Poems for the Millennium, Volume Three Jerome Rothenberg, Pierre Joris, Jeffrey C. Robinson, 1995 Global anthology of twentieth century poetry Back cover      Love Poems for the Millennium Peter Johnson, 1998 Poetry Beginning and ending with pieces titled Home and moving through among many other places Key West Cairo Fiesole Istanbul Tex Mex and Sarajevo this collection of 30 prose poems which are at times happily indistinguishable from short short stories chronicles a love affair with Gigi through astonishingly wide ranging world travels LOVE POEMS FOR THE MILLENNIUM is a poet's atlas And as coincidence would have it it happens to be exactly the right tour guide Russell Edson In Paris a white poodle named Gigi begs for a bone in Greenland we learn that in Notre Dame Gigi made a pass at her wrist with a razor in Berlin we are privy to the cry Heal me Doctor Gigi As changeable as the landscape as chameleon like as Gigi herself these poems are a delight of wanderlust and wit Saddlestapled chapbook      Love's Argument, and Other Poems Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler, 1900      Poetry and Poetics in a New Millennium Edward Halsey Foster, 2000 Cultural Writing Interviews POETRY AND POETICS IN A NEW MILLENNIUM follows POSTMODERN POETRY both of them collections of interviews with American experimental poets Three of the interviews from the earlier collection are reprinted here together with six more to suggest the range of the avant garde tradition in contemporary American poetry Includes interviews with Clark Coolidge Theodore Enslin Michael Heller Eileen Myles Alice Notley Maureen Owen Ron Padgett Armand Schwerner Anne Waldman and Lewis Warsh      Love Poems Reginald Chauncey Robbins, 1910      Prose Poetry Paul Hetherington, Cassandra Atherton, 2020-10-13 An engaging and authoritative introduction to an increasingly important and popular literary genre Prose Poetry is the first book of its kind an engaging and authoritative introduction to the history development and features of English language prose poetry an increasingly important and popular literary form that is still too little understood and appreciated Poets and scholars Paul Hetherington and Cassandra Atherton introduce prose poetry's key characteristics chart its evolution from the nineteenth century to the present and discuss many historical and contemporary prose poems that both demonstrate their great diversity around the Anglophone world and show why they represent some of today's most inventive writing A prose poem looks like prose but reads like poetry it lacks the line breaks of other poetic forms but employs poetic techniques such as internal rhyme repetition and compression Prose Poetry explains how this form opens new spaces for writers to create riveting works that reshape the resources of prose while redefining the poetic Discussing prose poetry's precursors including William Wordsworth and Walt Whitman and prose poets such as Charles Simic Russell Edson Lydia Davis and Claudia Rankine the book pays equal attention to male and female prose poets documenting women's essential but frequently unacknowledged contributions to the genre Revealing how prose poetry tests boundaries and challenges conventions to open up new imaginative vistas this is an essential book for all readers students teachers and writers of prose poetry      Apocalypse and Millennium in English Romantic Poetry Morton D. Paley, 1999-10-07 The interrelationship of the ideas of apocalypse and millennium is a dominant concern of British Romanticism The Book of Revelation provides a model of history in which apocalypse is followed by millennium but in their various ways the major Romantic poets Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Byron Keats and Shelley question and even at times undermine the possibility of a successful secularization of this model No matter how confidently the sequence of apocalypse and millennium seems to be affirmed in some of the major works of the period the issue is always in doubt the fear that millennium may not ensue emerges as a significant if often repressed theme in the great works of the period Related to it is the tension in Romantic poetry between conflicting models of history itself history as teleology developing towards end time and millennium and history as purposeless cycle This subject matter is traced through a selection of works by the major poets partly through an exposition of their underlying intellectual traditions and partly through a close examination of the poems themselves The Old Boon, 2001-03-29 Collected essays by noted scholars covering the breadth and influence of Kurt Vonnegut's literature The Prose Poem, 1999 The Transformative Humanities Mikhail Epstein, 2012-09-13 Distinguished scholar Mikhail Epstein offers a re-assessment of the role of the humanities and advocates their constructive potential for the society and intellectual culture