Mini Colonial Village To Press Out Ass:

Confronting Colonial Objects Carsten Stahn, 2023-10-06 The treatment of cultural colonial objects is one of the most debated questions of our time Calls for a new international cultural order go back to decolonization However for decades the issue has been treated as a matter of comity or been reduced to a Shakespearean dilemma to return or not to return Confronting Colonial Objects seeks to go beyond these classic dichotomies and argues that contemporary practices are at a tipping point The book shows that cultural takings were material to the colonial project throughout different periods and went far beyond looting It presents micro histories and object biographies to trace recurring justifications and contestations of takings and returns while outlining the complicity of anthropology racial science and professional networks that enabled colonial collecting The book demonstrates the dual role of law and cultural heritage regulation in facilitating colonial injustices and mobilizing resistance thereto Drawing on the interplay between justice ethics and human rights Stahn develops principles of relational cultural justice He challenges the argument that takings were acceptable according to the standards of the time and outlines how future engagement requires a re invention of knowledge systems and relations towards objects including new forms of consent provenance research and partnership and a re thinking of the role of museums themselves Following the life story and transformation of cultural objects this book provides a fresh perspective on international law and colonial history that appeals to audiences across a variety of disciplines This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations

Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Donald R. Wehrs, 2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford s Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa s Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum s Doguićimi 1938 D O Fagunwa s Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola s The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives

Village creates a historical microcosm of the evolution of humanity Told through the experiences of the young the old and the unborn each character is created to feel timeless in their common intensities of life The Village is used as a stage community and a link to its residents across generations It is where we all came from and people have been brave quirky doubtful and persistent since its very beginning Schumacher s foray into historical fiction could not be more timely as acknowledgment of the Pilgrim s New World 400 years later is under examination and commemoration across the region His inventive imagery and historic tone transport you to a time when the world was new and possibilities were endless A remarkable tribute to the history upon which the Cape and the country as a whole have been built Brian Shortsleeve Publisher of Cape Cod LIFE The Village Karl Schumacher s boldly imagined book of stories does what collections are meant to do provoke you to think It also happens to be very well written funny where it needs to be and always clever But it is the book s premise that leaps out one bit of earth a village is seen through the arc of time from the landing of the first English settlers on Cape Cod to a not too distant future We see repeated patterns of love frailty greed intelligence and stupidity unfold on an unchanging spit of land telling us in a very gentle way that as much as things change they stay the same Paul Vidich acclaimed author of The Coldest Warrior An Honorable Man The Good Assassin and works of non fiction Computerworld ,2004-02-09 For more than 40 years Computerworld has been the leading source of technology news and information for IT influencers worldwide Computerworld s award winning Web site Computerworld com twice monthly publication focused conference series and custom research form the hub of the world s largest global IT media network The Illustrated London News ,1844

Recognizing Heritage Thomas H. Guthrie,2013-12-01 In 2006 Congress established the Northern Rio Grande National Heritage Area to recognize the four hundred year coexistence of Spanish and Indian peoples in New Mexico and their place in the United States National heritage areas enable local communities to partner with the federal government to promote historic preservation cultural conservation and economic development Recognizing Heritage explores the social political and historical context of this and other public efforts to interpret and preserve Native American and Hispanic heritage in northern New Mexico The federal government s recognition of New Mexico s cultural distinctiveness contrasts sharply with its earlier efforts to wipe out Indian and Hispanic cultures Yet even celebrations of cultural difference can reinforce colonial hierarchies Multiculturalism and colonialism have overlapped in New Mexico since the nineteenth century when Anglo American colonists began promoting the region s unique cultures and exotic images to tourists Thomas H Guthrie analyzes the relationship between heritage preservation and ongoing struggles over land water and identity resulting from American colonization He uses four sites within the heritage area to illustrate the unintentional colonial effects of multiculturalism a history and anthropology museum an Indian art market a tricultural commemorative plaza and a mountain village famous for its adobe architecture Recognizing Heritage critiques the politics of recognition and suggests steps toward a more just multiculturalism that fundamentally challenges colonial inequalities Illustrated London News ,1843 Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News I.
