Louise Bourgeois The Space Of Memory:

Anamnesia Peter Collier, Anna Magdalena Elsner, Olga Smith, 2009 Memory has always been crucial to French literature and culture as a means of mediating the relationship between perception and knowledge of the individual coming to terms with his identity in time Relatively recently memory has also emerged as the key force in the creation of a collective consciousness in the wider perspective of French cultural history This collection of essays selected from the proceedings of a seminar on Memory given by Dr Emma Wilson at the University of Cambridge offers a fresh evaluation of memory as both a cultural and an individual phenomenon in modern and contemporary French culture including literature cinema and the visual arts Anamnesia the book's title develops the Aristotelian concept of anamnesis recollection as a dynamic and creative process which includes forgetting as much as remembering concealment as much as imagination Memory in this extremely diverse range of essays is therefore far from being presented as a straightforward process of recalling the past but emerges as the site of research and renegotiation of contradictions and even aporia

Louise Bourgeois Louise Bourgeois, Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofía, 1999 Louise Bourgeois has been on a journey inspired by architecture for six decades from the early realistic drawings of interiors she made upon her arrival in New York in the late 1930s to the plaster Lairs of the 1960s to the Cells and recent commissioned works of the 1990s In her figurative work she has drawn painted printed and sculpted everything from skyscrapers courthouses and greenhouses to labyrinths sanatoriums towers nests and of course the many different houses and buildings she has lived in over the years Throughout her career Bourgeois work has always had a strong and essential autobiographical element and this book illuminates an area of her life that has heavily informed her work in addition to exploring the relationship of her sculpture to architectural forms

Space, Site, Intervention Erika

Suderburg, 2000 From Ferdinand Cheval's Palais Ideal 1879 1905 and Simon Rodia's Watts Towers 1921 1954 to Ant Farm's Cadillac Ranch 1974 and Richard Serra's Tilted Arc 1981 installation art has continually crossed boundaries encompassing sculpture architecture performance and visual art Although unique in its power to transform both the site in which a work is constructed and the viewer's experience of being in a place installation art has not received the critical attention accorded other art forms In Space Site Intervention some of today's most prominent art critics curators and artists view installation art as a diverse multifaceted and international art form that challenges institutional assumptions and narrow conceptual frameworks The contributors discuss installation in relation to the genealogy of modern art community and corporate space multimedia cyberspace public and private ritual the gallery and the museum public and private patronage and political action This ambitious volume focuses on issues of class sexuality cultural identity race and gender and highlights a wide range of artists whose work is often marginalized by mainstream art history and criticism Together the essays in Space Site Intervention investigate how installation resonates within modern culture and society as well as its ongoing influence on contemporary visual culture

Contemporary Art and Memory Joan Gibbons, 2007-12-19 Whether exploring the intimate recollections which make up the artist's own life history or questioning the way the gallery and museum present public memory contemporary art it would seem is haunted by the past Contemporary Art and Memory is the first accessible survey book to explore the subject of memory as it appears in its many guises in contemporary art Looking at both personal and public memory Gibbons explores art as autobiography the memory as trace the role of the archive revisionist memory and postmemory as well as the absence of memory in oblivion Grounding her discussion in historical precedents Gibbons explores the work of a wide range of international artists including Yinka Shonibare MBE Doris Salcedo Keith Piper Jeremy Deller Judy Chicago Louise Bourgeois Tracey Emin Felix Gonzalez Torres Christian Boltanski Janet Cardiff Bill Fontana Pierre Huyghe Susan Hiller Japanese photographer Miyako Ishiuchi and new media artist George Legrady Contemporary Art and Memory will be indispensable to all those concerned with the ways in which artists represent and remember the past

Feminist Visual Culture Fiona Carson, Claire Pajackowska, 2016-05-06 Visual culture is all around us television dance film fashion painting sculpture installation and fine art are only a few of its many faces Feminist Visual Culture looks at feminist theory the role of women and the contribution of women artists to the world of visual culture This substantial introduction provides an overview of visual culture and of the origins of feminist practice In the volume's three sections Fine Art Design and Mass Media the authors discuss the visual media specific to that area incorporating wider issues such as class culture and ethnicity Each chapter is written by a woman working in a different field of visual culture A topical and comprehensive introduction Feminist Visual Culture will be a valuable tool for readers and students in women's studies visual studies and media studies

