Arts for Change Beverly Naidus, 2009-04-01 Arts for Change presents strategies and theory for teaching socially engaged art with an historical and contemporary overview of the field The book features interviews with over thirty maverick artists faculty from colleges and universities in the United States Canada and Great Britain whose pedagogy is drawn from and informs activist arts practice The issues these teaching artists address are provocative and diverse Some came to this work through personal healing from injustice and trauma or by witnessing oppressions that became intolerable Many have taught for decades deeply influenced by social movements of the 1960s and 1970s yet because the work is controversial tenured positions are rare

Art Education as a Radical Act Sara Torres-Vega, Wendy Woon, 2024-05-20
This comprehensive volume highlights and centers untold histories of education at the Museum of Modern Art MoMA from 1937 to 2020 using the critical voices of artists scholars designers and educators Exploring these histories as transformative and paradigm shifting in museum education it elevates MoMA educators as vocal advocates for harnessing the educational power that museums inherently possess Divided into three interlinked parts the first sheds light on the early educational endeavors of the museum while analyzing the context of art education in the United States The second part focuses on the tenures of Victor D Amico and Betty Blayton utilizing the MoMA archives as a primary resource It includes essays by Ellen Winner Luis Camnitzer Susan E Cahan Michelle Millar Fisher HECTOR Jae Shin Damon Rich Gregory Sholette Carol Duncan Moreen Maser Nana Adusei Poku Carmen M rsch Rika Burnham Donna M Jones and Jos Ortiz The third part presents the perspectives of William Burback Philip Yenawine Patterson Sims Deborah F Schwartz and Wendy Woon as former MoMA Directors of Education in their own words and considers the forces that shaped their work This timely and unique exploration ultimately aims to trace and understand the fundamental and evolving concerns of a seemingly underexamined profession constantly striving to maintain relevance in an environment marked by institutional social and political uncertainty Exploring the radical acts undertaken to keep the museum true to its original promise it delineates the paradox whereby education is both central and invisible to the identity of MoMA and museums more broadly and re centers the conception of the museum as an educational institution It is designed for scholars researchers and post graduate students interested in arts education visual literacy museum studies and communication studies

Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltomäki, 2014-02-14 The first book length study of this influential artist's work focusing on the participatory role of the human subject rather than the art object Michael Asher doesn't make typical installations Instead he extracts his art from the institutions in which it is shown culling it from collections histories or museums own walls Since the late 1960s Asher has been creating situations that have not only taught us about the conditions and contexts of contemporary art but have worked to define it In Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltomäki examines Asher's practice by analyzing the social situations that the artist constructs in his work for viewers participants and institutional representatives including gallery directors curators and other museum staff members Drawing on art criticism the reports of viewers and participants in Asher's projects and the artist's own archives Peltomäki offers a comprehensive account of Asher's work over the past four decades Because of the intensely site specific nature of this work as well as the artist's refusal to reconstruct past works or mount retrospectives many of the projects Peltomäki discusses are described here for the first time By emphasizing the social and psychological sites of art rather than the production of autonomous art objects Peltomäki argues Asher constructs experientially complex situations that profoundly affect those who encounter them bringing about both personal and institutional transformation

Understanding Art Education Nicholas Addison, Lesley Burgess, John Steers, Jane Trowell, 2010-01-04 What is distinctive about art and design as a subject in secondary schools What contribution does it make to the wider curriculum How can art and design develop the agency of young people Understanding Art Education examines the theory and practice of helping young people learn in and beyond the secondary classroom It provides guidance and stimulation for ways of thinking about art and design when preparing to teach and provides a framework within which teachers can locate their own experiences and beliefs Designed to complement the core textbook Learning to Teach Art and Design in the Secondary School which offers pragmatic approaches for trainee and newly qualified teachers this book suggests ways in which art and design teachers can engage reflexively with their continuing practice Experts in the field explore The histories of art and design education and their relationship to wider social and cultural developments Creativity as a foundation for learning Engaging with contemporary practice in partnership with external agencies The role of assessment in evaluating creative and collaborative practices Interdisciplinary approaches to art and design Developing dialogue as a means to address citizenship and global issues in art and design education Understanding Art Education will be of interest to all students and practising teachers particularly those studying at M Level as well as teacher educators and researchers who wish to reflect on their identity as an artist and teacher and the ways in which the subject can inform and contribute to education and society more widely
