Dark Queen Faith Hunter, 2018-05-01 Jane Yellowrock used to hunt vampires but now she must fight and win beside them As Enforcer to the vampire Master of the City of New Orleans Jane Yellowrock stakes her reputation and her life on keeping her territory safe But Leo has been issued a blood challenge by the emperor of the European vampires who seeks to usurp all of his power and possessions If Leo loses the match to the death the city will be forfeit and the people of New Orleans will suffer the consequences Jane can't let that happen Preparing for the duel requires all of Jane's focus but with so much supernatural power in play nothing goes according to plan She has to rely on herself and the very few people she knows she can trust to stand and fight Only two things are guaranteed nothing is sacred and no one is safe Monsters, Monstrosities, and the Monstrous in Culture and Society Diego Compagna, Stefanie Steinhart, 2020-01-28 Existing research on monsters acknowledges the deep impact monsters have especially on Politics Gender Life Sciences Aesthetics and Philosophy From Sigmund Freud's essay The Uncanny to Scott Poole's Monsters in America previous studies offer detailed insights about uncanny and immoral monsters However our anthology wants to overcome these restrictions by bringing together multidisciplinary authors with very different approaches to monsters and setting up variety and increasing diversification of thought as guiding patterns Existing research hints that monsters are embedded in social and scientific exclusionary relationships but very seldom copes with them in detail Erving Goffman's doesn't explicitly talk about monsters in his book Stigma but his study is an exceptional case which shows that monsters are stigmatized by society because of their deviations from norms but they can form groups with fellow monsters and develop techniques for handling their stigma Our book is to be understood as a complement and a further development of previous studies The essays of our anthology pay attention to mechanisms of inequality and exclusion concerning specific historical and present monsters based on their research materials within their specific frameworks in order to create engaging constructive critical and diverse approaches to monsters even utopian visions of a future of societies shared by monsters Our book proposes the usual view that humans look in a horrified way at monsters but adds that monsters can look in a critical and even likewise frightened way at the very societies which stigmatize them Emotions: Transforming Anger, Fear and Pain Marilyn C.
