Mary McGreevy:

Mary McGreevy Walter Keady, 1999-10 A nun in 1950s Ireland abandons the veil to run a farm inherited from her father Sister Mary Thomas is good looking and flirtatious and suitors queue at her door But she does not want a husband only a child and eventually she gives birth to one scandalizing the district and getting a priest into trouble By the author of Celibates and Other Lovers The Concept of Woman Prudence Allen, 1997 The culmination of a lifetime's scholarly work this pioneering study by Sister Prudence Allen traces the concept of woman in relation to man in Western thought from ancient times to the present Volume I uncovers four general categories of questions asked by philosophers for two thousand years These are the categories of opposites of generation of wisdom and of virtue Sister Prudence Allen traces several recurring strands of sexual and gender identity within this period Ultimately she shows the paradoxical influence of Aristotle on the question of woman and on a philosophical understanding of sexual complementarity Supplemented throughout with helpful charts diagrams and illustrations this volume will be an important resource for scholars and students in the fields of women's studies philosophy history theology literary studies and political science In Volume 2 Sister Prudence Allen explores claims about sex and gender identity in the works of over fifty philosophers both men and women in the late medieval and early Renaissance periods Touching on the thought of every philosopher who considered sex or gender identity between A.D. 1250 and 1500 The Concept of Woman provides the analytical categories necessary for situating contemporary discussion of women in relation to men Adding to the accessibility of this fine discussion are informative illustrations helpful summary charts and extracts of original source material some not previously available in English In her third and final volume Allen covers the years 1500-2015 continuing her chronological approach to individual authors and also offering systematic arguments to defend certain philosophical positions over against others The Altruist Walter Keady, 2003 Eilis is a feisty young woman growing up in an Ireland that has changed significantly since the days of her grandmother's youth But some things do not change Eilis too flouts conventional mores especially when she decides to have a baby out of wedlock like her grandmother before her Sessional Papers, 1918 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as vol 26 no 7 supplement The Civil Service List of Canada ... Canada. Tales of Terror from the Tunnel's Mouth Chris Priestley, 2010-04-05 A boy is put on a train by his stepmother to make his first journey on his own But soon that journey turns out to be more of a challenge than anyone could have imagined as the train stalls at the mouth of a tunnel and a mysterious woman in white helps the boy while away the hours by telling him stories stories with a difference Tales with a Twist Ira E. Delk, 2015-09-23 These short stories will have you laughing and guessing where the next story will take you The book was previewed and recommended for publication by Ann Gray publisher of 2NJoy Magazine Annual Report of the City of Keene; Containing Inaugural Ceremonies, Ordinances and Joint Resolutions Keene (N.H.), 1907 Supreme Court of the State of New York Appellate Division First Department , Gender Complementarity and Christian Personalism Mary Veronica Sabelli, John P. Hittinger, 2025

When in the 1970 s Sister Prudence Allen RSM began to investigate philosophical thought on woman the question was considered to be at best a marginal area for philosophical research Rather it was seen as a sociological anthropological psychological or political issue This book confirms that today partly due to Allen s groundbreaking work the complementarity of man and woman is an important and fruitful area of research in philosophy providing an evaluative framework that enriches and challenges many other disciplines No one could have foreseen the centrality of her research for questions of gender theory that are in the third decade of the 21st century in the forefront of public attention In the present volume leading authors in the area of sex gender complementarity reflect upon and further develop various aspects of Allen s research In 14 original scholarly essays some contributors build upon Allen s project of exploring the concept of woman throughout the history of philosophy Others explore the work of 20th century philosophers most of them Christian Personalists whom Allen credits with significant influence on the development of integral gender complementarity such as Karol Wojtya a John Paul II Jacques Maritain Edith Stein Emmanuel Mounier W Norris Clarke SJ and Bernard Lonergan SJ Still other contributors consider Marian spirituality analogies between Benedictine spirituality and the physiological realities of a woman s body during pregnancy seminary education in the writings of Allen and others and the impact of Allen s work on the real lives of women in families the Church and professional life Upon completing her magisterial three volume work The Concept of Woman Allen passed the baton to a new generation of scholars stating The next phases will be developed by those who themselves take the argument further and deeper in their own research writing living and lecturing The present volume takes up the baton carrying Allen s work forward and paying tribute to the lifetime achievement of a great scholar Free for Christ: Religious Obedience and Thomistic Moral Theology Mother Mary Christa Nutt, R.S.M., 2024-08-01 What is it about the practice of obedience to God that makes it significant for human happiness and sanctity And how should the obedience proper to vowed religious life be understood relative to the responsibilities of conscience and personal freedom In the present day religious obedience is often viewed either as a negative cramping of personal autonomy by an external authority or as a positive submission to law that somehow assures one's fidelity but the common thread for both perspectives is a distinctly modern approach to obedience characterized by legalism and voluntarism In Free for Christ Mother Mary Christa Nutt R S M proposes a different approach to religious obedience that foregrounds virtue based moral agency rooted in metaphysics and the mystery of God examining obedience not simply in relation to commands and laws but as a spiritual philosophical and theological reality one that situates the human person in relation to God the Church and those others who share this religious life Taking her starting point from Thomas Aquinas Nutt examines obedience as a dimension of prudence and worship that is as a way that the human being can become relative to God as first source and final end and thus as a way that the grace of Christ can take deeper root as a path to authentic freedom and interiority From this ground of Thomistic metaphysics and ethics emerges a theological anthropology of obedience closely tied to Aquinas's teaching on providence and religion
