Seeing When Art And Faith Intersect:

Seeing Douglas Gourley Campbell, 2002 Seeing consists of twenty brief essays about the role of contemporary artists of faith their audience and Christianity These essays bring to discussion topics from postmodernism authenticity and iconoclasm to individualism beauty and truth Each essay focuses on issues that relate to how artists of faith approach their thinking about art how viewers can enhance their experience of artworks and the relationship between Postmodernism and Christianity Campbell explores within the current Postmodernist environment how art and Christianity can be discussed in the present tense and how Art by Contemporary Christians is now a topic for serious discussion that cannot be dismissed as merely an oxymoron These essays bring to discussion issues that have been ignored by mainstream art publications

Rethinking Religion in the Theatre of Grotowski Catharine Christof, 2017-03-27 This book opens a new interdisciplinary frontier between religion and theatre studies to illuminate what has been seen as the religious or spiritual nature of Polish theatre director Jerzy Grotowski's work The central argument is that through an embodied materialist approach to religion and through a critical reading of the concepts of the New Age a new understanding of Grotowski and religion can be developed This is a vital reference for academics in both Religion and Theatre Studies that have an interest in the spiritual aspects of Grotowski's work

God in the Gallery (Cultural Exegesis) Daniel A. Siedell, 2008-10-01 Is contemporary art a friend or foe of Christianity Art historian critic and curator Daniel Siedell addresses this question and presents a framework for interpreting art from a Christian worldview in God in the Gallery A Christian Embrace of Modern Art As such it is an excellent companion to Francis Schaeffer's classic Art and the Bible Divided into three parts Theology History and Practice God in the Gallery demonstrates that art is in conversation with and not opposed to the Christian faith In addition this book is beautifully enhanced with images from such artists as Andy Warhol Jackson Pollock Enrique Mart nez Celaya and others Readers of this book will include professors students artists and anyone interested in Christianity and culture

Eliot's Dark Angel : Intersections of Life and Art Ronald Schuchard Goodrich C. White Professor of English Emory University, 1999-09-13 Schuchard's critical study draws upon previously unpublished and uncollected materials in showing how Eliot's personal voice works through the sordid the bawdy the blasphemous and the horrific to create a unique moral world and the only theory of moral criticism in English literature The book also erodes conventional attitudes toward Eliot's intellectual and spiritual development showing how early and consistently his classical and religious sensibility manifests itself in his poetry and criticism The book examines his reading his teaching his bawdy poems and his life long attraction to music halls and other modes of popular culture to show the complex relation between intellectual biography and art

The Human Mosaic: Intersections of Art, Culture, and Social Insight Dr. (Mrs.) Peri Jayalakshmi, Dr. Ebrahim Ali Mondal, 2025-09-02 The Human Mosaic Intersections of Art Culture and Social Insight ISBN 978 93 92760 80 8 edited by Dr P Jayalakshmi and Dr Ebrahim Ali Mondal explores how art culture and human values shape societies This edited volume

Miracles We Have Seen Harley Rotbart, 2016-09-13 This is a book of miracles medical events witnessed by leading physicians for which there is no reasonable medical explanation or if there is the explanation itself is extraordinary These dramatic first person essays detail spectacular serendipities impossible cures breathtaking resuscitations extraordinary awakenings and recovery from unimaginable disasters Still other essays give voice to cases in which the physical aspects were less dramatic than the emotional aspects yet miraculous and transformational for everyone involved Positive impacts left in the wake of even the gravest of tragedies profound triumphs of heart and spirit Preeminent physicians in many specialties including deans and department heads on the faculties of the top university medical schools in the country describe in everyday language and with moving testimony their very personal reactions to these remarkable clinical experiences Among the extraordinary cases poignantly recounted by the physicians witnessing them A priest visiting a hospitalized patient went into cardiac arrest on the elevator which opened up on the cardiac floor right at the foot of the cardiac specialist at just the right moment A tiny premature baby dying from irreversible lung disease despite the most intensive care who recovered almost immediately after being taken from his hospital bed and placed on his mother's chest President John F Kennedy's son Patrick who died shortly after birth and whose disease eventually led to research that saved generations of babies A nine year old boy who was decapitated in a horrific car accident but survived without neurological damage A woman who conceived and delivered a healthy baby despite having had both of her fallopian tubes surgically removed A young man whose only hope for survival was a heart transplant but just at the moment he developed a potentially fatal complication making a transplant impossible his own heart began healing itself A teenage girl near death after contracting full blown rabies who became the first patient ever to recover from that disease after an unexpected visit by Timothy Dolan the man who would go on to become the Archbishop of New York A Manhattan window washer who fell 47 stories and not only became the only person ever to survive a fall from that height but went on to make a full recovery Miracles We Have Seen is a book of inspiration and optimism and a compelling glimpse into the lives of physicians their humanity and determined devotion to their patients and their patients families It reminds us that what we don't know or don't understand isn't necessarily cause for fear and can even be reason for hope

Sacred and Secular Intersections in Music of the Long Nineteenth Century Eftychia Papanikolaou, Markus Rathey, 2022-06-21 Sacred and Secular Intersections in Music of the Long Nineteenth Century Church Stage and Concert Hall explores interconnections of the sacred and the secular in music and aesthetic debates of the long nineteenth century

The essays in this volume view the category of the sacred not as a monolithic attribute that applies only to music written for and performed in a religious ritual. Rather, the sacred is viewed as a functional as well as a topical category that enhances the discourse of cross pollination of musical vocabularies between sacred and secular compositions, church and concert music. Using a variety of methodological approaches, the contributors articulate how sacred and religious identities coalesce, reconcile, fuse or intersect in works from the long nineteenth century that traverse an array of genres and compositional styles. Christian Scholar's Review, 2004

