Age in Love Jacqueline Vanhoutte, 2019-06 The title Age in Love is taken from Shakespeare's sonnet 138 a poem about an aging male speaker who by virtue of his entanglement with the dark lady vainly performs the role of some untutored youth Jacqueline Vanhoutte argues that this pattern of age in love pervades Shakespeare's mature works informing his experiments in all the dramatic genres Bottom Malvolio Claudius Falstaff and Antony all share with the sonnet speaker a tendency to flout generational decorum by assuming the role of the lover normally reserved in Renaissance culture for young men Hybrids and upstarts cross dressers and shape shifters comic butts and tragic heroes Shakespeare's old men in love turn in boundary blurring performances that probe the gendered and generational categories by which early modern subjects conceived of identity In Age in Love Vanhoutte shows that questions we have come to regard as quintessentially Shakespearean about the limits of social mobility the nature of political authority the transformative powers of the theater the vagaries of human memory or the possibility of secular immortality come to indelible expression through Shakespeare's artful deployment of the age in love trope Age in Love contributes to the ongoing debate about the emergence of a Tudor public sphere building on the current interest in
