Words and Music by Myles Gregory

Slowly
N.C.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction marked 'Slowly' and 'N.C.' (No Chords). The key signature is D major (two sharps) and the time signature is 4/4. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand and a more melodic line in the right hand. The score includes various musical notations such as treble and bass clefs, key signatures, time signatures, and dynamic markings like 'Emf' (Emphasis) and 'Cresc' (Crescendo). The lyrics are: 'You a - ban - doned me, ... love don't live ... here a - ny - more. ... Just a va - ca - cy, ... love don't live ... here a - ny - more. ...'.

quietly I know Studying and caressing my dad's hand I knew there was one more important conversation that the voice in my heart insisted upon. Dad I know that this is getting to be really tough for you. If staying here becomes too hard it's okay to let go. During the following few weeks I watched my 89 year old Mom experience a renewed sense of purpose and increased strength as she doted on my dad and met his needs as best she could. Some days were better than others. Most nights were difficult when Dad's heart pain was significantly worse and his level of anxiety escalated. Often my mom would pass the hours by reading to Dad. Although her eyesight was clouding she still managed to read the newspaper column by column or inspirational short stories she found in the stack of magazines beside their bed. Amazingly dawn nearly always brought ease and comfort for them both. And so the nights and days continued.

REFLECTION Difficult subjects sometimes need to be discussed. You might be asked by others to deliver bad news: news of someone's death, a life altering diagnosis or even the necessity for a change in residence. Each conversation carries the potential for unleashed emotions. My advice: No matter how difficult or emotional, don't leave words left unsaid. People, if capable of understanding, deserve information. Often they are much stronger than we realize. Words are powerful. They carry courage, condemnation, reassurance or permission. Choose them wisely as your words may be the ones that bring freedom from pain or suffering. It's tough but I know you can do it and if you listen to that voice inside you will know exactly the right time and the right words.

Dragon Doesn't Live Here Anymore Alan Cohen, 1993-08-03 Very positive and in tune with our needs today. LEO BUSCAGLIA Alan Cohen's story is an inspiration. From his roots as an Orthodox Jew he took a mind expanding tour of the teachings of Jesus, Ram Dass, Zen, Jung, the Esalen Institute and Einstein to name a few. In this extraordinary collection of lyrical, challenging essays, Cohen synthesizes what he has learned from these masters and shares his journey with all of us. He discusses overcoming limitations, creating fulfilling relationships, tuning into the flow of life, transformation, finding a personal path and the greatest gift of all: love. Read it straight through or essay by essay for daily meditations on the mysteries of God, love and the spiritual path.

The United Church of Canada reports closing a congregation a week. The Anglican Church of Canada anticipates closing its last congregation by 2040 and the Roman Catholic Church, Canada's largest religious denomination, reports having closed one fifth of the tradition's 2,500 congregations. God Doesn't Live Here Anymore traces the story of the church in Canada from its far off historical roots in biblical times rise to dominance in medieval Europe role in the colonization of Canada strained relations with Canada's First Nations twentieth century prominence and the church's dramatic decline and loss of influence entering the twenty first century Wood Daly pulls no punches in calling the church to accept responsibility for its own decline while maintaining hope that resurrection is still possible The church as Canadians may know it might disappear but for Christians death has never been the end of the story