of the future In his famous classification of the sciences Francis Bacon not only catalogued those branches of knowledge that already existed in his time but also anticipated the new disciplines he believed would emerge in the future the desirable sciences In this open access publication Mikhail Epstein echoes in part Bacon's vision and outlines the desirable disciplines and methodologies that may emerge in the humanities in response to the new realities of the twenty-first century Are the humanities a purely scholarly field or should they have some active constructive supplement We know that technology serves as the practical extension of the natural sciences and politics as the extension of the social sciences Both technology and politics are designed to transform what their respective disciplines study objectively The Transformative Humanities A Manifesto addresses the question Is there any activity in the humanities that would correspond to the transformative status of technology and politics It argues that we need a practical branch of the humanities which functions similarly to technology and politics but is specific to the cultural domain The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4 0 license on bloomsburycollections com      Turkish Nomad Jayne L. Warner,2017-11-13 Here Jayne L Warner has created a unique biographical tapestry that illuminates not only the life of one of Turkey s leading literary and cultural authorities but also the emergence of a republic in his native country and sheds new light on the history of one of the world s great cities Sumptuously illustrated throughout with evocative period pictures of Istanbul Turkish Nomad tells the extraordinary life story of this poet thinker and diplomat As a young boy Halman surveyed the last vestiges of the Ottoman Empire walked through the ruins of Byzantium and grew up in the modern nation created by the charismatic Mustafa Kemal Atatürk Talat S Halman would go on to serve the republic as its first minister of culture The more than four decades Halman lived primarily in the United States are not overlooked but are used to discuss how his ideas developed as he taught at leading unversities Princeton Columbia New York University and introduced Americans to Turkish literature and culture through his translations and public lectures We In the Turkish Nomad we follow the literary scholastic and journalistic journey of a restless writer who might best be described by the title of one of his books The Turkish Muse his 2006 collection of literary reviews tracing the development of Turkish literature during the Turkish Republic      Dictionary of the Old Testament: Wisdom, Poetry & Writings Tremper Longman III,Peter Enns,2008-06-06 Tremper Longman III and Peter E Enns edit this collection of 148 articles by over 90 contributors on Job Psalms Proverbs Ecclesiastes Song of Songs Lamentations Ruth and Esther      Living with Concepts Andrew Brandel,Marco Motta,2021-06-15 This volume examines an often taken for granted concept that of the concept itself How do we picture what concepts are what they do how they arise in the course of everyday life Challenging conventional approaches that treat concepts as mere tools at our disposal for analysis or as straightforwardly equivalent to signs to be deciphered the anthropologists and philosophers in this volume turn instead to the ways concepts are already intrinsically embedded in our forms of life and how they constitute the very substrate of our existence as humans who lead lives in language Attending to our ordinary lives with concepts requires not an ascent from the rough ground of reality into the skies of theory but rather acceptance of the fact that thinking is congenital to living with and through concepts The volume offers a critical and timely intervention into both contemporary philosophy and anthropological theory by unsettling the distinction between thought and reality that continues to be too often assumed and showing how the supposed need to grasp reality may be replaced by an acknowledgement that we are in its grip Contributors Jocelyn Benoist Andrew Brandel Michael Cordey Veena Das Rasmus Dyring and Thomas Schwarz Wentzer Michael D Jackson Michael Lambek Sandra Laugier Marco Motta Michael J Puett and Lotte Buch Segal      The Best of the Prose Poem Peter Johnson,2000 Since its inception in 1992 The Prose Poem has published work which even the writers themselves cannot define without restoring the metaphor Russell Edson likens prose poems to cast iron aeroplanes that can actually fly while Charles Simic states that writing them is like trying to catch a fly in a dark room The fly probably isn't even there You keep tripping over and bumping into things in hot pursuit Nonetheless Johnson knows a prose poem when he reads one Better still he recognises a good one and has included many of them here Nightingales and Pleasure Gardens Talat S.
