Spaces of Love James H. Olthuis, 2022-06-08 In the twenty first century amid globalized violence rising demagogues and the climate emergency contemporary philosophers and theologians have begun to debate a fundamental question Is our reality the result of the overflowing ever present creativity of Love or the symptom of a traumatic rupture at the heart of all things Drawing on decades of research in postmodern philosophy and experience as a psychotherapist James H Olthuis wades into this discussion to propose a radical ontology of Love without metaphysics In dialogue with philosophers like John D Caputo Slavoj i ek Luce Irigaray and others Olthuis explores issues from divine sovereignty and the problem of evil to trauma and social ethics Experience in therapeutic work informs these investigations rooting them in journeys with individuals on the path to healing Olthuis makes the bold claim that while trauma pain and suffering are significant parts of our human lives nevertheless Love is with us to the very end Creation is a gift that comes with a call to make something of it ourselves a risky task we must take on with the promise that Love will win We are all dancing in the wild spaces of Love ex amore cum amore ad amorem

Love of Life, and Other Stories Jack London,1906      Love Always: Poems of the Flow of Water and Life ,      Multiplying Love Paul W. Chilcote,2023-09-19 A Vision of United Methodist Life Together Our world needs love during these desperate days of radical polarization and division Our United Methodist churches yearn to embrace love more completely because God first loved us Our faith including doctrine is important Christian hope including renewal is important love of God and neighbor is more important Multiplying Love underscores what matters most and stands in contrast to divisive misreadings of essential Methodist teachings Chilcote helps us embrace anew the Wesleyan vision of love of Jesus as central to what we believe and how we live When I finished Multiplying Love I found myself jumping up and down shouting Yes yes yes Gosh do we need this We are at a remaking moment in the church Dr Chilcote beautifully articulates the deeper theological vision that beckons and sustains us Multiplying Love helped me more thoroughly embrace the kind of loving people we are hoping to become That s what it s all about to me and this book nails it Rev Christy Allen Holden co creator of The Channel UMC a new hybrid community of faith christyallenholden Every United Methodist pastor would do well to invite their church council to read Paul Chilcote s brief and powerful Multiplying Love It recalls the power of the Wesleyan approach to the gospel and makes a compelling case for the future of The United Methodist Church I loved this book Rev Adam Hamilton Kansas pastor and author of Wrestling with Doubt Finding Faith      The Road to Komatsubara Steven D. Carter,2020-05-11 Carter attempts to reconstruct the classical reading of renga linked verse using extant rulebooks from the time approximating in every way possible the manner in which it was read in its own time and place The result is a rare glimpse into the literary consciousness of the medieval Japanese that seems paradoxically modern in its insistence on the final indeterminacy of poetic meaning Includes a full translation of the 1501 rulebook along with an annotated translation of a solo renga sequence composed in 1492 by Sh haku s teacher and mentor S gi      Journal Royal Institution of Cornwall,1896

betrayal of her family her employers the Christian church the judicial system and sanctioned abuse by the state and federal governments Lorna stood alone against the world that s until she meets Rod a surfer who sweeps her off her feet Unfortunately their fervent love also feels the smack of betrayal which nearly destroys them both but ultimately they stand united with trust love and loyalty When Rod enlists Lorna becomes an excellent army wife She learns how to compromise because the army must come first She becomes independent and resourceful while her soldier is away supporting him all the way up the ranks to Warrant Officer Rod s postings take Lorna and their two children to Sydney Papua New Guinea Canberra and Melbourne Lorna finds each posting is fraught with its own kind of agony with Papua New Guinea being the worst of all She survives unbelievable traumas which befall her and her family Then she faces the failures of the Australian Defence Force and the Department of Veterans Affairs To the Australian people these two systems appear to be functioning at an optimum for the serving members of the ADF veterans and their families respectively but it only appears that they are Lorna also gives accounts of how the leadership within the Christian community believes it is above the law of the land and how the judicial system aides the church s betrayal of trust In the end Lorna s resilience and strength wins through to overcome the impossible leading her to write this inspiring book      The Echo ,1882
