important people were still living and the tenor of the times prohibited frankness. Instead rumors ballooned. This book finally sets the record straight. Fred Guiles, whom Norman Mailer acknowledges as the chief source of fact about Marilyn, has written the life behind the legend. He reveals what really happened in the careening career of the pretty waif named Norma Jean Mortensen who married the boy next door, became a model, an actress, movie star, married an incompatible legend named Joe DiMaggio, sought to improve the mind that came with her near perfect body, married playwright Arthur Miller, lent herself to the Svengalilike ministrations of Paula and Lee Strasberg, became the mistress of John and then Robert Kennedy when they ran the country, kept camera crews and studios waiting but not death which took her under the most unusual circumstances by the age of thirty six. A legend by definition is unaltered by fact but the enthralled reader will find the revelations in this book no deterrent to the love of Marilyn Monroe by understanding at last what happened to the Queen of Need. Among the people interviewed for this book are Arthur Miller, James E. Dougherty, her first husband, Frank Taylor, the producer of The Misfits, Lee Strasberg, Otto Preminger, Billy Wilder, Joshua Logan, and John Huston.

The Secret Life of Marilyn Monroe

J. Randy Taraborrelli, 2009-08-25. From New York Times bestselling author J. Randy Taraborrelli comes the definitive biography of the most enduring icon in popular American culture. When Marilyn Monroe became famous in the 1950s the world was told that her mother was either dead or simply not a part of her life. However that was not true. In fact her mentally ill mother was very much present in Marilyn's world and the complex family dynamic that unfolded behind the scenes is a story that has never before been told until now. In this groundbreaking book Taraborrelli draws complex and sympathetic portraits of the women so influential in the actress' life including her mother, her foster mother, and her legal guardian. He also reveals for the first time the shocking scope of Marilyn's own mental illness, the identity of Marilyn's father and the half brother she never knew, and new information about her relationship with the Kennedy's Bobby Jack and Pat Kennedy Lawford. Explosive, revelatory and surprisingly moving, this is the final word on the life of one of the most fascinating and elusive icons of the 20th Century.

They've escaped with their lovely and caring schoolteacher Miss Brett with their long absent parents and with their bizarre captors, protectors, or both the mysterious men in black. And now they travel by train, destined for parts unknown. But a note torn from the hand of a dead man in a New York tunnel guarantees that safety is an illusion. When the children's world is blown apart, life will never be the same again. Soon the children Jasper and little Lucy Modest from London, England; Wallace Baneker from New York, United States; Noah Canto Sagas from Toronto, Canada; and Faye Vigyanveta from Delhi, India find themselves in the ancient Italian village of Solemano deep in a mystery that spans centuries. As they inch toward the truth of the men in black and the secrets they keep, one terrible fact remains: Komar Romak is still out there. He's still after them for reasons they can't even begin to imagine. And he knows exactly where they are. From the rolling plains of America to the wide open waters of the Atlantic.