Childhood as Memory, Myth and Metaphor Catherine Crimp, 2017-12-02 A fascination with childhood unites the artist Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 and the writers Samuel Beckett 1906 89 and Marcel Proust

1871 1922 But while many commentators have traced their childhood images back to memories of lived experiences there is more to their mythologies of childhood that waits to be explored They invite us to move away from familiar ideas whether psychological or biographical about what a child can represent and even what a child is The haunting child figures of Bourgeois Beckett and Proust echo each other as they show how imagining origins for a life for a work of art involves paradoxes that test the limits of our forms of expression Art meets literature profusion meets concision French meets English and images of childhood reveal new insights in this encounter between three great figures of twentieth and twenty first century culture Catherine Crimp holds a PhD from the University of Cambridge and is currently Lectrice d anglais at theEcole Normale Superieure de Lyon

The Embodied Image Juhani Pallasmaa,2011-05-16 The Embodied Image The Embodied Image Imagination and Imagery in Architecture Juhani Pallasmaa All artistic and architectural effects are evoked mediated and experienced through poeticised images These images are embodied and lived experiences that take place in the flesh of the world becoming part of us at the same time that we unconsciously project aspects of ourselves on to a conceived space object or event Artistic images have a life and reality of their own and they develop through unexpected associations rather than rational and causal logic Images are usually thought of as retinal pictures but profound poetic images are multi sensory and they address us in an embodied and emotive manner Architecture is usually analysed and taught as a discipline that articulates space and geometry but the mental impact of architecture arises significantly from its image quality that integrates the various aspects and dimensions of experience into a singular internalised and remembered entity The material reality is fused with our mental and imaginative realm The book is organised into five main parts that look at in turn the image in contemporary culture language thought and the image the many faces of the image the poetic image and finally the architectural image The Embodied Image is illustrated with over sixty images in pairs which are diverse in subject They range from scientific images to historic artistic and architectural masterpieces Artworks span Michelangelo and Vermeer to Gordon Matta Clark and architecture takes in Modern Masters such as Mies van der Rohe Le Corbusier and Alvar Aalto as well as significant contemporary works by Steven Holl and Daniel Libeskind

