Magistrates Decision Making In Child Protection Cases:

Magistrates' Decision-Making in Child Protection Cases Rosemary Sheehan, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2001 Making decisions about the care and protection of children who appear before the courts is complex Attention must be paid to the best interests of the child the child's need for their family community views on parenting and concern about welfare intrusion into family life Magistrates have a unique authority to make or reject child protection orders yet the criteria they use to decide a protection order how they understand the information presented to them in court and the factors that influence their discretion and decision making have until now been little known Presenting the findings of a study undertaken at Melbourne Children's Court this book offers a much needed investigation of how magistrates actually make child protection decisions Case examples highlight this decision making and the book thus offers practical assistance to professionals working with children in the legal process Decision-Making and Judgment in Child Welfare and Protection

John D. Fluke, Mónica López López, Rami Benbenishty, Erik J. Knorth, Donald J. Baumann, 2020-07-17 Professionals in child welfare and protection are often required to make decisions fraught with many difficulties and shortcomings that have crucial implications for children and families There are many indications that these decisions are frequently unreliable and involve unavoidable errors in judgement due to the uncertainties This book applies much needed insights gleaned from the fields of business and behavioral economics to child welfare practice bridging a critical gap in the child welfare and protection research agenda Australia's Children's Courts Today and Tomorrow Rosemary Sheehan, Allan

Borowski, 2013-04-05 The Children's Court is one of society's most important social institutions At the same time it is steeped in controversy This is in large measure due to the persistence and complexity of the problems with which it deals namely juvenile crime and child abuse and neglect Despite the importance of the Children's Court as a means of holding young people accountable for their anti social behaviour and parents for the care of their children it has not been the subject of close study Certainly it has not been previously studied nationally This book an edited collection is based on the findings of study that spanned the six States and two Territories of Australia The study sought to examine the current challenges faced by the Children's Court and to identify desirable and feasible directions for reform in each State and Territory A further unique feature of this study is that it canvassed the views of judges and magistrates who preside over this court EU

Criminal Justice, Financial & Economic Crime Marc Cools, 2011 This fifth volume of the Governance of Security GofS Research Paper series addresses a wide variety of topical issues focusing on European criminal justice and financial and economic crime The first cluster of articles is concerned with European criminal justice matters particularly relating to EU mutual recognition such as conceptualization unwanted effects in the context of prisoner transfer and sentence execution impact for cross border gathering and use of forensic expert evidence and interrogational fairness standards A second cluster of articles addresses the subjects of financial and economic crime ranging from informal economy among street children to formal informal economy vulnerability of the hotel and catering industry to crime and white collar crime phenomena like transnational environmental crime and corruption A final cluster groups together a variety of selected topical issues including juvenile offending and mental disorders desistance theories and sexually transmitted infections
