Mark Hampton:

Mark Hampton Mark Hampton, Duane F. Hampton, New York School of Interior Design, 1999 Mark Hampton: The Art of Friendship Duane Hampton, 2001-11-27 Mark Hampton long regarded as the First Decorator for his work on the White House for former president George Bush was one of America's most prominent interior decorators. His clients included Estée Lauder, the Saul Steinbergs, the Mike Wallaces, and the Henry Kissingers to name only a few. For the people who knew him well, his reputation as a decorator was surpassed by his generosity as a friend. In his lifetime, Hampton painted hundreds of watercolors as gifts for the people who were closest to him. Mark Hampton: The Art of Friendship by his widow Duane Hampton is a collection of 140 watercolors that reveal his wit, affection, and sophistication. The paintings are whimsical, lighthearted, yet richly beautiful. Even though he often painted while talking on the phone to business contacts, taking care of his daughters, or packing to leave for the weekend, Hampton managed to create lasting impressions of the most fleeting moments of life. Including birthday cards, valentines, Christmas greetings, travel studies, portraits of friends, family members, and pets, garden scenes, still lifes, and homages, this collection is a memorable reflection of a lifetime of friendship. Duane Hampton's introduction offers a loving and insightful portrait of her husband's life. Raised as a Quaker in a community of Friends in Indiana, Mark Hampton grew to understand that being a friend in the most universal sense is a vital part of our existence and is intimately linked with our everyday activities. He once wrote, "At least our private worlds can reward us with peace and pleasure." The watercolors in this collection prove that the rewards of the private world can be profound. Mark Hampton: The Art of Friendship is a striking testimonial to the enduring power of friendship and an endearing collection of Mark Hampton's most personal artwork. Mark Hampton on Decorating Mark Hampton, 2015-10 Originally published in the United States in slightly different form by Random House, an imprint and division of Penguin Random House LLC in 1989.

Mark Hampton Duane Hampton, 2010-04-27 A celebration of the career of the late interior designer Mark Hampton, 1940-1998, whom the New York Times called an icon of American Style. In the tradition of Albert Hadley and David Hicks, this is a comprehensive look at the career of the late Mark Hampton, one of the most famous and admired American interior designers of the twentieth century. A classic American success story, Hampton grew up in small-town Indiana and went on to worldwide fame. He began his career working for some of the greatest interior designers of the age: Mrs. Henry Parish II, David Hicks, and McMillen Inc. He later went on to design for such clients as Brooke Astor, Estée Lauder, Jacqueline Onassis, and the Henry Kissingers, in addition to his work on the White House, Camp David, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the National Gallery of Art, and the American Academy in Rome. Known for the tremendous depth and breadth of his knowledge, Hampton refused to be pigeonholed into a trademark style, moving effortlessly from sleek modernism to English country and back again. A highly popular lecturer who drew crowds, Hampton was also the author of two books as well as a designer of both furniture and fabrics. Rich with original materials, including Hampton's watercolors, sketches, and notebooks, as well as hundreds of images.

of Hampton's important commissions and impeccably researched and intimately written by his widow Duane Hampton this will be a visual feast for everyone interested in interiors as well as an important addition to the history of interior design
