Raymond B. Lech,2011-09-29 In 1952 during the Korean War Colonel Frank H Schwable became the second highest ranking officer held as a prisoner of war by the Communists His captivity was marked by months of physical and psychological torture that resulted in a signed confession asserting that the United States had used germ warfare on Korean civilians This serious allegation reverberated throughout the American media with devastating consequences to Col Schwable s reputation Once he was released an official Marine Corps inquiry was made into his false confession and uncovered the effect psychological torture had on a distinguished and decorated officer s actions Occupations Directory, California
