Library, 1976 Frank O'Hara and MoMA Matthew Holman, 2025-08-07 This is the first book to closely examine the curatorial work that the celebrated poet Frank O Hara 1926 1966 undertook for the Museum of Modern Art in New York and abroad Upon his premature death the New York Times obituary ran with the headline Frank O Hara 40 Museum Curator Exhibitions Aide at Modern Art Dies Also a Poet However in the half a century since O Hara s fascinating career as a curator where he oversaw exhibitions of the likes of Jackson Pollock Helen Frankenthaler David Smith and Larry Rivers among others has been eclipsed by the critical attention given over to his poetry Drawing on a broad range of unpublished archival material the book reveals the impact O Hara s curatorial work had both on the reception of American modern art abroad and on the curatorial profession itself It focuses on his travelling exhibitions for MoMA s International Program a vehicle for soft power during the fraught years of the cultural Cold War exposing him to new art artists and cities while developing important transnational networks far from New York from Madrid to Venice Zagreb to Otterlo Bringing together close readings of O Hara s poems and unpublished letters with a selection of archival illustrations Holman argues for O Hara s sense of exuberant continuity between life as a writer and a curator an American and a cosmopolitan revealing that he was so much more besides the quintessential New York poet It is perfect reading for anyone interested in American art in the mid 20th century curatorial and museum studies or simply this lesser known but fascinating aspect of the legendary poet s career The Modern West Emily Ballew Neff, Barry Holstun Lopez, 2006-01-01 A fascinating and novel exploration of the transformative role played by the American West in the development of modernism in the United States Drawing extensively from various disciplines including ethnology geography geology and environmental studies this groundbreaking book addresses shifting concepts of time history and landscape in relation to the work of pioneering American artists during the first half of the 20th century Paintings watercolors and photographs by renowned artists such as Frederic Remington Georgia O Keeffe Ansel Adams Thomas Hart Benton Dorothea Lange and Jackson Pollock are considered alongside American Indian ledger drawings tempuras and Dineh sandpaintings Taken together these works document the quest to create a specifically American art in the decades prior to World War II The Modern West begins with a captivating meditation on the relationship between human culture and the physical landscape by Barry Lopez who traveled the West in the artists footsteps Emily Ballew Neff then describes the evolving importance of the West for American artists working out a radically new aesthetic response to space and place from artist explorers on the turn of the century frontier to visionaries of a Californian arcadia to desert luminaries who found in its stark topography a natural equivalent to abstraction Beautifully illustrated and handsomely designed this book is essential to anyone interested in the West and the history of modernism in American art The Spirituality of Art Lois Huey-Heck, Jim Kalnin, 2006 Through stories quotes and images this book is a guide to deeper enjoyment and appreciation of visual art the spiritual journey and the connections between the two It has stunningly beautiful colour reproductions of art across time place and culture Master Drawings from the Smith College Museum of Art Smith College. Museum of Art, Ann H. Sievers, Linda D. Muehlig, Nancy Rich, 2000 This newest volume in Hudson Hills Press's acclaimed series about leading collections of master drawings presents sixty eight great sheets all reproduced in full color including many versos from one of the finest college museums in America The Saints of Modern Art Charles A. Riley, 1998 Asceticism seen as a powerful force in the art and thought of our time Art Digest, 1929 New Art City Jed Perl, 2007-02-13 In this landmark work Jed Perl captures the excitement of a generation of legendary artists Jackson Pollack Joseph Cornell Robert Rauschenberg and Ellsworth Kelly among them who came to New York mingled in its lofts and bars and revolutionized American art In a continuously arresting narrative Perl also portrays such less well known figures as the galvanic teacher Hans Hofmann the lyric expressionist Joan Mitchell and the adventuresome realist Fairfield Porter as well the writers critics and patrons who rounded out the artists world Brilliantly describing the intellectual crosscurrents of the time as well as the genius of dozens of artists New Art City is indispensable for lovers of modern art and culture Avant-Garde, Internationalism, and Politics Andrea Giunta, 2007-07-16 An exploration of the impact of the 1960s and the U S post cold war moment on the reception of Latin American art and artists Art After the Bomb Darrell D. Davisson, 2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1.3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9/11 to teach us about Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1976 Painting outside the Lines David W.
