimized populations to establish the postwar political order. Violent Victors traces how parties derived from violent wartime belligerents successfully campaign as the best providers of future societal peace, attracting votes not just from their core supporters but oftentimes also from the very people they targeted in war. Drawing on more than two years of groundbreaking fieldwork, Sarah Daly combines case studies of victim voters in Latin America with experimental survey evidence and new data on postwar elections around the world. She argues that contrary to oft-cited fears, postconflict elections do not necessarily give rise to renewed instability or political violence. Daly demonstrates how war-scarred citizens reward belligerent parties for promising peace and security instead of blaming them for war. Yet in so casting their ballots, voters sacrifice justice, liberal democracy, and social welfare. Proposing actionable interventions that can help to moderate these trade-offs, Violent Victors links war outcomes with democratic outcomes to shed essential new light on political life after war and offers global perspectives on important questions about electoral behavior in the wake of mass violence. The Newest American Denny

Sheehan, 2011-05-02 The Newest American follows twelve-year-old Mimmy Moreaux as she witnesses the assassination of the town's mayor, which ultimately propels her French-Canadian mother to seek citizenship in order to run for the now open office. Mimmy tries to make sense of the world around her in light of the ridiculous and tragic events that occur during her last few months of sixth grade. My Green Age Terrence Keough, 2009-12-21 The middle years of the twentieth century were a time of profound and rapid change. The world had recently experienced the Great Depression and World War II. Nothing could be quite the same again, and in fact, nothing was. In My Green Age, author Terrence Keough not only recounts his life as an ordinary person but also provides a perspective on the years between 1935 and 1963. A series of vignettes interspersed throughout the memoir add piquancy to the comments on the nature of the times. A summer memory: My birthday, June 14, 1940. I heard from my upstairs bedroom my mother talking to Mr. Olson on the doorstep below. Paris has fallen to the Germans, he said. The Reverend R. MacDonald's Religion 5C class: If you mow your lawn for up to a half hour on Sunday, he contended, you have committed a venial sin. If you mow it for more than a half hour, that's a mortal sin. One evening we took the tube to Knightsbridge to go to my favourite restaurant, Luba's Bistro, just down the street from Harrods and the Brompton Oratory on Yeoman's Row.
