Mapping and Charting in Early Modern England and France Christine Petto, 2015-03-26 Mapping and Charting for the Lion and the Lily Map and Atlas Production in Early Modern England and France is a comparative study of the production and role of maps charts and atlases in early modern England and France with a particular focus on Paris the cartographic center of production from the late seventeenth century to the late eighteenth century and London which began to emerge in the late eighteenth century to eclipse the once favored Bourbon center The themes that carry through the work address the role of government in map and chart making In France in particular it is the importance of the centralized government and its support for geographic works and their makers through a broad and deep institutional infrastructure Prior to the late eighteenth century in England there was no central controlling agency or institution for map chart or atlas production and any official power was imposed through the market rather than through the establishment of institutions There was no centralized support for the cartographic enterprise and any effort by the crown was often challenged by the power of Parliament which saw little value in fostering or supporting scholar geographers or a national survey This book begins with an investigation of the imagery of power on map and atlas frontispieces from the late sixteenth century to the seventeenth century In the succeeding chapters the focus moves from county and regional mapping efforts in England and France to the paper wars over encroachment in their respective colonial interests The final study looks at charting efforts and highlights the role of government support and the commercial trade in the development of maritime charts not only for the home waters of the English Channel but the distant and dangerous seas of the East Indies Indiana Off the Beaten Path® Phyllis Thomas, 2012-06-19 Tired of the same old tourist traps Whether you re a visitor or a local looking for something different let Indiana Off the Beaten Path show you the Hoosier State you never knew existed Check out the world s largest ball of paint in Alexandria crunch through dozens of tasty flavored pickles at Sechler s Pickle Factory in St Joe or get up close and personal with more than a dozen vintage and military aircraft at the Hoosier Air Museum near Auburn So if you ve been there done that one too many times get off the main road and venture Off the Beaten Path A Bittersweet Heritage Victoria Perry, 2022-08-07 The 2020 toppling of slave trader Edward Colston s statue by Black Lives Matter protesters in Bristol was a dramatic reminder of Britain s role in trans Atlantic slavery too often overlooked Yet the legacy of that predatory economy reaches far beyond bronze memorials it continues to shape the entire visual fabric of the country Architect Victoria Perry explores the relationship between the wealth of slave owning elites and the architecture and landscapes of Georgian Britain She reveals how profits from Caribbean sugar plantations fed the opulence of stately homes and landscape gardens Trade in slaves and slave grown products also boosted the prosperity of ports like Bristol Liverpool and Glasgow shifting cultural influence towards the Atlantic west New artistic centres like Bath emerged while investment in poor remote areas of Wales

Cumbria and Scotland led to their re imagining as tourist destinations Snowdonia the Lakes and the Highlands The patronage of absentee planters popularised British ideas of natural scenery viewing mountains rivers and rocks as landscape art and then exported the concept of sublime and picturesque landscapes across the Atlantic A Bittersweet Heritage unearths the slavery tainted history of Britain s manors ports roads and countryside and powerfully explains what this legacy means today New York Game & Fish ,2005 Pieces of Eight Charles R.
