Seen and Not Heard Katie May Green, 2014-10-01 In a big old house up creaky stairs in a silent little nursery full of dolls and teddy bears you'll find the children of Shiverhawk Hall They're children in pictures on the wall seen and not heard So begins the story where we meet dainty little Lily Pinksweet the Plumseys clever Billy Fitzbillian kind Percy and the De Villechild twins who are perfect angels They all look so sweet and good just like children should but when night time comes and there's no one to see the children climb out from the quiet of their picture frames and they run riot and they run free

Seen but Not Heard Christobel Mattingley, 2014-04-01 Lilian Medland has not received until now the recognition she deserves as a painter of birds Due to world events and circumstances five important books on birds containing her superb illustrations were never published Despite such major disappointments she continued to devote her time and talent to painting first the birds of the British Isles and later those of Australia her adopted country where she died in 1955 Even now she is not mentioned in the Australian Dictionary of Biography in her own right but only in the entry for her husband ornithologist Tom Iredale Seen but Not Heard is the first publication to shine a light on the life and work of this much overlooked but brilliant Australian natural history artist

Seen and Heard Ellen Lynn Hall, Jennifer Kofkin Rudkin, 2011-01-13 Using examples from a Reggio inspired school with children from ages 6 weeks to 6 years the authors emphasize the importance of children's rights and our responsibility as adults to hear their voices Seen and Heard summarizes research and theory pertaining to young children's rights in the United States and offers strategies educators can use to ensure the inclusion of children's perspectives in everyday decisions Real life classroom vignettes illustrate how young children perceive the idea of rights through observation and discussion The authors work is based on these essential ideas 1 the one hundred languages children use for exploring discovering constructing representing and conveying their ideas 2 the pedagogy of listening in which children and adults carefully attend to the world and to one another 3 the notion that all children have the right to participate in the communities in which they reside
