Camerawork, 1997 Authorship in Comics Journalism Laura Schlichting, 2021-08-09 What is Comics Journalism and Why is the author not dead at all Because literature and journalism deal differently with authorship and author this work renegotiates these concepts It analyzes the author's importance in comics journalism especially concerning the verification and authentication of the production process This study gives a broad and extensive overview of the various forms of contemporary comics journalism and argues that authorship in comics journalism can only be adequately understood by considering the author both on the textual and extratextual level By combining comics analyses with cultural sociological and literary studies approaches this study introduces the comics journalistic pact which is an invisible agreement between author and reader addressing issues of narration voice testimony face and journalistic engagement hands It categorizes comics journalism as a borderline genre between literature culture art and journalism due to its interdisciplinary nature
