Los Versos Del Capitan Mex:

The Cambridge History of Latin American Literature Roberto Gonzalez Echevarría, Enrique Pupo-Walker, 1996-09-19
The Cambridge History of Latin American Literature is by far the most comprehensive work of its kind ever written. Its three volumes cover the whole sweep of Latin American literature including Brazilian from pre-Colombian times to the present and contain chapters on Latin American writing in the USA. Volume 3 is devoted partly to the history of Brazilian literature from the earliest writing through the colonial period and the Portuguese language traditions of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and partly also to an extensive bibliographical section in which annotated reading lists relating to the chapters in all three volumes of The Cambridge History of Latin American Literature are presented. These bibliographies are a unique feature of the History further enhancing its immense value as a reference work. Celluloid Nationalism and Other Melodramas Susan Dever, 2012-02-01 Celluloid Nationalism and Other Melodramas looks at representation and rebellion in times of national uncertainty. Moving from mid-century Mexican cinema to recent films staged in Los Angeles and Mexico City, Susan Dever analyzes melodrama's double function as a genre and as a sensibility revealing coincidences between movie morals and political pieties in the civic-minded films of Emilio Fernández, Matilde Landeta, Allison Anders, and Marcela Fernández de la Mora. These filmmakers rationally and emotionally engaged cinema offering representations of indigenous peoples and poor urban women who alternately endorsed civilizing projects and voiced resistance to such totalization both interrupting and sustaining fictions of national coherence in an increasingly transnational world. Surveillance, the Cold War, and Latin American Literature Daniel Noemi Voionmaa, 2022-08-25 Analyzes spy reports on writers from Gabriel García Márquez to José Revueltas alongside their writings in Latin America's Cold War. Verses Against the Darkness Greg Dawes, 2006 Verses Against the Darkness offers a new assessment of Pablo Neruda's poetry by looking at the intersection of his aesthetic method and political radicalism from 1925 to 1954. It challenges the canonical view that Neruda was a gifted verse maker who in 1936 let himself be carried away by the excesses of communist politics. Instead by focusing primarily on Tercera residencia 1935-1945, Greg Dawes argues for an uneven yet steady evolution and continuity in Neruda's work, politics, and morality. Dawes relies on historical accounts, biographies, literary history, and criticism and on Neruda's political and aesthetic theory to prove that his poetry became contrary to received critical opinion, more sophisticated literarily and politically as he became more radicalized during the Spanish Civil War and World War II and as he developed his dialectical realism or guided spontaneity. Greg Dawes is Associate Professor of Latin American and World Literatures at North Carolina State University and is the editor of the online journal A contracorriente. Widener Library Shelflist: Latin American literature Harvard University. Library, 1969. Pablo Neruda Marjorie Agosín, 1986 Provides in-depth analysis of the life, works, career, and critical importance of Pablo Neruda. National Union Catalog, 1956 Includes entries for maps and atlases.
