Green, Scot McKnight, I. Howard Marshall, 1992-02-18 Edited by Joel B Green Scot McKnight and I Howard Marshall this reference work encompasses everything relating to Jesus and the Gospels The Puzzle of the Gospels Peter Vardy, Mary E. Mills, 2015-02-24 First Published in 2015 The gospels tell a story There are many types of story ranging from fiction through biographies to attempts at historical accounts Even so called true stories will be affected by the perception of the writer It is impossible to present any book without taking the viewpoint of the author into account which is one reason why this book will be devoting considerable time to understanding the purpose and intention of the individual gospel writers Matthew Mark Luke and John present different accounts of the life and death of Jesus of Nazareth as one might expect from four people who although they use some common material nevertheless present this material in distinctive ways This book will be concerned with helping you the reader to understand the gospel stories and how they came to be written to bring to light the implicit references that were being made of which modern readers may be unaware and also to consider the issue of the truth of the stories The Garima Gospels Judith S. McKenzie, Francis Watson, 2016-12-31 The three Garima Gospels are the earliest surviving Ethiopian gospel books They provide glimpses of lost late antique luxury gospel books and art of the fifth to seventh centuries in the Aksumite kingdom of Ethiopia as well as in the Christian East As this work shows their artwork is closely related to Syriac Armenian Greek and Georgian gospel books and to the art of late antique Coptic Egypt Nubia and Himyar Yemen Like most gospel manuscripts the Garima Gospels contain ornately decorated canon tables which function as concordances of the different versions of the same material in the gospels Analysis of these tables of numbered parallel passages devised by Eusebius of Caesarea contributes significantly to our understanding of the early development of the canonical four gospel collection The origins and meanings of the decorated frames portraits of the evangelists Alexandrian circular pavilion and unique image of the Jerusalem Temple are elucidated The Garima texts and decoration demonstrate how a distinctive Christian culture developed in Aksumite Ethiopia while also belonging to the mainstream late antique Mediterranean world Lavishly illustrated in colour this volume presents all of the Garima illuminated pages for the first time and extensive comparative material It will be an essential resource for those studying late antique art and history Ethiopia eastern Christianity New Testament textual criticism and illuminated books The Content and the Setting of the Gospel Tradition Mark Harding, Alanna Nobbs, 2010-10-22 Editors Mark Harding and Alanna Nobbs have here brought together the internationally recognized scholarly excellence of Macquarie University faculty and associates to provide a major contribution to the study of the content and environment of the New Testament Gospels Few books in current New Testament scholarship seriously tackle its social setting and textual tradition beyond a chapter or two The Content and

Setting of the Gospel Tradition integrates the texts with the literary social and historical context in which they were written

Watson, Logan Williams, 2020-12-24 This book highlights the significance of a group of five texts excluded from the standard Christian Bible and preserved only in Ge'ez the classical language of Ethiopia. These texts are crucial for modern scholars due to their significance for a wide range of early readers as extant fragments of other early translations confirm in most cases. Yet they are also noted for their eventual marginalization and abandonment as a more restrictive understanding of the biblical canon prevailed everywhere except in Ethiopia with its distinctive Christian tradition in which the concept of a closed canon is alien. In focusing upon 1 Enoch, Jubilees, the Ascension of Isaiah, the Epistula Apostolorum, and the Apocalypse of Peter, the contributors to this volume group them together as representatives of a time in early Christian history when sacred texts were not limited by a sharply defined canonical boundary. In doing so, this book also highlights the unique and underappreciated contribution of the Ethiopic Christian Tradition to the study of early Christianity.

Charts of the Gospels and the Life of Christ Robert L. Thomas, 2000 Clearly organizes the facts that surrounded the major parts of the life of Christ: Christ's parables, Christ's ministry, Reign of the Herods, Sects of Judaism, Teachings of Jesus.

The Early Text of the New Testament Charles E. Hill, Michael J. Kruger, 2012-06-14 The Early Text of the New Testament aims to examine and assess from our earliest extant sources the most primitive state of the New Testament text now known. What sort of changes did scribes make to the text? What is the quality of the text now at our disposal? What can we learn about the nature of textual transmission in the earliest centuries? In addition to exploring the textual and scribal culture of early Christianity, this volume explores the textual evidence for all the sections of the New Testament. It also examines the evidence from the earliest translations of New Testament writings and the citations or allusions to New Testament texts in other early Christian writers.

The Gospel of Peter and Early Christian Apologetics Timothy P. Henderson, 2011 Slightly revised version of the author's thesis, Ph.D. Marquette University, 2010. A Collection of Theological Tracts Richard Watson, 1791. Answering Jihad and Seeking Allah, Finding Jesus Collection Nabeel Qureshi, 2016-03-08 This collection includes 2 bestselling ebooks from award-winning author Nabeel Qureshi: Answering Jihad From New York Times bestselling author and former Muslim, Nabeel Qureshi comes this personal, challenging, and respectful answer to the many questions surrounding jihad, the rise of ISIS, and Islamic terrorism. Setting aside speculations and competing voices, what really is jihad? How are we to understand jihad in relation to our Muslim neighbors and friends? Why is there such a surge of Islamist terrorism in the world today, and how are we to respond? Seeking Allah, Finding Jesus In Seeking Allah, Finding Jesus, Nabeel Qureshi describes his dramatic journey from Islam to Christianity, complete with friendships, investigations, and supernatural dreams along the way. Providing an intimate window into a loving Muslim home, Qureshi shares how he developed a passion for Islam before discovering almost against his will evidence that Jesus rose from the dead and claimed to be God. Unable to deny the arguments, but not wanting to deny his family, Qureshi's inner turmoil will challenge Christians and Muslims alike.

Studies in the Four Gospels Henry Thorne Sell, 1917 Collection of Children's Books Published by the Society American Sunday-School

Union,1853      Proving Jesus' Authority in Mark and John Gary Greenberg,2018-12-17 This innovative study of the Fourth Gospel introduces important new perspectives on synoptic problems and challenges many theories about the nature of the Gospel of John's sources and composition practices Its analysis shows that the author of John knew a written version of Mark's gospel had strong theological objections to how Mark depicted the nature and story of Jesus and the gospel message and composed his gospel as a theologically corrected rewriting of Mark's using the latter's gospel as a narrative guideline for his own composition By focusing on several seemingly different stories in Mark and John that deal with issues relating to how Jesus proved his authority the book places each of the incidents in their narrative sequential and theological context demonstrating that John knew Mark's specific stories in the same sequential order that appeared in Mark and that John's stories represented theologically altered rewrites of the ones in Mark The study examines the nature of John's objections to Mark what changes John would want to make to Mark and the formulaic editorial techniques John used to transform Mark's gospel into John's gospel Of particular interest it shows how John transformed Mark's stories about proof through exorcisms into Johannine stories about proof through words