ReVisioning James Romaine, Linda Stratford, 2014-05-20 ReVisioning Critical Methods of Seeing Christianity in the History of Art examines the application of art historical methods to the history of Christianity and art. As methods of art history have become more interdisciplinary, there has been a notable emergence of discussions of religion in art history as well as related fields such as visual culture and theology. This book represents the first critical examination of scholarly methodologies applied to the study of Christian subjects, themes and contexts in art. ReVisioning contains original work from a range of scholars, each of whom has addressed the question in regard to a well known work of art or body of work: How have particular methods of art history been applied and with what effect? The study moves from the third century to the present, providing extensive treatment and analysis of art historical methods applied to the history of Christianity and art. Intersections of Contemporary Art, Anthropology and Art History in South Asia Sasanka Perera, Dev Nath Pathak, 2019-02-23 Taking South Asia as its focus, this wide ranging collection probes the general reluctance of the cultural anthropology to engage with contemporary visual art and artists, including painting, sculpture, performance art and installation. Through case studies engaged equally in anthropology and visual studies, contributors examine art and artistic production in India, Sri Lanka, Pakistan, Bangladesh and Nepal to bring the social and political complexities of artistic practice to the fore. Demonstrating the potential of the visual as a means to understand a society, its values and its politics, this volume ranges across discourses of anthropology, sociology, biography, memory, art history and contemporary practices of visual art. Ultimately, Intersections of Contemporary Art, Anthropology and Art History in South Asia simultaneously expands and challenges the disciplinary foci of two fields: it demonstrates to art criticism and art history the necessity of anthropological and sociological methodologies and theories, while at the same time challenging the iconophobia of social sciences.

Meet Me at the Intersection Rebecca Lim, Ambelin Kwaymullina, 2018-09-01 Meet Me at the Intersection is an anthology of short fiction, memoir and poetry by authors who are First Nations People of Color, LGBTIQ or living with disability. The focus of the anthology is on Australian life as seen through each author's unique and seldom heard perspective. With works by Ellen van Neerven, Graham Akhurst, Kyle Lynch, Ezekiel Kwaymullina, Olivia Muscat, Mimi Lee, Jessica Walton, Kelly Gardiner, Rafeif Ismail, Yvette Walker, Amra Pajalic, Melanie Rodriga, Omar Sakr, Wendy Chen, Jordi Kerr, Rebecca Lim, Michelle Aung Thin and Alice Pung, this anthology is designed to challenge the dominant homogenous story of privilege and power that rarely admits outsider voices. The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Religion Peter Clarke, 2011-02-04 The

Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Religion draws on the expertise of an international team of scholars providing both an entry point into the sociological study and understanding of religion and an in depth survey into its changing forms and content in the contemporary world The role and impact of religion and spirituality on the politics culture education and health in the modern world is rigorously discussed and debated The study of the sociology of religion forges interdisciplinary links to explore aspects of continuity and change in the contemporary interface between society and religion Using a combination of theoretical methodological and content led approaches the fifty seven contributors collectively emphasise the complex relationships between religion and aspects of life from scientific research to law ecology to art music to cognitive science crime to institutional health care and more The developing character of religion irreligion and atheism and the impact of religious diversity on social cohesion are explored An overview of current scholarship in the field is provided in each themed chapter with an emphasis on encouraging new thinking and reflection on familiar and emergent themes to stimulate further debate and scholarship The resulting essay collection provides an invaluable resource for research and teaching in this diverse discipline

T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God s glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality

Creativity, Religion and Youth Cultures Anne M. Harris, 2016-10-04. This book explores the rich intersection between faith, religion, and performing arts in culture-based youth groups. The co-constitutive identity-building work of music performance and drama for Samoan and Sudanese youth in church contexts has given rise to new considerations of diversity, cultural identity, and the religious practices and rituals that inform them. For these young people, their culture-specific churches provide a safe, if imagined, community. Anderson (2006) in which they can express these emerging identities, which move beyond simple framings like multicultural, to explicitly include faith practices. These identities emerge in combination with popular cultural art forms like hip hop, R&B, and gospel music traditions and performance influences drawn from American, British, and European popular cultural forms, including fashion, reality television, social media, gaming, and online video sharing. The book also examines the ways in which diasporic experiences are reshaping these cultural and gendered identities and locations.

RiverSedge, 2001. Religion and Art in the Heart of Modern Manhattan Aaron Rosen, 2017-07-28. When you're in New York, the sculptor Louise Nevelson once said, you're in perpetual resurrection. She might have said the same thing about St. Peter's Lutheran Church, set in the heart of midtown Manhattan. In the 1970s, the church made a radical move, scrapping its neo-gothic building for a sleek, modern structure in the shadow of a skyscraper. The transformation was not just architectural. Inside, Nevelson created a shimmering chapel, while over the years, artists and designers such as Willem de Kooning, Kiki Smith, and Massimo and Lella Vignelli produced works for the sanctuary. This fusion of modern art, architecture, and design was complemented by an innovative jazz ministry, including funerals for Billy Strayhorn and John Coltrane, and performances by Duke Ellington and other jazz legends. For the first time, this volume examines the astounding cultural output of this single church Just as importantly the story of St Peter s serves as a springboard for wider reflections on the challenges and possibilities which arise when religion and art intersect in the modern city Working from a wide range of disciplines including art history theology musicology and cultural studies a distinguished group of scholars demonstrate that this church at the center of New York City deserves an equally central place in contemporary scholarship
