on the Internet! Edward A. Harris, 2010-10 This book is dedicated to those persons everywhere who seek to find true happiness Especially those who are at the point of giving up but have not tried finding the love of their life on the Internet or have ventured into cyberspace but are frustrated due to the abuse by persons with whom they sought to establish genuine relationships I implore you to take a last stand try a reputable on line relationship service It is my hope that you will get the confidence to go forward believing that it is possible to find loving and respectful individuals in our world today even on the Internet I did not only find the Love of my life on the Internet I found a Family on the Internet It is for this reason that Melody and I have agreed to share our story with the world There are lessons to be learnt from our experiences and the task has been ours to share We Love You Catering Industry Employee, 1922 The Mixer and Server, 1922 The

Grand Tour Diary of Frederica Murray, 1819-1820 Mark Guscini, 2024-01-15 In 1819 the Murray family set out on one of the last Grand Tours before railways forever changed the way people travelled The eldest daughter of the Second Earl of Mansfield Lady Frederica Murray later Stanhope as she married James Hamilton Stanhope the youngest son of the 3rd Earl of Stanhope kept a diary on the tour which this book explores in detail The diary has never been published not even mentioned in any of the Grand Tour literature and is a fascinating and essential look at the Murray Mansfield family and Europe at the time Frederica was a deeply observant traveller and noted down numerous picturesque and historical details

she was also very open and sometimes even cutting in her opinions when she came across something or someone she did not like Frederica's diary shows a very mature 19 year old with clear opinions on art literature and the world around her This book will therefore be interesting for scholars of travel Grand Tours and Regency England and its society as well as anyone with an interest in travel and history
