Magisterium Francis A. Sullivan SJ, 2002-09-30 A striking series of events of the past two decades have tended to raise questions about the exercise of teaching authority in the Catholic Church The Second Vatican Council the Encyclical Humanae Vitae the controversy over Hans Kung's book on infallibility and the subsequent declaration of Rome that he could no longer teach as a Catholic theologian the colloquium to which Edward Schillebeeckx was summoned by the Vatican the pastoral letter of the American bishops on the question of nuclear warfare have all stimulated a lively discussion of the claims of the Catholic hierarchy to authoritative magisterium With all the abundance of literature on the subject a book was still needed that would offer an up to date systematic presentation of Catholic thinking about the nature and function of this magisterium This is what the present volume sets out to provide It takes as its point of departure the belief which a great many Christians besides Catholics share namely that the Church of Christ is maintained in the truth of the Gospel by the Holy Spirit It then examines the various ministries by which the Gospel has been handed on and interpreted for each generation of believers looking especially to the role of the bishops and among them of the Bishop of Rome in settling disputes about the faith Questions concerning papal infallibility the response called for by papal encyclicals the critical role of Catholic theologians vis a vis the magisterium are treated in the light of current theological literature with the non specialist reader in mind

Magisterium Francis Aloysius Sullivan, 1985      Magisterium Francis Alfred Sullivan, 1983      Magisterium: Teaching authority in the Catholic Church, 1985      Teaching with Authority Richard R. Gaillardetz, 1997 This book faithfully represents the teaching of Roman Catholicism on the Church's doctrinal authority while pointing to areas where there remains a gap between an ecclesiological vision of the Church informed by Vatican II and the popular understanding and concrete exercise of that authority in the life of the Church today      By What Authority? Richard R.

Gaillardetz, 2017-06-07 Authority is exercised in many ways and forms in the Catholic Church today By What Authority offers a helpful introduction to the forms of Church authority that are concerned with authentic Christian belief Gaillardetz G l r d explains what it means to say that the Bible is inspired how Scripture and tradition are related to one another the role of the Pope and bishops in preserving the Christian faith the levels of Church teaching authority how to deal with disagreements with Church teaching the distinctive role of the theologians and the contribution of all the baptized in the formation of Church teaching This book introduces readers to a basic understanding of the nature and exercise of authority in the Catholic Church as understood within the Vision of the Church offered by the Second Vatican Council The chapters conclude by outlining disputed issues regarding the topic of that chapter and a select list of opportunities for further reading Chapters in Part One The Authority of Scripture and Tradition are What Does It Mean to Say the Bible is Inspired What Is the Canon of the Bible and What Is the Relationship Between Scripture and Tradition Chapters in Part Two The Authority of Church Teaching and the Church's Teaching Office are How Do We Understand the Magisterium Today How Do the Pope and Bishops Exercise Their Teaching Authority and What Is Dogma and Doctrine Chapters in Part Three The Authority of the Believer and the Believing Community are What Is the Sense of the Faithful Is There a Place for Disagreement in the Catholic Church and What Is the Proper Relationship Between the Magisterium and Theologians      Authority in the Church David J. Stagaman, 1999 What is the source of authority when it is found in any community How did authority in the Roman Catholic Church come to be as it is In Authority in the Church David Stagaman provides answers to these questions He asserts that authority is not an attribute of a person for example the local bishop nor of a thing for example the Scriptures It is rather the bond experienced by all members of a community as they interact Authority in the Church explores relationships between official and charismatic authority and their legitimation The study also provides a basis for dissent by showing how official and charismatic exercises of authority are incomplete without it Chapter one explores how Roman Catholic Church membership has in the last fifty years shifted from an almost total preoccupation with official authority to a recognition of the necessary role charismatic authorities play in the Church Chapter two criticizes other studies that delineate authority as either a subjective reality or an objective one It also critiques two modern myths about authority that authority is opposed to sound reasoning and that it is inimical to freedom and or spontaneity Chapter three examines authority as a shared practice one that welcomes dissent Chapter four looks at the first millennium of Christianity New Testament understandings of authority the ascendance of mono episcopacy in the post apostolic era the Church's universalist mission after Constantine's edict of toleration the emergence of councils and synods as modes of government and claims for succession to Petrine primacy Chapter five begins with the turn towards centralization in Rome and a juridical understanding of ecclesial authority in the eleventh century It also notes various challenges to these two tendencies and the Avignon Schism as well as Conciliarism which brought the conflicts to their culmination in the Medieval Ages Chapter six inquires what makes Church authority Christian and then Roman Catholic It concludes with observations on the religious freedom of the baptized especially their right to speak freely in the Church Chapters are Authority in the Church A Central Issue and Some Other Issues What Authority Secular or Religious Is Not What Is Authority The First Millennium The Second Millennium and The Conclusion

Church Teaching Authority John P. Boyle, 1995 Boyle presents here the first book length study that traces the historical and theological developments that produced official statements by the church about its own teaching authority and the assent owed to it especially in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Francis A. Sullivan, S.J. and Ecclesiological Hermeneutics Michael M. Canaris, 2016-09-27 In Francis A Sullivan S J and Ecclesiological Hermeneutics Canaris traces the significant contributions that Francis A Sullivan S J has made to Catholic ecclesiology paying particular attention to the method and application of his hermeneutical approach to the writings of the magisterium Though highly esteemed by professional theologians in both Catholic and ecumenical circles Sullivan is less well known among general audiences than many of his peers The author addresses this lacuna by arguing that Sullivan s work when viewed through an interpretive lens can aid the faithful to engage seriously with magisterial texts of various genres and levels of authority find meaning within them and encourage an active reception process whereby contemporary understanding of the teaching and learning role of the entire church becomes possible
