Empire of Texts in Motion Karen Laura Thornber, 2020-10-26 By the turn of the twentieth century Japan's military and economic successes made it the dominant power in East Asia drawing hundreds of thousands of Chinese Korean and Taiwanese students to the metropole and sending thousands of Japanese to other parts of East Asia The constant movement of peoples ideas and texts in the Japanese empire created numerous literary contact nebulae fluid spaces of diminished hierarchies where writers grapple with and transculturate one another's creative output Drawing extensively on vernacular sources in Japanese Chinese and Korean this book analyzes the most active of these contact nebulae semicolonial Chinese occupied Manchurian and colonial Korean and Taiwanese transculturations of Japanese literature It explores how colonial and semicolonial writers discussed adapted translated and recast thousands of Japanese creative works both affirming and challenging Japan's cultural authority Such efforts not only blurred distinctions among resistance acquiescence and collaboration but also shattered cultural and national barriers central to the discourse of empire In this context twentieth century East Asian literatures can no longer be understood in isolation from one another linked only by their encounters with the West but instead must be seen in constant interaction throughout the Japanese empire and beyond Things Japanese Basil Hall Chamberlain,1898 Healing in China Irv Givot,2004-11-08 Healing In China is a record of Irv Givots two journeys 1993 96 to study Chi Gong in China It is at once a description of a most extraordinary clinical workshop training and teacher a collection of stories of remarkable healings an essay into the nature of subtle energy and a snapshot of life in China for a group of Americans in the mid 1990s The central theme however is the authors unfolding discovery of Chi Gong with its mysterious power to cure disease and his evolving ability to integrate it both into his treatment of patients and his own quest for health Memories of a Brooklyn Boy Sol Schwartz,2018-03-09 This is the story of Sol Schwartz the youngest of three children born to Sam and Rose Schwartz Romanian immigrants who migrated to America in the early part of the twentieth century Sol born in 1925 relates about his stressful life growing up in Brooklyn as part of a somewhat fractured family He relates his struggles with education jobs and business ventures and his battles with cancer throughout most of his life that was constantly attacking members of his extended family as well as himself Being widowed twice forced Sol to cope with the problems of raising three children in a home environment with different mother images Sols business responsibilities necessitated his being away from home frequently on foreign trips complicating matters that at times were so stressful he considered suicide Then a third relationship found its way into his life and gave him cause to want to go on living

Japanese Cinema and Punk Mark Player,2025-05-15 In Japanese Cinema and Punk Mark Player examines how the do it yourself ethos of punk empowered a new generation of Japanese filmmakers during a period of crisis and change in Japan s film industry Drawing on rare materials and first hand interviews with key figures from the jishu eiga self made film tradition including Ishii Gakuryu formerly Ishii Sogo Yamamoto Masashi Tsukamoto Shin ya and Fukui Shozin Player explores how punk s bricolage style was leveraged to create exciting intermedial film aesthetics These aesthetics were influenced by rock music graffiti art street performance handmade animation television and other mass media By considering the practical phenomenological and political ramifications of combining diverse media elements Player offers in depth analyses of films such as Burst City 1982 Robinson s Garden 1987 Tetsuo The Iron Man 1989 and more He further traces the changing sociocultural position of Japan s punk generation throughout the 1980s from its euphoric early 80s peak to the growing disillusionment caused by its mainstream co optation and convergence Poet Lore ,1920 Morning Star, Midnight Sun Jeffrey Cox,2018-02-22 Following the disastrous Java Sea campaign the Allies stopped the Japanese advance at Coral Sea and Midway But the Japanese still threatened to build a network of bases in the South Pacific and threatened to cut off Australia In response Allies made a desperate move by starting their first offensive of the Pacific War Their first target a new Japanese airfield in a relatively unknown place in the Solomon Islands called Guadalcanal Hamstrung by obsolete pre war thinking and a bureaucratic mind set the US Navy had to adapt on the fly in order to compete with the mighty Imperial Japanese Navy Starting with the amphibious assaults on Guadalcanal and Tulagi and continuing with the worst defeat in US Navy history the campaign quickly turned into a see saw struggle where the evenly matched foes struggled to gain the upper hand and grind out a victory Following on from his hugely successful book Rising Sun Falling Skies Jeffrey R Cox tells the gripping story of the first Allied offensive of the Pacific War as they sought to regain dominance in the Pacific Asia, 1942

