Odilon Redon Raphaël Bouvier,Fondation Beyeler,2005 Odilon Redon s oeuvre marks the threshold between the nineteenth and the twentieth centuries and thus also represents the interplay between tradition and innovation Fractures and contrasts characterize his artistic development from the black and white of his early dark lithographs and works in charcoal to the veritable explosions of color in his bright pastels and oils Bizarre monsters appear alongside heavenly creatures in a blend of dream and nightmare nature and vision Tending toward internalization the mythic sacred and biological motifs in Redon s works underwent a turn toward the mystical not only on account of his subject matter but also through the aesthetic aspects of color and form Greatly admired by contemporaries such as Paul C zanne and Edgar Degas Redon influenced artists such as Pierre Bonnard Henri Matisse and Marcel Duchamp as well as the Surrealists The artist s brilliant ideas and his contextually technically and materially multifaceted body of work are presented in this catalogue
