Regional Security in the Middle East , The Economics of International Security Manas Chatterji, Henk Jager, Annemarie Rima, 2016-07-27 The objective of this book is to present an integrated set of original papers from leading authorities in the field related to optimal balance between arms reduction and regional and international security The emphasis is on economics and management rather than politics and diplomacy Energy in the Caspian Region Y. Kalyuzhnova, A. Jaffe, D. Lynch, R. Sickles, 2001-12-17 The energy reserves of the Caspian Region have been hailed as the new Middle East This book offers a thorough assessment of its energy resources and the nature of the international politics that surround them This volume presents a unique study of the various dimensions of Caspian energy ranging from the geopolitical to the economic technical religious and political The Economics of Regional Security Jurgen Brauer, Keith Hartley, 2013-03-07 This important book explores the threats and challenges to regional security for Nato in the Mediterranean and in the sub Saharan countries namely southern Africa Written and edited by leading researchers the volume s significance lies in its demonstration of how concepts from economics and other social science disciplines can be applied to important issues of defence conflict and peace at the regional level West Africa's Trouble Spots and the Imperative for Peace-Building Osita Agbu, 2007-10-15 This monograph highlights the necessity for taking preventive measures in the form of peace building as a sustainable and long term solution to conflicts in West Africa with a special focus on the Mano River Union countries Apart from the Mano River Union countries efforts at resolving other conflicts in say Guinea Bissau Senegal Cote d'Ivoire and Nigeria have suffered from a lack of attention on the post conflict imperatives of building peace in order to ensure that sustainable peace is achieved Given the often intractable and inter related nature of conflicts in this region it argues for the need to revisit the existing mechanisms of conflict resolution in the sub region with a view to canvassing a stronger case for stakeholders towards adopting the peace building strategy as a more practical and sustainable way of avoiding wars in the sub region Peace building in consonance with its infrastructure is a more sustainable approach to ensuring regional peace and stability and therefore ensuring development for the peoples of West Africa Dr Osita Agbu is currently a Senior Research Fellow at the Nigerian Institute of International Affairs Lagos His areas of specialization include Peace and Conflict studies Governance and Democratization and Technology and Development He was until recently a Visiting Research Fellow at the Institute of Developing Economies Chiba Japan Earth at Risk in the 21st Century: Rethinking Peace, Environment, Gender, and Human, Water, Health, Food, Energy Security, and Migration Úrsula Oswald Spring, 2020-04-03 Earth at Risk in the 21st Century offers critical interdisciplinary reflections on peace security gender relations migration and the environment all of which are threatened by climate change with women and children affected most Deep rooted gender discrimination is also a result of the destructive exploitation of natural resources and the pollution of soils water biota and air In the Anthropocene the management of human society and global resources has become unsustainable and has created multiple conflicts by increasing survival threats primarily for poor people in the Global South Alternative approaches to peace and security focusing from bottom up on an engendered peace with sustainability may help society and the environment to be managed in the highly fragile natural conditions of a hothouse Earth Thus the book explores systemic alternatives based on indigenous wisdom gift economy and the economy of solidarity in which an alternative cosmovision fosters mutual care between humankind and nature Special analysis of risks to the survival of humankind in the 21st century Interdisciplinary studies on peace security gender and environment related to global environmental and climate change Critical reflections on gender relations peace security migration and the environment Systematic analysis of food water health energy security and its nexus Alternative proposals from the Global South with indigenous wisdom for saving Mother Earth
