Mastery Elegance Two Centuries Of French Drawings From The Collection Of Jeffrey E Horvitz:

Mastery & elegance Alvin L. Clark, 1998 Mastery Elegance Two Centuries of French Drawings from the Collection of Jeffrey E Horvitz is the catalogue of an exhibition that presents for the first time a selection from the most comprehensive private American collection of French old master drawings The catalogue features 115 drawings by seventy artists which range in date from the beginning of the seventeenth century to the early years of the nineteenth French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations Master Drawings from the Smith College Museum of Art Smith College. Museum of Art, Ann H. Sievers, Linda D. Muehlig, Nancy Rich, 2000 This newest volume in Hudson Hills Press's acclaimed series about leading collections of master drawings presents sixty eight great sheets all reproduced in full color including many versos from one of the finest college museums in America The Story of Edgewater House, 1910-2016 Nancy Glidden Coffey, 2016-09-06 The history of the property and occupants of one of the most storied sites on Beverly's coastline Art and Religion in Eighteenth-Century Europe Nigel Aston, 2009-07-15 Eighteenth century Europe witnessed monumental upheavals in both the Catholic and Protestant faiths and the repercussions rippled down to the churches religious art forms Nigel Aston now chronicles here the intertwining of cultural and institutional turmoil during this pivotal century The sustained popularity of religious art in the face of competition from increasingly prevalent secular artworks lies at the heart of this study Religious art staked out new spaces of display in state institutions palaces and private collections the book shows as well as taking advantage of patronage from monarchs such as Louis XIV and George III who funded religious art in an effort to enhance their monarchical prestige Aston also explores the motivations and exhibition practices of private collectors and analyzes changing Catholic and Protestant attitudes toward art The book also examines purchases made by corporate patrons such as charity hospitals and religious confraternities and considers what this reveals about the changing religiosity of the era as well. An in depth historical study Art and Religion in Eighteenth Century Europe will be essential for art history and religious studies scholars alike.

Fifteenth- to Eighteenth-century European Drawings
 Egbert Haverkamp Begemann (Kunsthistoriker), Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1999. Early European art was a consuming interest of both Robert Lehman and his father Philip Lehman; an interest reflected in the remarkable number and quality of drawings they owned from the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries. In addition to an important group of early German drawings the collection includes a Saint Paul from a series associated with Jan van Eyck and the famous Scupstoel from the circle of Rogier van der Weyden, the only design for a decorative sculpture to survive from the fifteenth century. The great artists of the seventeenth century Peter Paul Rubens, Jacob Jordaens, Claude Lorrain and Rembrandt among them are also represented. Rembrandt by seven drawings including the large study of Leonardo's Last Supper that would stay in his mind all through his career. Drawings by Antoine Watteau, Jean Honor Fragonard, Gabriel de Saint Aubin, Thomas Gainsborough, Paul Sandby and George Romney are among the many from eighteenth century France and England. The volume discusses all 153 drawings at length, placing each in its art historical setting and complementing the discussion with comparative illustrations of related works. This e-book on the Met Publications website is also accompanied by links to related works and under the Additional Resources tab are links to Met works of art and Heilbrunn Timeline of Art History essays and timelines. Hadley, Elisabeth Hodermarsky, Rena Hoisington, Jan Leja, Edgar Munhall, 2006-01-01. This beautiful and important book highlights the collection of European drawings at the Yale University Art Gallery, one of America's premier university museums. From intimate studies to exquisite finished compositions, this selection of works documents the history of European drawing practices beginning with late medieval model books and progressing to the verge of the modern period. The accompanying text, written by a team of scholars, offers a unique introduction to various critical and technical aspects of the study of master drawings brought to life through drawings from a range of national schools and in a variety of media. Among the drawings examined in this handsomely produced volume are an animated pen and ink sketch by Giulio Romano, a pastoral landscape by Claude Lorrain, a forceful and humorous caricature by Guercino, a scene from the epic poem Orlando Furioso by Jean Honor Fragonard, and a delicate portrait by Edgar Degas.
