Maria Paints the Hills Pat Mora, 2002 Maria and her mother experience daily life in Santa Fe New Mexico Maria Paints the Hills Pat Mora, 2002-10-01 Illustrated with wonderfully ingenuous paintings of scenes of Santa Fe in the early part of the twentieth century this picture book's story of a girl becoming an artist is based on childhood memories Maria draws the world around her Chile vendors the feast of San Isidro preparing for the fiesta flying kites and picking herbs to entertain herself and her mother When her mother gives her a set of paints it is the dawning of Maria's creative self as she paints the hills around her beloved town Expressing New Mexico Phillip B. Gonzales, 2022-09-13 The culture of the Nuevomexicanos forged by Spanish speaking residents of New Mexico over the course of many centuries is known for its richness and diversity Expressing New Mexico contributes to a present day renaissance of research on Nuevomexicano culture by assembling eleven original and noteworthy essays They are grouped under two broad headings expressing culture and expressing place Expressing culture derives from the notion of expressive culture referring to fine art productions such as music painting sculpture drawing dance drama and film but it is expanded here to include folklore religious ritual community commemoration ethnopolitical identity and the pragmatics of ritualized response to the difficult problems of everyday life Intertwined with the concept of expressive culture is that of place in relation to New Mexico itself Place is addressed directly by four of the authors in this anthology and is present in some way and in varying degrees among the rest Place figures prominently in Nuevomexicano character contributors argue They assert that Nuevomexicanos and Nuevomexicanas construct and develop a sense of self that is shaped by the geography and culture of the state as well as by their heritage Many of the articles deal with recent events or with recent reverberations of important historical events which imbues the collection with a sense of immediacy Rituals traditions community commemorations self concepts and historical revisionism all play key roles Contributors include both prominent and emerging scholars united by their interest in and fascination with the distinctiveness of Nuevomexicano culture Children's Authors and Illustrators Too Good to Miss Sharron L. McElmeel, 2004-06-30 Who are today's must know children's authors and illustrators McElmeel's ready reference introduces you to some of the hottest new names in children's literature and reacquaints you with established authors and illustrators who are just now becoming recognized for their contributions to the field You'll find engaging biographical sketches photos selected bibliographies and lists of resources for 45 authors and illustrators including Laurie Halse Anderson Haemi Balgassi Toni Buzzeo David Diaz Kate DiCamillo Linda Sue Park Chris Soentpiet Anastasia Suen Simms Taback and many more This all new new volume is a current and affordable update to the Popular Authors Series Students will enjoy using it as a resource for reports and research papers and librarians will find it a handy reference and collection development tool A great addition to the elementary school library and to the children's room at the public library Grades K-6 Pat Mora Hal Marcovitz, 2013-11 As a young girl growing up in El Paso Texas Pat Mora felt as though she belonged to two worlds      Spilling the Beans in Chicanolandia Frederick Luis Aldama, 2010-01-01 Since the 1980s a prolific second wave of Chicano writers and artists has tremendously expanded the range of genres and subject matter in Chicano literature and art Building on the pioneering work of their predecessors whose artistic creations were often tied to political activism and the civil rights struggle today's Chicano writers and artists feel free to focus as much on the aesthetic quality of their work as on its social content They use novels short stories poetry drama documentary films and comic books to shape the raw materials of life into art objects that cause us to participate empathetically in an increasingly complex Chicano identity and experience This book presents far ranging interviews with twenty one second wave Chicano poets fiction writers dramatists documentary filmmakers and playwrights Some are mainstream widely recognized creators while others work from the margins because of their sexual orientations or their controversial positions Frederick Luis Aldama draws out the artists and authors on both the aesthetic and the sociopolitical concerns that animate their work Their conversations delve into such areas as how the artists or writers life experiences have molded their work why they choose to work in certain genres and how they have transformed them what it means to be Chicano in today's pluralistic society and how Chicano identity influences and is influenced by contact with ethnic and racial identities from around the world      Zing! Seven Creativity Practices for Educators and Students Pat Mora, 2010-03-30 Zing is a wonderful book that encourages others to be creative by sharing what has worked for Pat Mora in all of her creative efforts Camila A Alire Dean Emeritus University of New Mexico In a series of letters to teachers written with her signature poetic grace Pat Mora