Nagasaki Susan Southard, 2017-08-31 On August 9th 1945 the US dropped an atomic bomb on Nagasaki It killed a third of the population instantly and the survivors or hibakusha would be affected by the life altering medical conditions caused by the radiation for the rest of their lives They were also marked with the stigma of their exposure to radiation and fears of the consequences for their children Nagasaki follows the previously unknown stories of five survivors and their families from 1945 to the present day It captures the full range of pain fear bravery and compassion unleashed by the destruction of a city Susan Southard has interviewed the hibakusha over many years and her intimate portraits of their lives show the consequences of nuclear war Nagasaki tells the neglected story of life after nuclear war and will help shape public debate over one of the most controversial wartime acts in history Published for the 70th anniversary of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki bombs this is the first study to be based on eye witness accounts of Nagasaki in the style of John Hersey's Hiroshima On August 9th 1945 three days after the atomic bombing of Hiroshima a 5 tonne plutonium bomb was dropped on the small coastal city of Nagasaki The explosion destroyed factories shops and homes and killed 74 000 people while injuring another 75 000 The two atomic bombs marked the end of a global war but for the tens of thousands of survivors it was the beginning of a new life marked with the stigma of being hibakusha atomic bomb affected people Susan Southard has spent a decade interviewing and researching the lives of the hibakusha raw emotive eye witness accounts which reconstruct the days months and years after the bombing the isolation of their hospitalisation and recovery the difficulty of re entering daily life and the enduring impact of life as the only people in history who have lived through a nuclear attack and its aftermath Following five teenage survivors from 1945 to the present day Southard unveils the lives they have led their injuries in the annihilation of the bomb the dozens of radiation related cancers and illnesses they have suffered the humiliating and frightening choices about marriage they were forced into as a result of their fears of the genetic diseases that may be passed through their families for generations to come The power of Nagasaki lies in the detail of the survivors stories as deaths continued for decades because of the radiation contamination which caused various forms of cancer Intimate and compassionate while being grounded in historical research Nagasaki reveals the censorship that kept the suffering endured by the hibakusha hidden around the world For years after the bombings news reports and scientific research were censored by U S occupation forces and the U S government led an efficient campaign to justify the necessity and morality of dropping the bombs As we pass the seventieth anniversary of the only atomic bomb attacks in history Susan Southard captures the full range of pain fear bravery and compassion unleashed by the destruction of a city The personal stories of those who survived beneath the mushroom clouds will transform the abstract perception of nuclear war into a visceral human experience Nagasaki tells the neglected story of life after nuclear war and will help shape public discussion and debate over one of the most controversial wartime acts in history American Book Publishing Record ,2007

Thanks for the Memories Jane Mersky Leder,2006-09-30 Thanks for the Memories destroys the historical myth that young men and women went about the business of war and stayed on the straight and narrow path Rather World War II provided new opportunities for sexual experimentation for hasty marriages for flourishing prostitution and for love connections that have stood the test of time Young men in the military far away from family and home did things they might never have done Young women many of whom went to work for the first time experienced a freedom and independence most women had never known Because of the war courtships were cut short couples married more quickly than normal and husbands and wives were often separated for several years Despite attempts to get back to normal after the war and the apparent togetherness of the 1950s World War II had set change in motion heralding the second wave of the women s liberation movement The collective consciousness of World War II revolved around the virtues of bravery sacrifice and commitment Members of The Greatest Generation toed political and social lines in hopes of winning the war They fell into lockstep asking very few questions and breaking few social and sexual mores Or did they In fact World War II was like all wars a time of sexual experimentation and a general loosening of morals It was a time of conflicting emotions and conflicting messages a time of great sacrifice and a time of discovery when some groups especially woman experienced a relaxing of bonds that had kept them in check Thanks For The Memories Love Sex and

World War II the true story of how the World War II generation responded to the passions of war and how those passions changed their lives and the relationships between the sexes forever But this book is more than that As Jane Mersky Leder writes Thanks for the Memories opens the hearts and memories of a generation that is dying by one estimate at the rate of more than 1 000 a day It exposes the sexual and romantic escapades of The Greatest Generation and underscores how those four war years revolutionized relationships including those between gays and how it helped set the stage for the second wave of the women s liberation movement Many who never thought their stories mattered Leder writes now feel the pull of limited time and the importance of leaving an accurate account for their children and grandchildren of what it was like to be a young man or young woman during World War II This is their collective story The Rise of Gay Rights and the Fall of the British Empire David A. J. Richards,2013-04-22 This book argues that there is an important connection between ethical resistance to British imperialism and the ethical discovery of gay rights It examines the roots of liberal resistance in Britain and resistance to patriarchy in the USA showing the importance of fighting the demands of patriarchal manhood and womanhood to countering imperialism Advocates of feminism and gay rights are key because they resist the gender binary s role in rationalizing sexism and homophobia The connection between the rise of gay rights and the fall of empire illuminates questions of the meaning of democracy and universal human rights as shared human values that have appeared since World War II The book casts doubt on the thesis that arguments for gay rights must be extrinsic to democracy and reflect Western values To the contrary gay rights arise from within liberal democracy and its critics polemically use such opposition to cover and rationalize their own failures of democracy Memories of Rugby and India Sir Alexander John Arbuthnot,1910