"Biography, Identity and the Modern Interior " Penny Sparke,2017-07-05 Through a series of case studies from the mid eighteenth century to the start of the twenty first this collection of essays considers the historical insights that ethno auto biographical investigations into the lives of individuals groups and interiors can offer design and architectural historians Established scholars and emerging researchers shed light on the methodological issues that arise from the use of these sources to explore the history of the interior as a site in which everyday life is experienced and performed and the ways in which contemporary architects and interior designers draw on personal and collective histories in their practice Historians and theorists working within a range of disciplinary contexts and historiographical traditions are turning to biography as means of exploring and accounting for social cultural and material change and this volume reflects that turn representing the fields of architectural and design history social history literary history creative writing and design practice Topics include masters and servants in eighteenth century English kitchens the lost interiors of Oscar Wilde s House Beautiful Elsa Schiaparelli s Surrealist spaces Jean Genet outlaws and the interiors of marginality and architect Lina Bo Bardi s Glass House S Paulo Brazil     Concise Dictionary of Women Artists Delia Gaze,2013-04-03 This book includes some 200 complete entries from the award winning Dictionary of Women Artists as well as a selection of introductory essays from the main volume     Material Meanings Matthew S. The Archive of Development Annette W. Balkema,1998 In the current debate on art thought on time has commanded a prominent position Do we live in a posthistorical time Has objective art historical time and belief in a continual progress shifted to a more subjective experience of the ephemeral Has art history fallen away and if so what does this mean for the future of art How does a visual archive relate to artistic memory This volume investigates positions arguments and comments regarding the stated theme Philosophers and theorists explore the subject matter theoretically Curators articulate the practice of art The participants are Hans Belting Jan Bor Peter B rger Bart Cassiman Leontine Coelewijn Hubert Damisch Arthur C Danto Bart De Baere Okwui Enwezor Kasper K nig Sven L tticken Manifesta Barbara VanderLinden Hans Ulrich Obrist Donald Preziosi Survival of the Past Project Herman Parret Lex Ter Braak Camiel Van Winkel Ernst Van Alphen Kirk Varnedoe Gianni Vattimo and Kees Vuyk     Transsexuality and the Art of Transitioning Oren Gozlan,2014-08-13 Winner of The American Board and Academy of Psychoanalysis ABAPsa Book Prize for 2015 Transsexuality and the Art of Transitioning A Lacanian approach presents a startling new way to consider psychoanalytic dilemmas of sexual difference and gender through the meeting of arts and the clinic Informed by a Lacanian perspective that locates transsexuality in the intermediate space between the clinic and culture Oren Gozlan joins current conversations around the question of sexual difference with the insistence that identity never fully expresses sexuality and as such cannot be replaced by gender The book goes beyond the idea of gender as an experience that gives rise to multiple identities and instead considers identity as split from the outset This view transforms transsexuality into a particular psychic position able to encounter the paradoxes of transitional experience and the valence of phantasy and affect that accompany aesthetic conflicts over the nature of beauty and being Gozlan brings readers into the enigmatic qualities of representation as desire for completion and transformation through notions of tension difference and aesthetics through examining the artwork of Anish Kapoor and Louise Bourgeois and the role played by confusion in the aesthetics of transformation in literature and memoir Each chapter of the book presents a productive take on understanding the psychoanalytic demand to sustain and consider the dilemma that the unconscious presents to the knowledge and recognition of gender Fundamentally this work understands transsexuality as a creative act rich with desire and danger in which thinking of the transsexual body as both an analytic and a subjective object helps us to reveal the creativity of sexuality Ideal for psychoanalysts psychologists psychiatrists and social workers as well as students of psychoanalysis cultural studies literature studies and philosophy Transsexuality and the Art of Transitioning offers a unique insight into psychoanalytic approaches to transsexuality and the question of assuming a position in gender

Natural History Dioramas Sue Dale Tunnicliffe, Annette Scheerso, 2014-12-05 This book brings together in a unique perspective aspects of natural history dioramas their history construction and rationale interpretation and educational importance from a number of different countries from the west coast of the USA across Europe to China It describes the journey of dioramas from their inception through development to visions of their future A complementary journey is that of visitors and their individual sense making and construction of their understanding from their own starting points often interacting with others e g teachers peers parents as well as media e g labels Dioramas have been hitherto a rather neglected area of museum exhibits but a renaissance is beginning for them and their educational importance in contributing to people s understanding of the natural world This volume showcases how dioramas can reach a wide audience and increase access to biological knowledge

Performing Archives/Archives of Performance Gunhild Borggreen, Rune Gade, 2013-07-12 Performing Archives Archives of Performance contributes to the ongoing critical discussions of performance and its disappearance of the ephemeral and its reproduction of archives and mediatized recordings of liveness The many contributions by excellent scholars and artists from a broad range of interdisciplinary fields as well as from various locations in research geographies demonstrate that despite the extensive discourse on the relationship between performance and the archive inquiry into the productive tensions between ephemerality and permanence is by no means outdated or exhausted New ways of understanding archives history and memory emerge and address theories of enactment and intervention while concepts of performance constantly proliferate and enable a critical focus on archival residue The contributions in Performing Archives Archives of Performance cover philosophical inquiries as well as discussions of specific art works performances and archives Contributions by Heike Roms Amelia Jones Julie Louise Bacon Peter van der Meijden Emma Willis Rivka Syd Eisner Rachel Fensham Sarah Whatley Tracy C Davis Barnaby King Laura Luise Schultz Malene Vest Hansen Mette Sandbye Bodil Marie Stavning Thomsen Margeritha Sprio Annelis Kuhlmann Morten S ndergaard Martha Wilson Catherine Bagnall Paul Clarke Solveig Gade Gunhild Borggreen Rune Gade Louise Wolthers Mathias Danbolt Marco Pustianaz Gunhild Borggreen is Associate Professor at the Department of Arts and Cultural Studies at the University of Copenhagen Rune Gade is Associate Professor at the Department of Arts and Cultural Studies at the University of Copenhagen

Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play Lynn M. Somers, 2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 in light of psychoanalyst D W Winnicott s 1896 1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects potential space and play offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work

Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000 Critical concepts from British object relational theories destruction reparation integration relationality and play drawn from the writings of Winnicott Melanie Klein Marion Milner and Christopher Bollas among others bear upon the decades long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic metaphorical and most importantly useful The book demonstrates how Bourgeois s transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object relations both psychical and tangible and explores Bourgeois s contention that the observer physically engage with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced Each chapter focuses on a key body of work Femme Maison Personages Lairs Janus and Cells examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality reciprocity and ambivalence of our object relationships Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic cultural and psychological encounters Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois s work and that of other artists from Pieter Brueghel to Eva Hesse It brings together practical archival and theoretical material offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis cultural analysis feminist queer literary and affect studies the book extends its specific art historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life Remembering Home in a Time of Mobility Maja Mikula, 2017-06-23 Memory nostalgia and melancholy have attracted considerable scholarly attention in recent decades Numerous critics of globalisation transnationalism and cosmopolitanism have posited an overwhelming feeling of homelessness not only among people who have been displaced from their original home lands but also among those who feel estranged from their places of origin due to rapid social change or environmental decline Arguably homesickness is prevalent in today s developed world and can be and sometimes indeed is felt even for times and places unrelated to someone s personal roots Memory has been mobilised to justify recent conflicts to question mainstream interpretations of past events or to demand compensation for the suffering of earlier generations Nostalgia has been employed as a utopia in reverse revealing more about our unattainable ideal present than about the elusive lost past it invokes A corollary of nostalgia in the late modern politics of loss melancholy has been a way of dis identifying from both the horrors of recent history and the growing insecurities of the present The volume raises complex questions related to the ways people have coped with displacement and time space compression arguably the two most manifest symptoms of late modernity How do we grapple with the traumatic experience of the loss of home What strategies do we use and what is their underlying politics How do they intersect with identity positions such as gender class and sexuality How might they contribute to the preservation of national cultures How has our understanding of home changed in a time of mobility and flow Spanning multiple Eurasian and Northern American cultural contexts the book is of interest to an international academic readership within the fields of cultural studies memory studies gender studies literature art performance film and media studies Defoe and the Dutch

Margaret J-M Sönmez, 2015-10-28 The novels of Daniel Defoe are set in years during which two Anglo Dutch wars were fought a Dutch king took over the English throne and the primacy of the Dutch in Northern European commerce was in the process of being overtaken by the English At the time of these novels publication the geo physical political and cultural achievements of the United Provinces were still remarked upon as extraordinary while so many people had travelled between the two countries that Dutch communities in England and English communities in the United Provinces were unremarkable Defoe's personal professional and political interests lay parallel and very close to stereotypically Dutch affairs such as tolerance of dissenting Christianity the promotion of trade as the source of a country's wealth and Court Whig specifically Williamite interests In spite of this the many Dutch elements in his novels are not always evident and the body of his fiction has not previously been examined from this perspective Defoe and the Dutch Places Things People explores what English readers of seventeenth and early eighteenth century English fiction and non fiction knew about the Dutch what images of the Dutch they were exposed to and what significance these images may have had Against that background it investigates how Dutch elements are used or referred to in nine novels attributed to Daniel Defoe From the ubiquity of Dutch ships and the Dutch bill of exchange to the disallowing of Dutch martial heroism and the exchange of gifts in Dutch weddings images and associations of Dutch places things and people in Defoe's novels are woven into the fabric of the narratives The novels uses of these and many other Dutch motifs or images are shown to avoid crude or negative stereotypes and to be complex subtle and sensitive to the real life events and contexts of the fictions while also participating in a mode of representation that is overridingly emblematic
