Snyder,2019-02-12 First published in 1996 All the Nations Under Heaven has earned praise and a wide readership for its unparalleled chronicle of the role of immigrants and migrants in shaping the history and culture of New York City This updated edition of a classic text brings the story of the immigrant experience in New York City up to the present with vital new material on the city s revival as a global metropolis with deeply rooted racial and economic inequalities All the Nations Under Heaven explores New York City s history through the stories of people who moved there from countless places of origin and indelibly marked its hybrid popular culture its contentious ethnic politics and its relentlessly dynamic economy From Dutch settlement to the extraordinary diversity of today s immigrants the book chronicles successive waves of Irish German Jewish and Italian immigrants and African American and Puerto Rican migrants showing how immigration changes immigrants and immigrants change the city In a compelling narrative synthesis All the Nations Under Heaven considers the ongoing tensions between inclusion and exclusion the pursuit of justice and the reality of inequality and the evolving significance of race and ethnicity In an era when immigration inequality and globalization are bitterly debated this revised edition is a timely portrait of New York City through the lenses of migration and immigration "They Just Need to Get a Job" Mary Brosnahan,2024-11-12 Readers will come away infuriated with a greater understanding of the systemic causes of homelessness and with more compassion for their homeless neighbors Essential reading for any community affected by homelessness which is all of them Booklist Starred Review For readers of Andrea Elliott and Matthew Desmond the former CEO of the Coalition for the Homeless breaks through the highly destructive misinformation surrounding our homeless neighbors Conservative think tanks like the Manhattan Institute disseminate anti homeless myths in the media legislatures and the larger culture claiming that our homeless neighbors cause their own predicament and that the best we can do is manage the problem Drawing on her deep legal knowledge policy expertise and decades of frontline service Mary Brosnahan cuts through the misinformation to deliver two important messages that homelessness ultimately stems from a lack of investment in affordable housing and that the greatest myth of all is that we should have no hope In fact the proven solutions are well documented and the ability to enact them depends on us all Brosnahan takes a nationwide look from New York to Detroit Philly to L A and from rural areas such as Cumberland County Pennsylvania to debunk 15 widespread misconceptions including that the problem is inevitable in fact Housing First approaches have shown great success that handouts cause homelessness in fact the primary causes are flat wages and high rent that homeless people need to prove that they re ready to receive aid in fact enforcing hurdles is far more expensive and less effective than Housing First With brilliant insight Brosnahan showcases how by dispelling these pervasive myths rooted in fear we can embrace the affordable housing based solutions that will bring our impoverished neighbors home