gently reminds us of the potential in ourselves and our students Lee Galda Professor University of Minnesota In this era of mandates accountability and adherence to canned curricula Mora reminds us that great educators are fueled by passion and creativity Gary Bloom Superintendent Santa Cruz City Schools Soquel CA Cultivate your own creativity and the creative potential of all your students Zing Seven Creativity Practices for Educators and Students is a beautifully written guide that offers seven powerful practices for personal creativity and professional inventiveness For each of the seven practices author Pat Mora proposes seven symbols and presents parallel exercises for teachers and students Evocatively written in the form of letters to teachers and librarians this book Helps educators access their creative selves and in the process become better teachers Nurtures students in expressing themselves through writing and other creative pursuits Includes activities at the end of each chapter This moving and inspirational volume serves as a reminder that inventive teaching is truly an art form that enriches lives and transforms teachers and students Pat Mora was named one of the Fifty Most Inspiring Authors in the World by Poets Writers magazine      New Mexico Magazine, 2003-07      Children's Guide to Santa Fe Anne Hillerman, 2005 Hillerman describes places to visit and special celebrations in Santa Fe New Mexico as well as nearby Indian villages and sites and areas suitable for hiking and fishing Includes a Spanish vocabulary      Conversations with Texas Writers Frances Leonard, Ramona Cearley, 2010-01-01 Larry McMurtry declares Texas itself doesn't have anything to do with why I write It never did Horton Foote on the other hand says I've just never had a desire to write about any place else In between those figurative bookends are hundreds of other writers some internationally recognized others just becoming known who draw inspiration and often subject matter from the unique places and people that are Texas To give everyone who is interested in Texas writing a representative sampling of the breadth and vitality of the state's current literary production this volume features conversations with fifty of Texas's most notable established writers and emerging talents The writers included here work in a wide variety of genres novels short stories poetry plays screenplays essays nonfiction and magazine journalism In their conversations with interviewers from the Writers League of Texas and other authors organizations the writers speak of their apprenticeships literary influences working habits connections with their readers and the domestic and public events that have shaped their writing Accompanying the interviews are excerpts from the writers work as well as their photographs biographies and bibliographies Joe Holley's introductory essay an overview of Texas writing from Cabeza de Vaca's 1542 Relation to the work of today's generation of writers who are equally at home in Hollywood as in Texas provides the necessary context to appreciate such a diverse collection of literary voices A sampling from the book This land has been my subject matter One thing that distinguishes me from the true naturalist is that I've never been able to look at land without thinking of the people who've been on it It's fundamental to me John Graves Writing is a way to keep ourselves more in touch with everything we experience It seems the best gifts and thoughts are given to us when we pause take a deep breath look around see what's there and return to where we were revived Naomi Shihab Nye I've said this many times in print the novel is the middle age genre Very few people have written really good novels when they are young and few people have written really good novels when they are old You just tail off and lose a certain level of concentration Your imaginative energy begins to lag I feel like I'm repeating myself and most writers do repeat themselves Larry McMurtry I was a pretty poor cowhand I grew up on the Macaraw Ranch east of Crane Texas My father tried very hard to make a cowboy out of me but in my case it never seemed to work too well I had more of a literary bent I loved to read and very early on I began to write small stories short stories out of the things I liked to read Elmer Kelton Riding Low on the Streets Gold: Latino Literature for Young Adults Judith Ortiz Cofer, 2003-10-31 There seemed to be no way out of the custom Her arguments were always the same and always turned into pleas But Ama it's embarrassing I'm too old for that I'm an adult Naomi says in Helena Maria Viramontes story Growing Ever since Naomi hit high school and puberty she began to notice that there were too many expectations and no one instructed her on how to fulfill them In her tradition bound family and under the thundering gaze of her father Naomi struggles to stretch the limitations imposed on her by her family even as her mind expands along with her changing body Like Growing the pieces in this anthology for young adults reveal the struggles of discovering a new self and the trials of leaving behind an old one This extraordinary collection gathers a wealth of stories and poems that explore the challenges of negotiating identity and relationships with others struggling with authority learning to love oneself and challenging the roles
